MEDIA INFORMATION

The Baylor Athletics Communications Office appreciates your interest in Baylor Football and looks forward to assisting you during the upcoming season. Our offices are located on the second floor of the Simpson Athletics and Academic Center on South University Parks Drive.

To better assist in your coverage, please take time to read the information found on the ensuing pages in this almanac. These policies have been established in consideration of the media's needs, as well as those of Baylor's student-athletes and coaches to create a positive work environment for all concerned.

If additional information or assistance is required, please contact Brent Ingram, Assistant AD for Communications, or another member of the Baylor Athletic Communications staff. We appreciate your coverage of Baylor Football and look forward to working with you this season.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in covering Baylor football on either a season or single-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the Baylor Athletics Communications football credential application website: www.baylorbears.com/credentials. Requests made within five days of the game may not be considered.

Credentials will be sent to the visiting school's media relations director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Athletics Communications Office located at the Simpson Center or on game day at the McLane Stadium media entrance (located near gate B on the northwest corner of McLane Stadium).

Media parking at McLane Stadium is available on a limited basis. Parking information will be included with media credentials. Requests for parking passes should be made along with your credential request well in advance to the Athletics Communications Office.

UNAUTHORIZED CREDENTIAL USE

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Working media are not permitted to request autographs or take photos with student-athletes or coaches under any circumstance. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked immediately.

WEB-BASED MEDIA

Web-based media from sites affiliated with established, nationally recognized news-gathering organizations are eligible for media credentials.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling. Nor will credentials be granted to "fan-submitted" or un-edited sites that are not affiliated with an established news-gathering organization and/or sites whose sole entity is fan-generated message boards that allow the posting of anonymous comments.

MCLANE STADIUM SIDELINES

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must wear photo vests and have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to promote the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media credential who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Baylor's locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road. Interviews will be conducted after a cooling-down period, and outside of the originating broadcast network, no interviews will be conducted on the field. At McLane Stadium, the home postgame interview room is located on the service (ground) level directly off the media entrance (elevator lobby) in the Northwest corner of the facility.

Baylor coach Dave Aranda and selected players will be available approximately 15 minutes following the game (video of Aranda will air on pressbox TVs). Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The visiting team interview room at McLane Stadium is located inside the Southeast ramp from the field on the service (ground) level and the visiting SID will establish visiting locker room admittance policies.

DIRECTIONS TO MCLANE STADIUM

"MLK" MEDIA PARKING

1306 South Martin Luther King Jr Blvd (corner of MLK & 4th Street):

FROM SOUTH (Northbound on I-35): Exit I-35 at Martin Luther King Jr Blvd [Exit #335C], turn right onto Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., pass MLK/Media Lot on left, make U-Turn for entrance from east. (lot is on corner of 4th St., next to George's lot and across the street from B-Lot entrance).

A parking map can be viewed at: <https://baylorbea.rs/fbparking>

DIRECTIONS TO HIGHERS ATHLETIC COMPLEX

1500 South University Parks Dr:

The Highers Athletic Complex, which includes the Simpson Athletics and Academic Center (home to the Baylor Athletic Communications and Baylor Football offices), the Allison Indoor Practice Facility and the Beauchamp Athletic Nutrition Center (BANC), is located on the south bank of the Brazos River at 1500 South University Parks Drive in Waco.

Exit I-35 at the "University Parks Drive" [Exit #335B]; the facility is located one-half mile east of I-35 (left side of road), just past the Mayborn Museum.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Check with the Baylor Athletics Communications office for status of media attendance at Baylor Football practices. When practice is open, video and still photographers may shoot only during the designated time window. A member of the Baylor Athletics Communications staff will be on-site to coordinate locations for media during each open window.

MCLANE STADIUM MEDIA CENTER

The McLane Stadium Media Center, located on the fifth level of McLane Stadium, opens four hours prior to game time, and includes the working press box, as well as TV, radio, coaches, command center and BaylorVision booths. Just inside the media entrance (Northwest corner of McLane Stadium), two dedicated elevators will service the fifth level almost exclusively. The photo work room and Baylor interview room are located just off the media entrance lobby.

Meals will be served two hours before kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game notes and programs are provided prior to the game. Stats and quotes are provided after the game.

Complimentary wireless internet is available by connecting to the McLane Stadium network. On game day, Baylor ITS representatives will be on hand to assist media members.

MEDIA INFORMATION

RADIO FREQUENCY COORDINATION AT MCLANE STADIUM

Any affiliate TV station, video crew, radio station or other media using any transmission device (mics, IFBs, In-Ears, 2-way radios, microwave, etc. [cell phones excluded]) must have clearance through the McLane Stadium frequency coordinator. The device and frequency under which it operates must be reported in advance to avoid interference with the many radio frequency devices that already have been established. If you plan on using a "wired microphone," please do NOT bring your wireless equipment into the stadium. Media should visit www.stadiumcoordination.com to access frequency registration.

BAYLOR VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS FTP SITE

Baylor provides broadcast-quality video of home game postgame highlights via FTP download. Contact Justin Hoff (254-709-6473, Justin_Hoff@baylor.edu) for more information.

BAYLOR MEDIA SITE

An all-encompassing media page can be found on Baylor's website at: <http://baylorbears.com/media>. Among the information available at this site are links and pdfs of statistics, game notes, quick facts and directions as well as photo/logo downloads.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

CollegePressBox.com, the official media website for Big 12 football, includes game notes, stats and media guides from the conference and member schools throughout the season. Login information is distributed by the conference office to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DR. LINDA A. LIVINGSTONE
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
OKLAHOMA STATE, 1982

Linda A. Livingstone, Ph.D., is the 15th president of Baylor University, having served in that capacity since 2017. During her tenure as president, Dr. Livingstone has overseen the development of Baylor's strategic plan, Illuminate, which provides a foundation for Baylor's aspiration to become a preeminent Christian research university. In addition, she has led Give Light, a $1.1 billion comprehensive philanthropic campaign that undergirds Illuminate, reaching the campaign's fundraising goals well before its anticipated conclusion.

Enhancing the University's academic enterprise has been a key priority of Dr. Livingstone's leadership. She is animated by a desire to build upon Baylor's historic strengths and increase undergraduate and graduate educational opportunities while expanding the University's service to the surrounding world through research and scholarship. Through the philanthropic generosity of the Baylor Family, the University has added more than 45 new fully endowed chairs to the faculty since her arrival. In addition, 100 new faculty lines will be created over the course of five years in support of Illuminate's goals.

As a result of Dr. Livingstone's dynamic and collaborative leadership, the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education designated Baylor a Research 1 university in December 2021 – its highest classification – three years earlier than internal projections had anticipated.

During Dr. Livingstone's presidency, Baylor has responded to the need to cultivate an increasingly welcoming and nurturing community. Baylor was named one of the country's top-10 Most Trusted Universities in consecutive surveys from 2022 and 2023 by national research firm Morning Consult. Morning Consult also named Baylor the second-most trusted university by parents and employers. In addition, Dr. Livingstone has led the implementation of recommendations from the Commission on Historic Campus Representations designed to create a physical environment on campus that tells the complete Baylor story and celebrates the diversity of the Baylor Family.

During Dr. Livingstone's tenure as president, Baylor has consistently been named one of the top two schools in the Big 12 Conference and one of the top five in Texas in U.S. News & World Report's annual college rankings. Baylor has also risen in such categories as First-year Experience, Best Undergraduate Teaching and Best Colleges for Veterans. As Baylor has continued to enjoy strong enrollments and expanding academic programs, the University also has undertaken renovations to historic academic buildings and residence halls while building new facilities – such as the Paul and Alejandra Foster Pavilion and the Mark and Paula Hurd Welcome Center – that are transforming the Baylor skyline.

A strong voice for the role of faith-based institutions in American higher education, Dr. Livingstone has established herself as a scholar in organizational behavior, leadership, and creativity. She has been extensively published and cited in academic and professional outlets. As Baylor's president, she has applied her faith commitment to all aspects of her leadership, drawing inspiration from the message of Romans 12:2: "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is – his good, pleasing, and perfect will." During her presidency, Baylor faculty and staff have initiated an unprecedented longitudinal study to track the long-term impact of a Baylor education on a person's faith and character.

The information collected each year, from the time students arrive at Baylor to a decade after graduation, has informed a number of changes on campus, including a redesign of our University Chapel course.

As an extension of her leadership on the Baylor campus, Dr. Livingstone has become a nationally recognized leader in the landscape of college athletics. She served on the NCAA Constitution Committee charged with developing a new, streamlined constitution for the NCAA, and she is a member of the Division I Transformation Committee. In June 2022, she was named one of nine members of the newly reorganized NCAA Board of Governors, which she now chairs. She is also chair of the American Council on Education Board and chair of the Big 12 Conference Board of Directors. Additionally, she serves on the Baylor College of Medicine Board of Trustees and the Board of Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas.

Dr. Livingstone previously served as dean and professor of management at The George Washington University School of Business, as dean and professor of management at Pepperdine University's Graziadio School of Business and Management and as a tenured faculty member and associate dean of graduate programs at Baylor's Hankamer School of Business.

Dr. Livingstone was inducted into Oklahoma State University's Hall of Fame in 2020. She is a member of the Spears School of Business Hall of Fame, was the first recipient of the Outstanding Ph.D. Alumnus Award and was recognized in 2015 with the OSU Distinguished Alumni Award.

A native of Perkins, Oklahoma, Dr. Livingstone played varsity basketball at Oklahoma State University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in economics and management, a Master of Business Administration and a Doctor of Philosophy in management and organizational behavior. Her husband, Brad, a high school history teacher, also played basketball at Oklahoma State. They have one daughter, Shelby, a former volleyball student-athlete at Rice University and graduate of Baylor's George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MACK RHOADES*VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
ARIZONA, 1993

Mack B. Rhoades, IV, who has provided outstanding leadership and vision for three NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision athletic programs, was named Baylor University's Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on July 13, 2016.

Rhoades has organized a team of dynamic administrators and restructured the athletics department to maximize efficiencies across teams. His concept of Preparing Champions for Life has provided the ongoing vision for Baylor Athletics, which aims to bolster the student-athlete experience by focusing on the areas of academic achievement, athletic success, character formation and spiritual growth.

Over his eight years in Waco, Baylor has won 24 Big 12 titles and eight national championships. Since 2011, Baylor leads the nation in combined wins among football, and men's and women's basketball, sporting 46 more wins than the next closest.

The 2023-24 season saw Coach Fee Mulkey's Acrobatics & Tumbling team win its ninth-consecutive national championships. Softball won the NCAA Lafayette Regional and advanced to a Super Regional, men's tennis advanced to a 26th straight NCAA Tournament and the women's tennis team earned its 25th all-time NCAA appearance, and Volleyball advanced to its eighth straight NCAA Tournament.

Most notably, the 2023-24 athletic season marked the opening of the Paul & Alejandra Foster Pavilion, a $212.6 million dollar jewel of Waco's revitalization of the Brazos River Front. The Baylor men's and women's basketball team played conference schedules at The Foster and moved into the Allison Development Center in July.

Baylor's student-athletes continued to shine academically and in the community, with a 3.32 departmental GPA marking a tie for the best academic year on record and 13 programs boasted a 3.2+ GPA. Baylor athletes participated in 138 character formation programs and events and 35 student-athletes graduated from the leadership institute.

Rhoades led a team in the Baylor Bear Foundation in 2023-24 that once again shattered departmental records, reporting $25.6 million in total giving during the fiscal year.

In 2022-23, Baylor saw its Acrobatics & Tumbling team secure an eighth-straight national championship, while running its streak to 27 straight wins. New head coaches Mitch Thompson (baseball) and Michelle Lenard (soccer) debuted, all while the Bears found continued success in competition. Football advanced to a bowl game for the 11th time in 13 years, softball earned a 40-win season, men's and women's golf advanced to the NCAA Championship, men's tennis earned its 25th straight NCAA Tournament bid and women's tennis advanced to its 24th NCAA tourney appearance. Volleyball earned its seventh-straight NCAA Tournament appearance and advanced to the Sweet 16.

Off the field of competition, the Bears excelled again in 2022-23, earning a 3.28 departmental GPA with 11 teams sporting a combined GPA of over 3.2. The spring marked the 30th consecutive semester with a departmental wide GPA of at least 3.0 and over the fall and spring 535 student-athletes earned Academic Champion status, which equates to graduates, student-athletes with a 3.5 GPA or a personal best GPA. The Bears also boasted over 183 events through its Character Formation program, with 440 student-athletes participating in community volunteer activities, equaling to an economic impact of $117,217. There were two mission trips, including 30 student-athletes and nine sports, and the Bears saw continued growth in iDisciple, chapel and team ministry programs.

The Baylor Bear Foundation had a banner year in 2022-23 under Rhoades, with the foundation exceeding budgeted goals in raising $25.1 million in total gifts, the best annual giving campaign in school history, while raising an additional $56 million beyond its annual fund contributions during the 2022-23 fiscal year.

Rhoades has been instrumental in securing the largest current gift in Baylor history, a $100-million gift that will help to fund the new Paul and Alejandra Foster Basketball Pavilion. In addition to the state-of-the-art Foster Pavilion, set to open in January of 2024, Rhoades has also spearheaded the Fudge Development Center, a $75-million facility that will house the daily operations of the football program and will open in the summer of 2024.

During 2021-22, Baylor had one of the best athletic seasons in collegiate history, earning Big 12 Championships in football, and men's and women's basketball, the only school in the 26-year history of the league to accomplish that feat. The Bears boasted a 74-8 record in football and men's and women's basketball, the best in the country. Football won the 2021 Sugar Bowl, while earning a No. 4 national ranking at the end of the season. Acrobatics & Tumbling claimed its seventh-straight NCAA Championship and men's tennis claimed the Big 12 Tournament title. A total of nine teams earned top-10 national rankings. The Bears were the only school in the nation to have multiple NFL, NBA and WNBA draft picks.

Off the field in 2021-22, the Bears had a 94-percent graduation success rate (GSR), the highest in the Big 12 Conference in the last eight years. BU had a combined 3.32 GPA across all sports and 10 of 17 sports owned at least a 3.3 GPA for the season. There were 163 events sponsored by Character Formation, with Spiritual Growth and the Baylor Built program excelling in its impact on BU student-athletes. BBF raised $21.9 million in total giving during the fiscal year, a then-school record, while adding an additional $33 million beyond annual fund contributions.

For the second-consecutive full term (not including the COVID-shortened 2019-20 campaign), the Bears brought home multiple national championships. After acrobatics & tumbling won its fifth-straight title and women's basketball clinched their third national championship in 2019, A&T extended to six straight in 2020-21 and men's basketball claimed its first in program history.

In June 2021, Rhoades was selected as Sports Business Journal's 2021 Athletics Director of the Year, marking the second Athletics Director of the Year honor earned by Rhoades in as many years. He was chosen as 2019-20 NACDA Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year in March 2020.

The 2020-21 academic year, despite the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, brought success for Baylor Athletics as the department combined to bring 20 trophies home to Waco. Men's basketball won its first Big 12 regular-season title and clinched its first conference title since 1950 en route to winning every NCAA tournament game by an average of 15.3 points to claim its first-ever national championship.

The women's basketball program brought home its 11th-straight, and 12th overall, Big 12 regular season championship in addition to their 11th Big 12 Championship title, marking the 10th time Baylor swept the regular-season and tournament titles. The women's basketball team advanced to the program's 10th Elite Eight, marking the sixth time in the last seven seasons the Bears have been one of the final eight squads standing.

Baylor had 16 of 19 teams reach the postseason in 2020-21. Acrobatics & Tumbling brought home its sixth-straight national championship, and men's tennis advanced to the program's third national championship match and first since 2005. Equestrian upset top-ranked Auburn in the NCEA Championship and Track & Field had three individual national champions at the same NCAA meet (NCAA Indoor Championships) for the first time in program history.

Overall, Baylor's 11 head-to-head sports compiled a 208-86-3 record (.705 winning percentage) during the 2020-21 academic year as 10 of Baylor's 17 teams finished the term ranked, including six in the top 10. Baylor Athletics also brought home six Big 12 titles.

In the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, thanks in large part to the direction of Baylor's health & wellness staff, the Bears completed 93.3 percent of their scheduled contests.

Academically, Baylor set a school record with an overall score of 94 in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) that led the Big 12 for the seventh-straight year and was tops in the state of Texas in addition to ranking 10th nationally among Power Five schools. The Bears have had a 3.0

VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GPA or better term GPA for 26-straight semesters.

Rhoades also oversaw the Baylor Bear Foundation as it reported more than $19.5 million in annual giving to Baylor Athletics in 2020, tied for the second-highest giving total in the foundation's 70-plus year history.

The 2018-19 academic year brought several strategic initiatives to the forefront of athletics beginning with December's unveiling of the "Baylor Built" character formation program. The holistic program encompasses character and leadership development, personal skills, social responsibility, community engagement and spiritual growth.

Rhoades has led national searches for eight head coaching positions during his time at Baylor, ultimately bringing to Waco, Matt Rhule (Football) in 2016, Casie Maxwell (Equestrian) in 2017, Brian Boland (Men's Tennis) in 2018, Dave Aranda (Football) in 2020, Nicki Collen (Women's Basketball) in 2021, Michelle Lenard (Soccer) in 2022 and Mitch Thompson (Baseball) in 2022. He also promoted Michael Woodson to head coach during the men's tennis team's postseason run to a national runner-up finish.

The Bears remain committed to giving back, with student-athletes volunteering more than 5,500 hours throughout the Waco community in the last three academic years. The football, men's and women's basketball teams each adopted local elementary schools during the school term where student-athletes would read to classes either virtually or in person.

While mission trips were put on hold for the 2020-21 term due to the pandemic, more than 100 student-athletes participated in spiritual growth opportunities on campus. Previously, Baylor's Sports Ministry Team traveled to share the love of Christ internationally for 12 consecutive years.

Rhoades joined the Baylor family from the University of Missouri, where he spent the previous year (2015-16) leading the 20-sport Southeastern Conference intercollegiate athletics department, and he previously served in similar capacities at the University of Houston (2009-15) and the University of Akron (2006-09).

His first year in Columbia saw Mizzou student-athletes register the highest one-semester grade-point in school history at 3.03 for the fall 2015 term; Barry Odom hired as the Tigers' head football coach; wrestler J'den Cox win an NCAA title and earn a berth on the 2016 U.S. Olympic Team; the Tigers' men's swimming and diving team place a program-best eighth at the NCAA Championship and its women's basketball program return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006. Bolstered by three top 11 NCAA finishes--wrestling (sixth), men's swimming and diving (eighth) and women's swimming and diving (11th), Missouri finished 43rd in the final 2015-16 Learfield Directors' Cup standings.

Rhoades and his staff developed a student-athlete enrichment program, Mizzou Made: Preparing Champions for Life. This innovative and comprehensive program is part of a campus community partnership focusing on life skills and career development among other core values.

Before moving to Missouri, Rhoades enjoyed five-and-a-half rewarding years guiding the athletic fortunes at the University of Houston as Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics. He reignited the Cougars' entire program, hiring 14 new head coaches, including 2015 FWAA First-Year Coach of the Year Tom Herman. Rhoades also oversaw a transformation of the student-athlete experience while also directing marked improvements in the areas of academics, facilities, fundraising and athletic success. In nearly every academic measurement, including grade-point average and the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, Houston registered record achievements. He also unveiled the Cougar Pride Leadership Academy to equip student-athletes with life-long leadership and life skills.

Houston's football team appeared in four bowl games during Rhoades' six seasons, and enjoyed a historic 2011 campaign which saw it climb to No. 6 in the BCS standings en route to a 13-1 record and its first season-ending finish in The Associated Press Top 25 since 1990.

Known as an outstanding fundraiser, Houston raised nearly $100M and constructed $160M in new facilities during his tenure, including a new on-campus football stadium, a men's and women's basketball training center, a golf academy and a short-game facility. Rhoades also negotiated one of the nation's top five facility naming rights agreements at the collegiate level and secured a new multi-media rights deal for Houston. Cougar Pride, Houston Athletics' fundraising arm, set an annual donation record for the fifth-consecutive year in 2013-14 as more than 3,100 Cougar Pride members contributed $4.5M to eclipse the previous mark of $3.5M set the previous year.

Rhoades and University of Houston President Dr. Renu Khator successfully steered the institution into an exciting new era when it was invited in December 2011 to join The American Athletic Conference beginning with the 2013-14 academic year. Houston's first year in The American was arguably one of the finest in school history, as its 2013-14 teams combined for 157 victories, 17 American individual championships, 10 NCAA postseason berths and a pair of American team titles. That successful surge led to Houston's highest national finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2000-01.

Rhoades served as chair of the American Athletic Conference Athletics Directors Committee, Athletics Directors Executive Committee and Athletics Directors Finance Committee after having served Conference USA as chairperson for its Championship and Site Selection Committees.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Rhoades helped the University of Akron achieve unprecedented academic and athletic success. During his tenure, Zip student-athletes earned: 765 total Dean's List honors, 213 All-Conference honors, 83 Academic All-Conference awards, 20 team championships, 14 Conference Player of the Year awards and 12 All-America honors.

Rhoades' Akron tenure was also marked by the construction of a $61.6M on-campus football stadium, the creation of a women's golf program, three-time recognition for the department's diversity strategy and the hiring of 11 head coaches. UA student-athletes also generously gave back the community during Rhoades' tenure providing more than 5,000 service hours to the greater Akron area during each of the 2006-07 and 2007-08 academic years.

He served as a member of the NCAA Division I Championships/ Sports Management Cabinet--as well as its Administrative Committee, and led the Mid-American Conference External Affairs Committee. Rhoades also helped then-MAC Commissioner Rick Chryst negotiate an unprecedented TV contract for the league with ESPN.

Rhoades went to Akron after seven years at UTEP, where he worked his way up the department ranks to become the Miners Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director after starting as Assistant Athletics Director for Development. In his final position at UTEP, Rhoades oversaw all fundraising, the marketing and media relations offices as well as football external operations, men's basketball, men's golf, licensing, Miner Athletic Club and the athletics ticket office.

Rhoades, who holds a bachelor's degree in health sciences from the University of Arizona (1993) and a master's of science degree in athletics administration/ sports management from Indiana University (2002), began his intercollegiate athletics career as a marketing assistant in the Yale athletic department (1996) and worked in development at Marquette (1997-98) before joining the UTEP staff in 1998.

Mack and his wife, Amy, have three daughters - Nicolette (husband Christian Santillán), Natalie (husband, Andrew Charbine and children, Gerard and Gianna) and Noelle (husband, Mason Schlotzhauer).

COACHING STAFF

DAVE ARANDA
HEAD COACH (4TH SEASON)
CAL LUTHERAN, 1999

A 2020 National Champion and 26-year coaching veteran, Dave Aranda was named the 28th head coach in Baylor Football history on Jan. 16, 2020.

Aranda (uh-RAN-duh) came to Waco after four seasons as associate head coach and defensive coordinator at LSU, including a 2020 National Championship and a 2019 SEC Championship. Widely considered one of the top defensive minds in football, Aranda has a track record of producing NFL-ready players.

The Bears went 3-9 in Aranda's fourth season at the helm, which included the largest comeback in program history, a 35-34 win at UCF that saw Baylor rally from down 28 in the second half to pull off the win. Baylor played the youngest roster in the Big 12 Conference in 2023, which featured just south of 50% of its snaps played by underclassmen and a league-leading number of snaps played by freshmen.

Baylor went into the offseason for the 2024 season with a furious mission to support that youthful talent from the 2023 roster with a bevy of standouts from the transfer portal, all while revamping the coaching staff to include Khenon Hall (associate head coach/RBs), Jake Spavital (offensive coordinator/QBs), Jarrett Anderson (TEs), Inoke Breckterfield (DL), Jamar Chaney (ILBs) and Mason Miller (OL). Aranda has taken over defensive play calling duties and is working directly in a position coach role with the inside linebackers, harkening back to his strength as one of the nation's best defensive minds. The Bears have also embraced the new era of name, image and likeness, and have quickly positioned themselves as a leader in that space in college football, with Chief of Staff Jeff Grigus, Associate AD for NIL Administration and Pro Relations Keava Soil-Cormier and departmental wide NIL General Manager David Kaye forming a dynamic team in supporting roster development.

Aranda led the Bears to their 11th bowl game in the last 13 years in 2022, a season that saw Baylor ranked in the top-25 polls in 10 of 16 weeks. Baylor earned a pair of monumental road wins, including a rout at Texas Tech for its first win in Lubbock since 1990, in a series that played 10 straight in Arlington, and a win at Oklahoma to claim BU's second straight win over the Sooners. Baylor won three games on the road in league play, just one win shy of the program record for road league wins.

In 2022, the Bears saw defensive tackle Siaki Ika earn All-America honors from Phil Steele. Running back Richard Reese shattered the freshman rushing record and earned Big 12 Conference Offensive Newcomer of the Year.

In just his second season in Waco, Aranda led Baylor to a third Big 12 Championship and the biggest bowl win in program history, a 21-7 Sugar Bowl victory over Ole Miss. The win was Baylor's first BCS/New Year's Six bowl win in the modern era.

The Bears also won 12 games for the first time in program history, despite being picked to finish eighth in the Big 12 preseason media poll. BU finished the season ranked No. 5 nationally, the highest final ranking in program history.

Following the season's success, Aranda was named the 2021 George Munger Coach of the Year and was a 2021 Coach of the Year finalist for three separate awards, including the Bear Bryant Award, Dodd Trophy and Eddie Robinson Award. He also received Big 12 Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press.

In 2021, Aranda's Bears tied for the best turnaround in college football, boasting a ten-win improvement from the previous year, including a school-record five wins against ranked opponents.

The turnaround was spurred by complementary football, spearheaded by a defense that held every opponent to 30-points or fewer, one of just three teams in the country to accomplish the feat. Under the direction of Aranda and defensive coordinator Ron Roberts, the defense punctuated their dominant season with an Allstate Sugar Bowl-record 10-sacks, while linebacker Terrel Bernard tied a Sugar Bowl record with 20 tackles. On average, the BU defense held opponents 13.2 points per game below their season average.

Under the guidance of Aranda and then first-year offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes, Baylor's offense ranked 10th nationally with 5.37 yards per rush. BU increased its rushing production by 142% from 2020, raising its rushing average from 90.3 yards per game (123rd nationally) to 219.3 yards per game (10th nationally). Additionally, Baylor ranked inside the nation's top-15 in fewest sacks allowed. Baylor running back Abram Smith also set program records with nine 100-yard rushing games in a single season along with the single-season rushing record (1,601).

In 2021, Baylor had seven players named to the All-Big 12 first- and second-teams, including four individual award winners in Jalen Pitre (Defensive Player of the Year), Trestan Ebner (Special Teams Player of the Year), Connor Galvin (Offensive Lineman of the Year) and Siaki Ika (Defensive Newcomer of the Year). Additionally, Pitre was one of three finalists for the 2021 Jim Thorpe Award, honoring the nation's top defensive back.

Three different Bears earned seven All-America honors from the five publications that make up the NCAA's consensus teams, highlighted by Pitre's four first-team accolades and one second-team recognition. Jacob Gall (second-team) and Galvin (third-team) were also recognized.

In his first season at Baylor, Aranda's program featured his first player earning All-America honors, with Trestan Ebner being selected to four different All-America teams. Additionally, Ebner was named Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year, and nine players were selected to the All-Big 12 team highlighted by first-team defensive back Jalen Pitre.

In six seasons as a defensive coordinator at a Power 5 Conference school, Aranda's defenses ranked in the Top 12 nationally in total yards five times. His defenses also ranked among the top 10 in scoring four of his final seven years. Since taking over as the defensive coordinator at Utah State in 2014 through his last season at LSU in 2019, Aranda's defenses allowed a touchdown or less in 48 of 108 games.

Over LSU's final five games of the 2019 season, including the SEC Championship and College Football Playoff, the Tigers allowed only 18 ppg with wins over No. 3 Clemson, No. 4 Oklahoma, No. 4 Georgia, Texas A&M, and Arkansas. In that stretch, the Tigers' defense allowed only 295.0 yards per game and intercepted six passes.

In his four years as defensive coordinator with the Tigers from 2016-19, Aranda had 18 of his players selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round picks K'Lavon Chaisson (2020), Patrick Queen (2020), Devin White (2019), Tre'Davious White (2017) and Jamal Adams (2017). In addition to the draft picks, eight more of Aranda's LSU defenders have made NFL rosters as free agents. From 2010-15, Aranda had six defenders drafted from stops at Hawai'i, Utah State, and Wisconsin.

During his stay at LSU, the Tigers increased their win total each season and produced a 42-11 overall mark. Seven players earned first-team All-America, and 11 achieved first-team All-SEC status under Aranda. All-America honorees include first-team selections

Derek Stingley, Jr. (2019), Grant Delpit (2018-19), Devin White (2018), Greedy Williams (2018), Tre'Davious White (2016), and Jamal Adams (2016).

Led by 2019 Thorpe Award winner Delpit, LSU's defense ranked No. 2 in the SEC in sacks (37.0), tackles for loss (96.0), and turnover margin (+10) while completing a perfect 15-0 record. The Tigers ranked No. 6 nationally and led the SEC, allowing third-down conversions only 29.6 percent of the time. LSU's 17 interceptions ranked No. 5 in the nation and led the SEC.

Aranda pupil Jacob Phillips was the 2019 SEC leader with 113 tackles, the second consecutive season an LSU linebacker led the league in stops following Devin White in 2018.

White, a player Aranda groomed for three years, became LSU's first Butkus Award winner in 2018. He capped his LSU career by earning consensus All-America honors on his way to becoming the highest-drafted linebacker in school history.

Under Aranda's direction from 2016-19, LSU ranked in the top five in most defensive categories in the SEC. The Tigers led the SEC in interceptions from 2018-19, along with ranking in the top three in rushing defense and sacks three times between 2016-19. His defensive unit has also ranked in the top five in passing defense and total defense in three of those four seasons, along with top four in scoring defense twice in that period.

In his first two seasons in Baton Rouge, Aranda's defense allowed a mere 20 passing touchdowns, with the 11 allowed in 2017 tying for fifth nationally. In his first season in 2016, LSU's defense had one of its best-ever performances as the unit finished the season ranked among the top three in the SEC in four major defensive categories, a feat not accomplished since 2006. It allowed the fewest total touchdowns (16) nationally and fewest touchdowns per game (1.3). The defense ranked fifth nationally in scoring with 15.8 points allowed per game and 10th in total yards allowed (314.4 yards per game). The Tigers held nine of 12 opponents to one touchdown or less, and only one opponent scored more than two offensive touchdowns. Individually, linebacker Arden Key broke the school record for sacks in a season with 12.

Prior to joining LSU, Aranda served as defensive coordinator at Wisconsin, where he led a Badgers unit that in a combined three-year span, ranked in the top five in the nation in the four major defensive categories – scoring, total yards, passing yards and rushing yards.

From 2013-15, Aranda's defense at Wisconsin allowed an average of 289.4 yards per game – which ranked first in the nation over that span. His defense allowed 16.9 points (No. 2 nationally), 179.9 passing yards (No. 3 nationally) and 109.6 rushing yards (No. 4 nationally) over the three years, a stretch that saw Wisconsin post a 30-10 record, reach the Big Ten title game in 2014 and play in two New Year's Day bowl games.

Aranda's 2015 defense capped the regular season leading the nation in points allowed at 13.1 points a contest. Wisconsin ranked No. 3 in the nation in total defense (268.5 yards per game), No. 4 in rushing defense (95.4 yards per game) and No. 7 in passing defense (173.2 yards per game).

Aranda spent the 2012 as defensive coordinator at Utah State where he helped the Aggies to a school record 11 wins. He oversaw an Aggies defense that ranked No. 7 in the country in scoring defense, allowing just 15.4 points per game.

In addition to scoring defense, Utah State also ranked among the top 15 nationally in sacks (eighth), pass efficiency defense (10th), rush defense (12th) and total defense (15th). The Aggies finished No. 3 nationally in red zone scoring defense (63.6%).

Aranda spent four years at Hawai'i from 2008-11, the last two as the Warriors' defensive coordinator after coaching the defensive line his first two seasons. During the 2011 season at Hawai'i, Aranda's defense led the Western Athletic Conference and was tied for 15th in the FBS in sacks with 35.

In 2010, Aranda's Hawai'i defense led the nation in turnovers caused (38), while ranking second in the nation in interceptions (23) and ninth in fumbles recovered (15), as well as tying the school record for most defensive touchdowns with five.

Prior to Hawai'i, Aranda coached at Delta State University in 2007, where he served as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Following the season, he spent one month as defensive coordinator at Southern Utah before being asked to join the Hawai'i staff.

In one year at Delta State, Aranda helped the school win the Gulf South Conference and lead NCAA Division II in pass efficiency defense, ranking second in total and scoring defense, and third in run defense.

Before Delta State, Aranda spent two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran, where the Kingsmen led the conference in scoring defense and total defense. It was his second go-around with California Lutheran after serving as an assistant from 1996-99, while finishing his degree.

Aranda spent five seasons in the state of Texas including a stint as linebackers coach at Houston (2003-04) and as a graduate assistant at Texas Tech (2000-02).

After he graduated from Redlands High School in California in 1994, numerous surgeries followed and ended his playing career. In 1995, he started his coaching resume at Redlands as an assistant coach. Aranda graduated from California Lutheran in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in philosophy. In 2002, he earned his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies at Texas Tech.

Aranda and his wife, Dione, have two daughters, Jaelyn and Jordyn, and a son, Ronin.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / RUNNING BACKS
ILLINOIS STATE, 2010

One of the top recruiting minds in the state of Texas, Khenon Hall is in his first year as Baylor's associate head coach/running backs coach in 2024.

A native of Dallas and a product of South Oak Cliff High School, Hall has spent the last two seasons on the staff at SMU as the assistant coach working with running backs, and in 2023 owning that title in addition to run-game coordinator. Hall previously spent the 2021 season at Texas Southern, which followed seven years at his alma mater, Illinois State (2014-20). He got his start in coaching as a student assistant at Illinois State (2009-10) and as a graduate assistant at New Mexico (2011-12).

Hall helped lead the Mustangs to the American Athletic Conference Championship in 2023, which included an 11-2 record and an 8-0 mark in league play. The Mustangs posted a win over No. 22 Tulane on Dec. 2 in New Orleans to claim the title, which saw SMU rush for 193 yards in the game to win its ninth-straight game. SMU will play in the Fenway Bowl vs. Boston College to conclude 2023.

SMU averaged 40.62 points per game, totaling 181.1 rush yards per game behind Hall's running attack. The 'Stangs ranked among the nation's leaders in first down offense (fourth), scoring offense (sixth), red-zone offense (10th), total offense (14th) and rushing offense (37th). Jaylan Knighton (720 yards, 7 TDs), LJ Johnson Jr. (544 yards, 3 TDs) and Camar Wheaton (410 yards, 5 TDs) helped Hall form a trio of running backs to lead the offense.

In 2022, Hall's running back room helped the Mustangs to several national rankings, checking in seventh in red zone offense, 12th in scoring offense and 14th in total offense. The Mustangs' 331 first downs set a program record, while the 1,005 total plays rank second. The 2022 squad also posted top-three program marks in scoring (3rd, 484) and total offense (3rd, 6,147 yards). SMU won seven games and went 5-3 in league play, advancing to the New Mexico Bowl.

Hall served as the running backs coach at Texas Southern in 2021. He led TSU to the 22nd best rushing offense in FCS in 2021, averaging 188.3 yards per game, with the offense ranking No. 20 overall in FCS with 429.5 yards per outing.

Before his one-year stint at TSU, Hall spent seven years at his alma mater, Illinois State. Hall worked in bevy of roles, which started in 2009-10 as a student assistant, and after time as a graduate assistant at New Mexico (2011-12), returned to the Redbirds to work at ISU from 2014-20.

In his first year at ISU as the team's defensive assistant coach in 2014, Hall made an immediate impact as Dontae McCoy earned All-MVFC Honorable Mention honors. McCoy recorded 67 tackles and broke up four passes. Hall also helped Alec Kocour earn MVFC Honorable Mention honors, despite playing in just nine games due to an injury. He also mentored and developed Davontae Harris, who finished his career with 208 tackles (152 solo stops), 38 passes defended (tied for fifth all-time at ISU), 10 tackles for loss, four interceptions and three sacks in 49 games played for the Redbirds. He was drafted in the fifth round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. Hall also had a hand in the development of Luther Kirk, who was named the Defensive MVP at the East-West Shrine Bowl. Kirk was also named an American Football Coaches Association FCS Coaches' and FCS All-America First-Team selection while also earning STATS FCS

All-America Second-Team and Associated Press FCS All-America Third-Team honors while serving as team captain.

Hall eventually moved over to the offensive side of the ball and spent three years as the team's running backs coach. Hall's presence generated another quick impact as running back James Robinson had his first 1,000-yard season and tied for second in the Missouri Valley Football Conference with 12 rushing touchdowns. As a result of his efforts on the field, Robinson was named a STATS FCS Walter Payton Award finalist and an All-American from multiple agencies. One year later, Hall helped Robinson move to another level as a consensus first-team All-American, a STATS FCS Walter Payton Award finalist for the second time and an First-Team All-MVFC selection for the third-straight season. Robinson led the MVFC in rushing yards (1,899), yards per game (126.6) and touchdowns (18) and recorded eight 100-plus yard rushing efforts, including a pair of 200-plus yard efforts in the first and second round of the FCS playoffs that included a school-record breaking 297-yard effort in the first-round when at Southeast Missouri. He finished the season ranked No. 2 in the FCS in rushing yards and yards per game and sixth in rushing touchdowns. One year later, Robinson broke an NFL record for most yards by an undrafted rookie in a Week 1 game as a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars. Robinson finished his rookie campaign with 1,000-plus yards and 10 total touchdowns.

Off the field, Hall also had a major impact serving as the team's recruiting coordinator and director of player personnel. Hall's 2020 recruiting class ranked No. 8 in the FCS.

Prior to joining Illinois State on a full-time basis, Hall served as a graduate assistant at New Mexico working with defensive backs during the 2011-12 season. Hall spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons as a student assistant at Illinois State and assisted with the Redbirds' secondary and defensive line.

Hall's collegiate playing career began at Trinity Valley Community College after a solid high school career at South Oak Cliff in Dallas. Hall ranked second on the team in 2007 with 70 tackles, including a team-high 66 solo stops, in eight games of action. In addition, he added four tackles-for-loss and a quarterback sack and was named to the 2006 All-Southwest Junior College Football Conference Honorable Mention team. He signed with Illinois State in 2008 and would start six games before a career-ending injury led him to coaching.

Hall graduated from Illinois State in 2010 with a degree in University Studies. He has three children: Jazlyn, Khenon Jr., and Khaydon.

JAKE SPAVITAL

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS
MISSOURI STATE, 2007

Jake Spavital is in his first year as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Baylor.

Spavital returns to the Lone Star State after spending the 2023 season as California's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jake to Waco to lead our offensive attack," Aranda said. "Jake brings so many things to the table and will be a tremendous asset to our program. Jake is one of the best offensive minds in the nation, having worked with some of the most innovative offenses in college football, and brings a great perspective to the offensive side of the ball as a former head coach in the state. He has coached elite quarterbacks throughout his career and has developed an offensive style that is exciting and challenging on the defense. I'm proud to welcome Jake and his family to Baylor."

Spavital is widely considered one of the best offensive minds in college football and brings a bevy of experience to Waco, including four years as the head coach at Texas State. He has also worked as the OC/QB coach at West Virginia (2017-18; 2010-11), Cal (2016) and Texas A&M (2013-15). He got his start in coaching at Tulsa in 2008, also working graduate assistant stints at Houston (2009) and Oklahoma State (2010).

He has coordinated offenses that ranked among the nation's top-30 in FEI in five of six years between West Virginia, Cal and Texas A&M, including a No. 10 mark in 2018 at WVU, also checking in No. 30 in 2017 at WVU, No. 22 at Cal in 2016, No. 12 at Texas A&M in 2014 and No. 2 in 2013 at Texas A&M.

At Cal, Spavital rejuvenated a Golden Bears offense that ranked fourth in the Pac-12 in rushing offense (181.1 yards per game) in 2023 and averaged 31.6 points per game. Spavital helped Cal become bowl eligible for the first time in four seasons after winning three-straight games to close out the 2023 campaign, averaging 34 points across the trio of victories.

In 2023, Spavital saw his squad pick up four Pac-12 Player of the Week honors, including three Offensive Lineman of the Week accolades. Behind that front, sophomore running back Jaydn Ott led all Pac-12 players in all-purpose yards per game (136.45) and rushed for a league-leading 1,260 yards (10th nationally) with 11 touchdowns.

In his first game back with the Bears, Spavital's offense set a school record with 681 yards of total offense, the most by a Cal team in a road game all-time.

"I am excited to get back to Texas and thankful for the opportunity to work with Dave and his staff," Spavital said. "I've admired Dave from afar for quite some time and have always viewed him as a coach that would be great to work alongside in the future, if I ever got that chance. This is a tremendous opportunity to join a great Baylor staff. I can't wait to get to Waco and get to work getting this offense ready for 2024."

As an offensive coordinator, Spavital has led six top-20 offenses and helped his squad earn a spot in the AP Top 25 poll in seven different seasons.

Spavital has recruited and worked with several elite college and future NFL quarterbacks, including Will Grier (West Virginia), Case Keenum (Houston), Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M), Kyler

Murray (Texas A&M), Geno Smith (West Virginia), David Webb (California) and Brandon Weeden (Oklahoma State). Murray was the first overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, while Weeden and Manziel were each selected in the first round by the Cleveland Browns in 2012 and 2014, respectively. Smith was a second-round choice of the New York Jets in 2013.

Prior to Cal, Spavital served as the head coach at Texas State for four seasons (2019-22) where he took over a program that had recently moved to the FBS level and logged a second-place finish in the Sun Belt's West Division in 2021. Under his tutelage, return specialist Jeremiah Haydel became the program's first FBS All-American (ESPN, FWAA, Phil Steele) and left tackle Dalton Cooper was recognized as a Freshman All-American (The Athletic).

Spavital spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as the OC at West Virginia, his second stint with the Mountaineers. There, he helped WVU to a pair of bowl games and an AP No. 20 finish after an eight-win season in 2018. His squads ranked in the top-10 nationally in 2018 in passing offense (351.3, No. 4), team passing efficiency (168.66, No. 5), total offense (512.3, No. 8) and scoring offense (40.3, No. 10) after the 2017 team ranked in the top-25 in passing offense (309.3, No. 13), total offense (459.6, No. 20) and scoring offense (34.5, No. 22). Spavital also mentored Grier to All-Big 12 Second Team honors after an illustrious career and a standout 2018 season in which he ranked second in the country with 351.3 passing yards per game and threw 37 touchdowns, which placed fifth nationally.

In 2016, Spavital made his first stop in the Golden State with Cal and coached an offense that ranked in the top-25 nationally in eight categories, including a fourth-place spot in passing offense (358.8) and 10th-place ranking in total offense (513.2). He helped Cal establish multiple single-season records and was instrumental in the recruitment of Webb, who went on to become the Senior Bowl MVP and ranked among the nation's leaders in nearly every passing category.

Previously, Spavital spent three years with Texas A&M (2013-15) and helped the Aggies to a 25-14 record during his tenure as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. As the Co-OC in 2013, Spavital coached Heisman Trophy winner Manziel as TAMU set single-season SEC and school records with 4,593 passing yards and had 6,999 total yards of offense, which ranked second in the league's history. Ahead of the Chick-fil-A Bowl game, Spavital took over play-calling duties and compiled 541 yards of total offense and rallied from 21 points down to beat Duke, 52-48, in TAMU's largest comeback in school history.

Spavital's first stop at West Virginia came during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, in which he served as the quarterbacks coach for Smith, who finished his career with 11,662 passing yards and 98 TD passes. There, Spavital's Mountaineers ranked in the top-10 nationally in multiple offensive categories and logged a 10-win season in 2011 which included a win over Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

Before getting his start as a full-time position coach, Spavital made stops at Oklahoma State (2010), Houston (2009) and Tulsa (2008) following the end of his playing career at Missouri State (2004-07) where he was a two-year letterwinner as a quarterback and punter.

At Union High School in Tulsa, Okla., Spavital was a consensus first-team all-state quarterback for a program that won the 2002 Class 6A state title. He led UHS to a 26-1 record during the '02 and '03 seasons and ranked second and third in the nation, respectively.

Spavital's father, Steve, is a former high school football coach and his brother, Zac, was the defensive coordinator at Texas State during Jake's tenure as head coach.

Spavital earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Missouri State in 2008. He and his wife, Meghan, who was one of the top collegiate gymnasts in West Virginia history, have two children: Madison Grace and Landyn Zachary.

MATT POWLEDGE
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SAFETIES
SAM HOUSTON, 2009

Matt Powledge – who spent the 2022 season as the co-defensive coordinator at Oregon following two years as the safeties and special teams coordinator at Baylor – was named the defensive coordinator for the Bears, it was announced on Dec. 29, 2022.

Powledge rejoined the Baylor coaching staff following a season as the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Oregon in 2022. He spent the 2020 and 2021 seasons on Aranda's staff in Waco, following two-year stints at Louisiana-Lafayette (2018-19), ULM (2016-17) and Sam Houston (2014-15). He opened his coaching career at Kentucky (2013), Northwestern State (2012) and Southeastern Louisiana (2010-11) after playing fullback for his hometown Sam Houston (2005-09).

In his first year as the primary defensive play caller, while also working with the safeties, Powledge helped mentor freshman All-America cornerback Caden Jenkins. His tutelage saw Carl Williams IV shine after shifting to STAR from his preseason camp position of cornerback midway through the year.

A native of Huntsville, Texas, Powledge came back to Waco in 2023 off a 10-win season with the Ducks in 2022, leading Oregon to a 7-2 mark in the Pac-12, three top-15 wins and the Holiday Bowl Title. The Ducks, ranked No. 8 in the final College Football Playoff top-25, ranked 10th in the nation in interceptions, 22nd in red-zone defense and 29th in rushing defense.

Under Powledge's tutelage, Oregon defensive back Bennett Williams earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors in 2022 for the Ducks while logging time at the safety or STAR position. Williams led the team with 67 tackles, including two interceptions, six pass break-ups and two forced fumbles.

"We are thrilled to welcome Matt back to Waco," Aranda said. "Matt is an elite defensive mind who has a great understanding of our system, on and off the field. His experience both on our staff and elsewhere, paired with his understanding of person over player and his ability to connect with student-athletes, make him an ideal fit to serve as our defensive coordinator."

Powledge shined as Baylor's safeties coach – a key position under Aranda's defensive system – while also directing one of the nation's top special teams units. He helped the Bears secure the 2021 Big 12 Championship and the 2022 Sugar Bowl title after a win over Ole Miss in New Orleans.

The safeties shined under Powledge in 2021, helping Baylor establish one of the nation's leading defensive units, ranking among the NCAA leaders in a bevy of categories, including fifth in interceptions (17) and 14th in scoring defense (19.2 points per game allowed). The stingy Bears held their 2021 opponents to 13.1 points below their season scoring average and on special teams, Powledge helped Baylor rank ninth in the nation in starting field position.

Individually, Powledge helped mentor the dynamic Jalen Pitre into a 2021 Thorpe Award finalist and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, while running back and electric return man Trestan Ebner earned his second-consecutive Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year honors.

Pitre led the Big 12 with 17.5 tackles for loss – seventh in the nation – in 2021 and had 70 tackles on the year, adding three forced fumbles, three recoveries, 2.5 sacks, two interceptions and seven pass break-ups. Ebner totaled 133 all-purpose yards per game (133.8) and had 603 total return yards. He returned a kick 98 yards for a TD vs. Iowa State in Waco to earn Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week accolades.

In 2020, Powledge's safety group featured Christian Morgan and JT Woods, who finished tied for the team lead with three interceptions. Additionally, Pitre led the team with 60 tackles and 13.0 tackles for a loss and returned a pair of interceptions for touchdowns.

On special teams, Ebner was named to four All-America teams as a returner or all-purpose player. Against Kansas, he became the first player in Baylor's modern history to return two kickoffs for touchdowns in the same game. Kicker John Mayers also earned All-Big 12 honorable mention honors.

Powledge coached at Louisiana-Lafayette from 2018-19, working as the outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. While in Lafayette, Powledge coached six All-Sun Belt performers as the Ragin' Cajuns won the Sun Belt West Division twice and played in two bowl games.

In 2019, Louisiana outside linebacker Joe Dillon earned second-team All-Sun Belt honors after finishing third in the conference with seven sacks. ULL had the league's best scoring defense, allowing just 19.7 points per game while finishing second in the Sun Belt with 33 sacks. The special teams unit ranked first or second in the Sun Belt in kickoff return defense, kickoff returns and net punting. The Cajuns also ranked among the top 24 in the nation in each category.

Powledge helped lead the Ragin Cajuns to the program's first 10-win season ever in 2018. Outside linebacker Justin Middleton earned All-Sun Belt honorable mention recognition after recording 67 tackles, four tackles for a loss with a sack. Cajun kicker Kyle Pfau also earned honorable mention honors after making 15-of-18 field goals, including a 52-yarder against Arkansas State.

Powledge moved from the FCS to the FBS level in 2016-17, serving as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator for two years at Louisiana-Monroe. While at ULM, he coached Marcus Green to a stellar season as a kick returner. Green returned four kicks for touchdowns in 2017 and averaged 32.4 yards per return. As a team, ULM ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in kickoff returns averaging 25.2 yards per return. The Warhawks also were among the league leaders in field goal percentage and punting.

He served as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at his alma matter in 2014-15 at Sam Houston. In 2015, Corey Avery earned first-team All-Southland honors with Powledge as his position coach after racking up 1,483 yards on the ground with 15 touchdowns. It was the best season of Avery's career, which culminated with him ranking second in career rushing yards and touchdowns. He coached five players to All-Southland honors and two special teamers earned All-America honors after the 2014 season. In 2014, the Bearkats ranked atop the Southland Conference leaderboard in four different special teams categories (punt return yards, blocked kicks, special teams scores and PAT percentage). The squad was also one of six teams in the NCAA to block multiple punts and return two or more for touchdowns.

As a graduate assistant under Mark Stoops at Kentucky, Powledge primarily assisted with the defense and special teams. As a defensive assistant, he worked with two second-team All-Southeastern Conference choices, elite pass rusher Bud Dupree and tackling machine Avery Williamson, during the 2013 season before both went on to successful NFL careers.

Powledge coached in 2012 at Northwestern State, serving as the running backs coach for a team that piled up 1,286 rushing yards and 14 TDs. Three Bearkat backs ran for at least 250 yards.

He started his career as a graduate assistant at Southeastern Louisiana in 2010-12. He worked primarily with the tight ends during his second season. Antoine Duplessis caught five passes for 33 yards and a touchdown while also blocking for a Lion rushing attack that contributed 21 of SLU's 38 offensive touchdowns.

Powledge played fullback for Sam Houston from 2005-09, earning All-Southland accolades and served as the team captain in 2009. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Sam Houston in 2009. Playing for coach Mitch Coey at Huntsville High School, Powledge was an all-district running back and linebacker and earned area "Red Zone Player of the Year" honors.

JARRETT ANDERSON
ASSISTANT COACH / TIGHT ENDS
NEW MEXICO, 1993

A coaching veteran with nearly three decades of experience in the state of Texas, Jarrett Anderson is in his first year in 2024 as Baylor's tight ends coach.

Anderson joins the Baylor staff after serving as the assistant offensive line coach at UTSA in 2023. His time in San Antonio followed a 24-year tenure at TCU that saw him serve as a position coach for several offensive groups and serve as the co-offensive coordinator for five seasons.

"We are very pleased to add Jarrett to our coaching staff," Aranda said. "Jarrett has a great understanding of football in our state and has the respect of the Texas High School Coaches Association. He brings a vast knowledge of offensive football to our staff, having coached a variety of position groups and having coordinated elite collegiate offenses. He will be an immediate asset to our talented tight-end room and our entire coaching staff."

Anderson has coached tight ends, offensive line, running backs and wide receivers over his career at TCU and UTSA and brings 25 years of collegiate coaching experience in the state of Texas to the Bears in 2024. He was the co-offensive coordinator for the Frogs from 2009-13, helping TCU set a bevy of offensive school records.

Last year, Anderson helped lead UTSA to a 9-4 overall record, including a 7-1 mark in the school's debut season in the American Conference. He helped mold an offensive line that led UTSA to the first bowl win in program history and boasted all-conference honorees in Terrell Haynes, Ernesto Almaraz and Cory Godinet.

Anderson coached the Horned Frogs' offensive line in two different stints, first from 2014 to 2016 and again in 2020-21. In each of his last two seasons in Fort Worth, he helped mentor Steve Avila to All-Big 12 Conference honors.

Prior to that, Anderson spent three seasons (2017-19) as TCU's inside receivers and tight ends coach. With the inside receivers in 2017, he developed current NFL player KaVontae Turpin into an All-Big 12 performer, as he became the only player nationally to have touchdowns via receiving, rushing, passing, punt return and kickoff return in the same season.

TCU set numerous offensive school records during Anderson's first stint as the offensive line coach in 2014-16, when he coached numerous all-conference selections and eventual NFL players. The 2016 unit was led by second-team All-Big 12 selection Austin Schlottmann and Aviante Collins, who went on to NFL careers with the Broncos and Vikings, respectively. Joey Hunt and Halapoulivaati Vaitai received All-Big 12 recognition for the second consecutive season in 2015 and were drafted in the fifth round by the Eagles and sixth round by the Seahawks, respectively. In his first season with the offensive line, Tayo Fabuluje earned All-Big 12 recognition and was a sixth-round draft pick of the Bears.

Additionally, Joseph Noteboom was selected in the third round by the Rams and Matt Pryor was drafted in the sixth round by the Colts in 2018. Lucas Niang was a third-round pick by the Chiefs in 2020 and Patrick Morris was a free-agent signee by the Steelers in 2018.

Anderson was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2009.

He also became the running backs coach after serving as wide receivers coach the previous eight seasons (2001-08).

Anderson helped mentor true freshman B.J. Catalon in 2012 into becoming TCU's leading rusher and an honorable mention choice for Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.

In both of Anderson's first two seasons as a coordinator, TCU set single-season school records for touchdowns, points scored and first downs while also ranking among the nation's most productive units. The Horned Frogs won 25 of 26 games and made back-to-back BCS appearances, including winning the 2011 Rose Bowl.

With Anderson's guidance in 2011, Ed Wesley, Matthew Tucker and Waymon James earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors as all three rushed for more than 700 yards.

In 2010, Anderson helped direct TCU to single-season school marks in touchdowns (73), points scored (541), total offense (6,199 yards) and first downs (327). The Horned Frogs ranked fourth nationally in scoring (41.6 points per game), sixth in passing efficiency (166.9), 10th in rushing (247.4 yards per game) and 12th in total offense (476.9 yards per game). Wesley ran for 1,078 yards to become TCU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2003 and he was a first-team All-Mountain West selection and one of 10 semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award.

In his first season as offensive coordinator, the Horned

Frogs established previous single-season school marks for points scored (498), total offense (5,937 yards), touchdowns (65) and first downs (311). TCU ranked fifth nationally in rushing offense (239.5 yards per game) and scoring (38.3 points per game) while placing seventh in total offense (456.7 yards per game) and eighth in passing efficiency (154.1).

Anderson coached TCU's wide receivers from 2001-08. Under his tutelage, three TCU receivers were drafted by NFL teams. Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by the Packers in 2006. Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by the Broncos and Falcons, respectively.

All-conference performer Reggie Harrell became TCU's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003. In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. The following season, Jimmy Young had 988 receiving yards and became the first TCU wide receiver to be named All-Mountain West Conference.

Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the offensive line.

Anderson spent the 1997 season as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers.

He began his collegiate playing career at Tulane before transferring to Tyler JC and then New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in liberal arts from TCU in 2000.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Aidan and Eli.

DALLAS BAKER

ASSISTANT COACH / WIDE RECEIVERS
FLORIDA, 2006

Dallas Baker is in his third year as the Baylor wide receivers coach.

Baker mentored a youthful and diverse group of receivers in 2023, led by slot dynamo Monaray Baldwin, who totaled 623 yards and four TDs. Ketron Jackson Jr. battled injuries but still managed 28 catches for 489 yards and a TD, and former walk-on turned starter Josh Cameron continued to establish himself as a threat through the air.

Baker had an immediate impact on a young and unproven wide receivers unit in 2022. The Bears had to replace their top three, and four of their top five, receivers from a Sugar Bowl and Big 12 Championship season in 2021. Baker's unit found its footing in 2022, with five receivers totaling 25 or more catches and four targets hauling in at least three TDs.

Baldwin had a break-out season in 2022, leading the team with 33 grabs for 565 yards and four TDs. Hal Presley finished with 32 catches and four TDs, while JCameron emerged into a reliable target, totaling 28 catches for 386 yards. Fifth-year senior Gavin Holmes returned from a two-year injury recovery process to total 26 catches for 517 yards and four TDs.

Prior to his arrival in Waco, Baker spent a season as the wide receivers coach at the University of Buffalo under head coach Maurice Linguist. Under Baker's guidance, Buffalo Wide Receiver Quian Williams finished in the top ten of the Mid-American Conference with 63 catches.

Williams and fellow wideout Dominic Johnson averaged over 13 yards per catch which were top-15 in the conference among players with at least 30 catches.

Before joining Linguist and the Bulls, Baker coached wide receivers for four seasons at Marshall University. In 2020, the Herd had four wide receivers with at least 18 catches, which was more than any other team in Conference USA.

In 2017 and 2018, he helped Marshall receiver Tyre Brady earn first-team All-Conference USA honors. Brady's stellar seasons led to him signing a free-agent contract in the NFL. As a senior in 2018, Brady led the team in receiving (1,002 yards) for a second-straight season and became the first Herd player to eclipse 1,000 yards since 2014. Brady joined an exclusive list of players who have led the team in receiving consecutive years, joining the likes of Marshall legend Randy Moss. Wide receiver Marcel Williams also earned honorable mention All-Conference-USA in back-to-back seasons.

Baker got his start in coaching as the wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator at Warner University in Lake Wells, Fla. From 2015-16.

Baker was a standout receiver at the University of Florida from 2003-06. With the Gators, he earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a senior after notching career-highs in receptions (60), receiving yards (920), and receiving touchdowns (10). He helped Florida to an SEC title and a win in the 2007 BCS National Championship.

Upon graduating from Florida in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in health and human performance, Baker was drafted in the seventh round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He played three seasons with the Steelers (2007-09) and won a Super Bowl with the organization following the 2008 season.

Baker continued his pro career with the Jacksonville Sharks of the Arena Football League for the 2010 season. He then played for the CFL's Montreal Alouettes and Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2011.

Baker was born in New Smyrna Beach, Florida, where he was a star wide receiver for New Smyrna Beach High School. In 2001, he set the single-season school record with 17 touchdowns, 67 catches, and 1,142 yards.

Baker is married to Vanessa and the couple has a daughter, Angelina (14).

INOKE BRECKTERFIELD
ASSISTANT COACH / DEFENSIVE LINE
BAYLOR, 2006

Veteran defensive line coach Inoke Breckterfield is in his first year as the defensive line coach at Baylor.

One of the nation's most accomplished defensive line coaches, Breckterfield joins the Baylor staff after working to lead Washington to the national championship game in 2023 and an 11-2 mark in 2022. He spent the 2021 season as the defensive line coach at Vanderbilt.

A native of Kaneohe, Hawaii, Breckterfield served as Aranda's defensive line coach during the 2015 season at Wisconsin, Aranda's last year leading the Badger defense, which led the nation in scoring defense and ranked second in total defense. Breckterfield spent six seasons (2015-20) at Wisconsin.

He has also gained experience coaching defensive linemen at Pittsburgh (2012-14), and as the defensive line coach at UCLA (2011), Montana (2010) and Weber State (2009). He started his career at Oregon State, his alma mater – where he was an All-American and a two-time team defensive MVP – as a graduate assistant (2007-08), following a season as a volunteer assistant (2006). As a player at OSU (1995-98), he was named the Pac-10's top defensive lineman in 1998 and went on to play six years in the Canadian Football League.

He has coached some of the top defensive players in the game, including mentoring eventual NFL Defensive Player of the Year Aaron Donald as his position coach at Pitt.

In 2023, Breckterfield led the defensive line on a league-champion UW team that went 14-1, advancing to the College Football Playoff National Championship, with 14 straight wins.

During the 2022 season, UW went 11-2 and a year after having a rushing defense that ranked 108th in the nation, moved up to No. 25. The Huskies went from No. 98 in the nation in sacks in 2021, before Breckterfield's arrival, to No. 20.

In his two seasons at UW, Breckterfield helped the Huskies to a 25-3 record, including a 14-0 mark at home.

Breckterfield ventured to Seattle after spending the 2021 season at Vanderbilt, leading the defensive line for the Commodores.

The swing through Nashville followed six seasons in Madison, Wis., leading the defensive line for the Badgers. Aranda hired Breckterfield for his final season at UW in 2015 and the two helped guide the nation's top defensive unit, ranking No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense and No. 2 in total defense.

During his time at Wisconsin, the Badgers went 56-19, won five bowl games, claimed three B1G West Division Titles and played in three New Year's Six bowl games (Cotton, Orange, Rose). Over the course of his time in Madison, UW allowed only 16.6 points and 107.7 rushing yards per game.

In 2020, UW led the Big Ten in rush and third-down defense. The Badgers limited opponents to just 299.9 yards per game, the best in the B1G, and 96.1 rushing yards per game, second-best in the league, finishing third in the conference in scoring defense.

In 2019, the Badgers charted a program-record 51 sacks, which was formed on the strength of a trio of elite defensive ends, including Isaiah Loudermilk, Garrett Rand and former walk-on Matt Henningsen. That group combined with freshman nose tackle Keanu Benton to rack up 17.0 tackles for loss and 10 of UW's 51 sacks, which ranked second in the nation.

The 2019 season came after the Badgers went 8-5 in 2018, including a route of Miami (Fla.) in the Pinstripe Bowl.

The 2017 UW defense helped the Badgers to a school-record 13 wins, finishing No. 2 in the nation in total defense (262.1 yards), No. 3 in scoring defense (13.9 points), No. 3 in rushing defense (98.4) and No. 1 in passing-efficiency defense (96.4). The defensive line saw Alec James and Conor Sheehy earned All-Big Ten honors at defensive end.

Chikwe Obasiah helped anchor the defensive line in 2016, joined by James and Sheehy, with the trio each earning all-league accolades. The three paired with nose tackle Olive Sagapolu to recorded 10.0 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks.

In 2015, Breckterfield and Aranda helped the Badgers build the nation's top defense, ranking No. 1 in scoring defense (13.7 points per game) and No. 2 in total defense (268.5 yards per game) in 2015. The defensive line, led by James, Obasiah and Sheehy went on to become the winningest senior class in UW history with a 45-10 mark.

Breckterfield joined the staff at Wisconsin after one year of coaching the defensive line and two years overseeing the defensive tackles at Pittsburgh.

His most successful pupil was Donald, a first-round pick of the St. Louis Rams in the 2014 NFL Draft following a senior season that saw the consensus All-American sweep the nation's top defensive honors by claiming the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Chuck Bednarik Award, Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. Donald led the nation with 28.5 tackles for loss and ranked 11th in the country with 11.0 sacks as a senior.

Breckterfield arrived at Pittsburgh after coaching the defensive line at UCLA in 2011. The Bruins played in the inaugural Pac-12 Championship Game and the Hunger Bowl that season.

Prior to UCLA, Breckterfield coached the defensive line at Montana during the 2010 season. The Grizzlies led the Big Sky Conference and ranked 14th nationally in tackles for loss per game with 7.6, and stood second in the league and 18th nationally in sacks. The year prior to Breckterfield's arrival, Montana ranked 103rd and 88th in those categories, respectively.

Breckterfield earned his first full-time coaching position as defensive line coach at Weber State in 2009.

He began his coaching career under Mike Riley, his former head coach, at Oregon State. After joining the Beavers as a volunteer assistant in 2006, Breckterfield went on to serve as a graduate assistant in 2007 and 2008, working with the defensive line.

The 2008 Beavers finished the season ranked No. 18 in the nation, with a 9-4 record, including a win over Pitt in the Sun Bowl.

A defensive end at Oregon State, Breckterfield finished his collegiate career as the Beavers' career leader in tackles for loss (55.5) and sacks (19.5). As a senior in 1998, he was a third-team Associated Press All-American and won the Pac-10's Morris Trophy Award as the top defensive lineman in the league, as voted on by the conference's offensive linemen. He was also named Oregon State's Male Athlete of the Year, was a two-time team defensive MVP, and played in the Hula Bowl.

Following his Oregon State career, he played five seasons in the CFL with the Toronto Argonauts (1999-2000) and Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2001-03). In Breckterfield's initial season with Winnipeg, the Blue Bombers advanced to the Grey Cup final after posting a franchise-best 14-4 mark and tying a CFL record with 12 straight wins.

Breckterfield earned a bachelor's degree in liberal studies from Oregon State in 1998. He and his wife, Carol, have three sons, Kalevi and twins Rocky and Riley.

JAMAR CHANEY

ASSISTANT COACH / INSIDE LINEBACKERS
MISSISSIPPI STATE, 2010

Former All-Southeastern Conference linebacker Jamar Chaney is in his first year as Baylor's inside linebackers coach. He was announced in the role on Feb. 28, 2024.

Chaney comes to Waco after serving as an assistant coach at Western Kentucky in 2023, working with the outside linebackers. He previously spent the 2022 season as an analyst and recruiting coordinator at Florida, working with the linebackers, which followed two seasons at his alma mater, Mississippi State, as a senior defensive analyst. He was the assistant director of player personnel, focusing on high school relations at Florida in 2019.

"Jamar is going to be a great fit for our defensive staff," Aranda said. "He will bring an energy and passion to our linebacker room that will be a great asset. Jamar was a great player and has tremendous perspective to draw upon in his mentorship of our linebackers, while also developing a real skill as a recruiter. He has quickly become a rising star in the business and we are excited about what his addition to our linebacker room with provide. We're looking forward to getting Jamar to Waco as we start preparing for the spring practice season."

In his season in Bowling Green, Ky., Chaney helped lead WKU to an 8-5 record and a 5-3 mark in Conference USA. The Toppers won three consecutive games to end the year, including a 38-35 overtime win over Old Dominion in the Toastery Bowl. Chaney coached all-conference linebacker Jaques Evans and Kylan Guidry, who led the Hilltoppers in tackles, and Freshman All-Conference USA selection Koron Hayward.

"I am humbled by Coach Aranda's confidence in my ability to mentor our linebackers on and off the field," Chaney said. "This is a great time to join the Baylor football program and I'm excited to join the an elite coaching staff. During my interview process, there was a great sense of confidence within the facility about where the team is going. My wife, Shamira, and our four children are really looking forward to our transition to Waco."

Chaney comes to Baylor having played and coached under some veteran coaching minds, including Tyson Helton (WKU), Billy Napier (Florida), Mike Leach (Mississippi State), Dan Mullen (Mississippi State) and Sylvester Croom (Mississippi State), Andy Reid (Philadelphia Eagles), Sean McDermott (Eagles), Todd Bowles (Eagles).

In 2022, Chaney was an analyst at Florida, working as the recruiting coordinator and with the linebackers. The Gators routed No. 7 Utah and appeared in the Las Vegas Bowl in Napier's first season in Gainesville. He helped coach Ventrell Miller, an eventual fourth-round pick in the NFL Draft, and sixth-round selection Amari Barney, in addition to Freshman All-SEC linebacker Shemar James.

It marked his second stint on the UF staff, which included an 11-2 season and an Orange Bowl win over Virginia in 2019, a season that saw him serve as the assistant director of player personnel.

He was a senior analyst at Mississippi State in 2020 and 2021 under Leach. The Bulldogs earned a spot in the 2021 Liberty Bowl, MSU's 12th straight season reaching a bowl game. The 2021 season included a win over No. 15 Texas A&M in College Station and a 31-17 win over No. 12 Kentucky in Starkville. He assisted in the development of MSU All-SEC linebackers Nathaniel Watson and Jett Johnson in 2021. In 2020, the Dawgs reached the Armed Forces Bowl, capping the season with a win over No. 22 Tulsa.

Chaney had a decorated playing career in Starkville, Miss., starting at weakside and middle linebacker in the Magnolia State. He earned All-SEC honors after going for 89 tackles in 2007, leading MSU to eight wins. He played in 49 total games from 2005-09 with 286 career tackles and in 2009, Rivals ranked Chaney as the most underrated player in the SEC.

He went on to earn South Team Defensive Player of the Game honors in the 2010 Senior Bowl, leading to a selection by the Eagles in the NFL Draft. Chaney saw time in the NFL with the Eagles, Atlanta Falcons, Denver Broncos and Oakland Raiders.

Chaney is a native of Fort Pierce, Fla., and he and his wife, Shamira, have four children, Rhaelyn, Eli, Leo and Teo.

CALEB COLLINS

ASSISTANT COACH / OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA, 2016

Caleb Collins joined the Baylor Family in June 2020. He worked as a quality control coach on defense for his first season, then was promoted to an on-field role as assistant coach for outside linebackers in November 2021.

Collins mentored a youthful group in 2023 that included 6-foot-8, 245-pounder Garmon Randolph, and first-year impact player Byron Vaughns. Vaughns totaled eight tackles for a loss and three sacks to go with his 31 tackles in his debut season in Waco.

Collins worked with a talented group of outside linebackers in 2022 that featured the development of Randolph into a defensive weapon. Randolph totaled seven tackles for a loss and tied for the team lead with 4.5 sacks.

The Houston, Texas native, saw his linebacker group finish strong in 2021 as it helped the BU defense set a Sugar Bowl record with 10 sacks against Ole Miss.

Collins joined Dave Aranda's Baylor staff following three seasons at LSU in a similar capacity. He served as a graduate assistant on defense during the 2018 season working under Aranda with the inside linebackers. He was promoted to the role of analyst for the 2019 season as LSU won a National Championship.

A native of Houston, Collins played linebacker at Southeastern Louisiana from 2012-16. Collins played in 35 career games and helped the Lions to a pair of FCS Playoff appearances in 2013 and 2014.

Following the completion of his playing career, Collins spent one season on the football staff at Rayburn High School in Pasadena, Texas.

KEVIN CURTIS
ASSISTANT COACH / CORNERBACKS
TEXAS TECH, 2002

Kevin Curtis joined the Baylor Football staff in February 2021. He serves as cornerbacks coach.

His tutelage was evident during the 2023 season that saw a bevy of youthful talent shine at the cornerback post. Freshman All-American Caden Jenkins emerged as a break-out star, leading the team with three interceptions and two fumble recoveries. Freshmen Carl Williams IV – who spent time at STAR in addition to corner – and LeVar Thornton each flashed potential of stardom, along with first-year starter Chateau Reed.

Curtis was honored in 2022 as one of the latest inductees into the Texas Tech Hall of Fame. He was one of the top defensive backs in Tech history, earning two All-America honors and three All-Big 12 accolades at safety after prepping at Lubbock Coronado High School.

His 2022 crop of cornerbacks had to replace a key starter on the outside and worked in two new starters at both corner positions. Fifth-year senior Mark Milton moved from key reserve to everyday starter and AJ McCarty and Tevin Williams III emerged as playmakers in their first extended playing time at the corner position. The Bears finished with 13 interceptions on the year, highlighted by a five-interception performance at Texas Tech that included a McCarty pick-six in a rout of the Red Raiders.

In his first season in Waco, Curtis' defensive backs were part of a defensive unit that led the Big 12 and finished third nationally with 19 interceptions. Additionally, BU ranked second in the Big 12 and 26th nationally in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 121.54.

Cornerback Al Walcott finished second on the team with three interceptions, including a Sugar Bowl record 96-yard return for a touchdown, which also ranked as the second-longest return in Baylor history. Curtis also helped cornerback Kalon Barnes develop into a seventh-round draft pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 2022 NFL Draft.

Curtis, who played safety at Texas Tech while Baylor head coach Dave Aranda was a member of the Red Raider coaching staff from 2000-01, joined the SMU program as cornerbacks coach in January 2018 after two seasons in the same capacity at Louisiana Tech. While in Dallas, he mentored Brandon Crossley to a national ranking of eighth in total interceptions with four in 2020, including picks in three consecutive games.

SMU corner Brandon Stephens registered a team-high 11 passes defended in 2020, which led the American Athletic Conference. He was selected to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl and invited to the 2021 NFL Combine. Stephens was selected in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

Curtis' unit helped SMU to 21 takeaways in 2019, which ranked fourth in the conference. He mentored transfer running back turned defensive back Stephens, who started all 13 games for the Mustangs and finished second in the league with 12 pass breakups. Armani Johnson also had a breakout season, finishing third in the conference with 11 PBUs.

In his second stint at Louisiana Tech from 2016-17, Curtis' cornerbacks helped the Bulldogs to back-to-back bowl wins.

From 2013-15, Curtis mentored defensive backs at his alma mater Texas Tech. The 2015 season saw the Red Raiders register

25 takeaways, 24th nationally, and rank 51st in turnover margin (0.15) before going on to make an appearance in the Texas Bowl. In 2013, Tech finished 8-5 with a victory over Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl.

Curtis' first term at Louisiana Tech (2010-12) saw the Bulldogs rank third in the nation in both interceptions and pick-sixes in 2011, before going on to win nine games in 2012.

Curtis arrived in Ruston after two seasons (2008-09) at Navarro Junior College where he helped the Bulldogs to a 21-2 record and a pair of conference championships. He had his secondary ranked first in the country in interceptions.

A two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 safety at Texas Tech, Curtis was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by San Francisco. Following three seasons with the 49ers, he spent time with the Packers, Raiders, Texans and in NFL Europe before wrapping up a six-year career in professional football.

A native of Lubbock, Curtis earned his degree from Texas Tech in 2002. He is married to the former Kayla Sanders. The couple has one son, Kevin.

MASON MILLER
ASSISTANT COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE
VALDOSTA STATE, 1999

Mason Miller is in his first year as the assistant coach and offensive line coach at Baylor in 2024.

Miller is widely regarded as one of the elite offensive line minds in the Air Raid offensive coaching scheme, having previously served in the role for Mike Leach and Hal Mumme. He comes to Baylor after serving as the offensive coordinator at Tarleton State in 2023.

A native of Marietta, Ga., Miller was the offensive line coach for Leach at Mississippi State (2020-22), adding run-game coordinator duties in 2022, and Washington State (2018-19). He twice served as the offensive coordinator at Tarleton (2014-16, 2023) and boasts experience in building the Air Raid system from the ground up with Mumme at Valdosta State, Southeastern Louisiana, New Mexico State and McMurray.

Miller's coaching record includes time as an assistant Nevada (2017), head coach (2011-12) and offensive line coach (2009-10) at McMurray, New Mexico State (2005-08), offensive line (2004) and running backs (2003) coach at Southeastern Louisiana. He got his collegiate coaching start as a student-assistant in 1997 at his alma mater Valdosta State, one of the first collegiate tests of the Air Raid system under Mumme.

Miller's time with Mumme included starting the program from scratch at Southeastern Louisiana, assisting in the rebuild of New Mexico State and helping move McMurray to NCAA Division 2, before joining Leach, Mumme's former offensive coordinator turned head coach, as his offensive line coach at Washington State and Mississippi State.

He was the primary play caller offensively at Tarleton in 2023 and boasts experience as a former head coach at McMurray after Mumme left to take the offensive coordinator job at SMU in 2013. The Tarleton role – his second tenure in Stephenville – is his third time helping lead a major transition in a football program, as Tarleton competed a four-year transition period in 2023 to reclassify as a NCAA Division I program.

He has had a hand in some of the best offenses in college football over his 25-year career and his offensive unit in 2023 ranked among the FCS leaders in points per game (13th; 33.8), while averaging 430.5 yards per game (228.7 passing and 201.7 rushing).

He has guided the best offense in the nation at Southeastern Louisiana and helped produce top-five offenses nationally from stops at Tarleton, New Mexico State and McMurray.

While directing the offensive lines at Mississippi State, Miller saw his unit rank No. 15 nationally and second in the SEC in offensive-line efficiency. The Bulldogs led the league and ranked No. 3 nationally in lowest percentage of tackles for a loss during the 2021-22 seasons. He coached eventual No. 9 overall pick Charles Cross for two seasons, helping him earn All-America and All-SEC honors as a senior with a league-leading 84.9 pass-blocking grade from Pro Football Focus. The Bulldogs led the SEC in passing yards per game in both 2021 and 2022.

While at Washington State, Miller's offensive lines allowed the fewest sacks in the Pac-12 Conference in 2018 and 2019. Tackle Abe Lucas and guard Josh Watson earned all-conference honors. WSU led the nation in passing offense in both of his seasons, averaging 437.2 yards per game, allowing only 20 sacks in 2019 and 13 in 2018.

The 2018 offensive line was named a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, given to the nation's best unit. Three WSU linemen were named All-Pac 12 honors including second-team All-American Andre Dillard, who earned the highest pass-blocking grade in the nation among tackles and was a first-round pick in the 2019 NFL Draft.

As the offensive line coach at Nevada in 2017, the Wolfpack totaled 127.2 rushing yards and 270.4 passing yards per game. He coached a pair of offensive linemen to All-Mountain West accolades, including center Sean Krepsz, and Austin Corbett, a former walk-on who became a four-year starter at tackle and went 33rd overall in the 2018 NFL Draft.

In his first stint at Tarleton, Miller's line helped pave the way for the Texans to rank third nationally in total offense in 2014, with 522.8 yards per game, scoring 43.7 points per outing. In 2015, Tarleton averaged 38.1 points – 22nd in the nation – and 451.2 yards per contest, 36th in the nation, also checking in 23rd in completion percentage (62.5), 19th in red-zone offense (.842) and 36th in passing offense (275.0).

While serving as the head coach at McMurray in 2013, Miller led the War Hawks to several school records, including yards (5,775), yards per game (523.1) and points scored (424).

Before being appointed as the head coach, Miller was an assistant for four seasons from 2009-12 under Mumme. During that stretch, McMurry experienced three consecutive winning seasons, something that had happened just six other times in the university's 87-year football existence. Miller was hired as the offensive line coach but was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2011.

His first season calling plays saw McMurry rank 18th nationally and second in the American Southwest Conference in scoring offense with 37.7 points per game. McMurry set the NCAA Division III single game total offense record with 863 yards vs. Texas Lutheran.

In 2012, Miller's second season as offensive coordinator and McMurry's first campaign at the NCAA Division II level, the War Hawks averaged more than 433 yards per game with 367 coming from the passing attack.

Miller worked with the offensive line at NM State from 2005-08 under Mumme. He coached four all-conference linemen at NM State.

He helped Mumme start the Southeastern Louisiana program from scratch and served as running backs coach in 2003 before handling offensive line duties in 2004, leading the Lions to lead the nation in total offense.

Miller opened his coaching career as a student assistant at Valdosta State, which followed a two-year playing career.

He began his full-time coaching career at Valwood High School in 1998 where, as the offensive coordinator, he helped turn around a team that went 1-19 in the previous two seasons. With Miller leading the offense, Valwood High School earned a playoff berth in 1998 and a state championship in 1999. Miller's offense was the state of Georgia's top-ranked offense in 1999.

A 1999 graduate of Valdosta State, Miller and his wife Megan have two daughters Madison and Mallory.

GAME RECAPS

TEXAS STATE 42, RV/RV BAYLOR 31

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 2, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 44,945

Blake Shapen threw for 303 yards and two touchdowns and also scored on a nine-yard keeper before missing the last six minutes of the game in Baylor's season-opening loss to Texas State, 42-31.

Baylor started the game with a bang, with Shapen hooking up with Hal Presley for a 40-yard pass down the far sideline, but the Bears were flagged for the first of five first-half false-start penalties and had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Isaiah Hankins.

After the Bobcats got on the board with a 10-yard pass from Finley to Mahdi out of the backfield, the defense came up with a big play when redshirt freshman Devonte Tezino sacked Finley and forced a fumble that freshman end Trey Wilson recovered at the Texas State 36. Isaiah Hankins booted a career-long 53-yarder to make it a one-point game.

The Bobcats took a two-score lead, 21-6, on the back-to-back big-play touchdowns before Shapen scored from nine yards out for Baylor's first touchdown of the 2023 season.

Converting on fourth down for the third time, Texas State drove it 75 yards in 12 plays and scored on a Jahmyl Jeter one-yard run in the final minute of the first half.

Bears opened the second half quickly, nailing a 53-yard TD pass to Drake Dabney.

Hankins hit his third FG of the night to bring the Bears within 11 before a Texas State 26 yd TD pass to Joey Hobert.

Trying to rally from an 18-point fourth-quarter deficit, the Bears closed the gap with Shapen's two-yard TD pass to Dabney with 8:52 left in the game.

POSTGAME NOTES

- BU is now 81-37-4 all-time in season openers and 91-27-4 in home openers.
- With a temperature of 99 degrees, it marked the hottest kickoff temperature in McLane Stadium history.
- It was Baylor's first 500+ yard total offensive performance since going for 501 vs. TCU in 2023.
- Drake Dabney's 100-yard receiving game was the first for a Baylor tight end since Ken Hodge went for 121 yards on six catches in 1964 vs. Oregon State.
- Isaiah Hankins made a career-long 53 field goal in the first quarter. It was Baylor's longest field goal since John Mayers made a 51-yarder vs. TCU in 2019.
- Devyn Bobby, Kyler Jordan, Cooper Lanz, Tate Williams and Kaden Sieracki each made their first-career starts.

12/12 UTAH 20, BAYLOR 13

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 9, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 43,732

Nearly pulling off a miracle finish, the Baylor Bears fell to 12th-ranked Utah, 20-13, at McLane Stadium.

Overcoming a double-digit second-half deficit, the Utes scored twice in the last two minutes to hand the Bears their second-straight home loss to open the season.

Making his first-career start, Sawyer Robertson, while filling in for an injured Blake Shapen, threw for 218 yards and also scored on a four-yard touchdown run in the first half. But a pair of second-half interceptions led to the 10 points that proved to be the difference.

Baylor, took a 10-3 halftime lead on Robertson's four-yard TD run and the first of two Isaiah Hankins field goals. Hankins missed a 45-yarder late in the half.

The Bears tacked on a Hankins' 24-yarder to go up 13-3 on the first series of the third quarter, but those would be the last points they scored.

Utah had a 15-play, 88-yard drive that took more than eight minutes off the clock, tying it up on a seven-yard TD run by redshirt freshman quarterback Nate Johnson.

After Utah tied it up, Robertson was picked off by safety Cole Bishop on a third-and-16 from his own 20-yard line. Jaylon Glover scored from 11 yards out to give the Utes their first lead of the game with 17 seconds left.

Down to 14 seconds and no timeouts after the kickoff, Robertson hit Hal Presley for a short gain, then found him down the near sideline for a 47-yard pickup to Utah's 22-yard line with one second left.

On the last play, on an attempt to find Ketron Jackson Jr., the ball sailed over the Arkansas transfer's head as time expired.

POSTGAME NOTES

- This was the first all-time meeting in the series with the Utes.
- The Bears allowed only six points in the first three quarters, their fewest allowed since a shutout win over Texas Southern in 2021.
- The Bears are 37-20 all-time at McLane Stadium.
- Baylor is 14-8 under Aranda when scoring first.
- Sawyer Robertson threw for a career-high 218 yards and rushed five times for 19 yards and his first career TD.
- Matt Jones had a game-high nine tackles, with two pass break-ups.
- Devyn Bobby had a carer-best six tackles.
- Caden Jenkins, Alvin Eboese, Jonah Burton, Sawyer Robertson and Chateau Reed each made their first-career starts.

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 30, LONG ISLAND 7

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 16, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 43,732

Baylor leaned on its rushing attack to defeat the visiting Long Island Sharks, 30-7, in a game that included a two-hour-plus weather delay.

Freshman Dawson Pendergrass topped the 100-yard mark with 111 yards and one touchdown on 21 carries, while Richard Reese scored twice from 13 yards out and had 82 yards on 12 totes to help the Bears pick up their first win of the season and snap a six-game losing streak overall.

Baylor piled up 270 yards rushing for the game, with freshman Bryson Washington adding 45 yards on 10 carries. Making his second start, sophomore quarterback Sawyer Robertson completed 10-of-22 passes for 113 yards and one touchdown and added a 14-yard run.

Long Island, a sixth-year FCS program playing just its second Power 5 team, managed just 17 yards total until late in the first half and trailed 16-0 after a safety. But the Sharks got a fourth-down stop near midfield and got on the board with a 10-yard keeper by Chris Howell with 40 seconds left in the half.

After the teams went back to the locker rooms for an extended halftime that stretched into more than a two-hour delay, the Bears went 76 yards in 13 plays and went up 23-7 on Reese's second TD of the day.

The Sharks stuck to the ground and marched from their own 20 down to Baylor's 27, but sacks from Mike Smith and Byron Vaughns gave the Bears back the ball.

Baylor answered with a 10-play, 57-yard scoring drive and pushed the lead to 30-7 with Robertson's four-yard TD pass to tight end Drake Dabney on a perfectly executed play-action.

Long Island threatened again late, but Joey Spano's 43-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Trey Wilson and returned by Alfonzo Allen into LIU territory.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor allowed only 183 yards of total offense, its fewest total yards allowed since surrendering 166 vs. Kansas in 2021.
- Trey Wilson blocked a field goal in the fourth quarter, marking Baylor's first blocked kick since a win over Texas State in 2022.
- The Bears recorded their first safety since Christian Morgan's in 2022 at Texas.
- Richard Reese rushed for the fifth multi-TD game of his career.
- Dawson Pendergrass had a career-high 111 yards rushing on 21 carries, both career highs, and scored his first career TD.
- Bryson Washington had a career-high 10 carries and 45 yards rushing
- Byron Vaughns finished with two sacks.
- Sawyer Robertson threw for 113 yards and had his first career passing TD.
- Carl Williams IV picked off his first career pass and recorded his first career tackle for a loss

TEXAS 38, BAYLOR 6

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 23, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 49,165

Using a balanced attack that included a 293-yard passing night by sophomore quarterback Quinn Ewers, the third-ranked Texas Longhorns defeated Baylor, 38-6, before a sellout crowd at McLane Stadium. This was the 113th meeting all-time and the last as Big 12 Conference foes.

Making his third-consecutive start, sophomore quarterback Sawyer Robertson was 20-of-35 for 203 yards and was picked off once. RJ Martinez was 9-of-18 for 102 yards, helping Baylor finish with 365 yards total offense and 19 first downs.

Isaiah Hankins kicked the first of two first-half field goals from 22 yards out, with the Bears getting points after a nine-play, 70-yard drive that included a 39-yard pass from Sawyer Robertson to Ketron Jackson Jr.

Still trailing just 7-3 five minutes into the second quarter, the Bears gave up a 29-yard TD run by Ewers on a third-down play that capped a nine-play, 75-yard drive and extended UT's lead to 14-3 with 9:07 left in the half.

The Longhorns exploded for 21 points in a seven-minute stretch. Just after on a muffed punt return by Worthy, the Bears tacked on a 36-yard field goal by Hankins that made it 28-6.

Xavier Worthy had a 40-yard punt return after a three-and-out by the Baylor offense, which led to CJ Baxter bouncing it outside to score from seven yards out to make it 21-3.

After a fourth-down stop near midfield, it took Texas just five plays to march 46 yards and score on a two-yard run by Jonathon Brooks for his second touchdown of the night.

After taking a 28-6 lead at the half, the Longhorns tacked on a 37-yard field goal by Bert Auburn and a 21-yard touchdown pass from Ewers to Xavier Worthy that provided the final margin.

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 36, UCF 35

FBC MORTGAGE STADIUM • ORLANDO, FLA.

SEPT. 30, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 44,005

Completing the biggest comeback in program history, Baylor scored 29 unanswered points in the last 19 minutes to pull out a 36-35 stunner over the UCF Knights before a packed house in the first Big 12 game at FBC Mortgage Stadium.

Blake Shapen completed 21-of-34 passes for 293 yards and one touchdown and also scored on a two-yard run in helping the Bears improve to 2-3 overall and 1-1 in Big 12 play.

Monaray Baldwin had a monster game with seven catches for 150 yards, scoring on a five-yard TD pass and then getting Baylor in position for the final score with a 36-yard catch and run down to UCF's 15-yard line.

Scoring in again the first half, Baylor marched 72 yards on 10 plays and scored on a two-yard keeper by Shapen on third-and-goal. He was 4-7 for 61 yards on the drive but was sacked three times in the first half.

Burned by big plays, Baylor gave up first-half touchdowns of 79, 65 and 86 yards and was down 28-7 at the break.

Trailing 35-7 late in the third quarter, the Bears closed the gap with a 30-yard field goal by Hankins at the 3:20 mark after a 10-play, 50-yard drive.

Scoring twice in a three-minute mark in the fourth quarter, Baylor got within 35-26 on a Dawson Pendergrass six-yard TD run, the Baldwin TD grab and a pair of two-point conversions.

Caden Jenkins scooped up a fourth-quarter fumble and returned it 72 yards for a touchdown that made it a two-point game, 35-33, with 6:02 still left in the game.

After a quick three-and-out by the Knights, Baylor answered with a nine-play, 61-yard drive, capped by Isaiah Hankins' 25-yard, chip-shot field goal that gave the Bears their first lead of the game, 36-35, with only 1:21 left and UCF out of timeouts.

Colton Boomer missed a 59-yarder on the last play of the game after the Knights picked up a first down at the Bears' 42-yard line for one last shot.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Trailing 35-7 late in the game, Baylor's 28-point comeback broke the school record.
- Richard Reese toted it 16 times for a season-high 100 yards for the fourth time in his career.
- Cooper Lantz blocked his first career field goal on Baylor's second blocked FG of the year.
- Caden Jenkins picked off his first career pass and returned a fumble 72 yards for a TD.
- Monaray Baldwin had seven catches for 150 yards and a TD, his third career 100+ yard receiving game.
- Dawson Pendergrass had seven carries for 30 yards and his second career score.

TEXAS TECH 39, BAYLOR 14

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

OCT. 23, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 44,620

The Bears were 1-for-6 on fourth down and lost to Texas Tech, 39-14, Saturday night at McLane Stadium.

Blake Shapen passed for 314 yards and a touchdown, but was sacked six times and lost a fumble as the Bears dropped their third home game of the season and fell to 2-4 overall and 1-2 in the Big 12.

In his second-straight and sixth career start, Behren Morton threw for 180 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for another one to lead the Red Raiders to their second-consecutive win.

Monaray Baldwin provided the biggest highlight for the Bears with a 71-yard touchdown pass from Shapen that made it a two-score game early in the fourth quarter, 24-11.

But the Red Raiders answered right back, going 65 yards in eight plays and scoring on an 18-yard TD run by Tahj Brooks, who rushed for 170 yards on 31 carries.

Baldwin added a 39-yard grab on Baylor's next series, but the Bears had to settle for Isaiah Hankins' second field goal of the night, this one from 33 yards. And Tech closed out the scoring with Morton's 10-yard TD run to make it 39-14.

Tech led 17-3 at the break on Morton TD passes of 13 yards to Coy Eakin and a 16-yarder to tight end Baylor Cupp. The Bears' lone first-half score was a 33-yard field goal by Hankins in the second quarter, coming after a fumble recovery by Garmon Randolph.

Cupp scored again on the Red Raiders' second possession of the second half, catching an 18-yard pass from Morton to cap a 13-play, 85-yard drive after another failed fourth-down play by the Bears.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The 71-yard TD pass from Blake Shapen to Monaray Baldwin was the second longest play for the Bears in 2023.
- Devyn Bobby had a career-best eight tackles with one forced fumble and one pass break-up.
- Caden Jenkins picked off his second pass of the year and in his second consecutive game.
- Dawson Pendergrass had a career-high four catches for 41 yards.
- Brendan Bett had his first career sack.
- Josh Smith made his first career start.

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 32, CINCINNATI 29

NIPPERT STADIUM • CINCINNATI, OHIO

OCT. 21, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 38,193

Isaiah Hankins made four field goals, including a career-long 54-yarder, as Baylor defeated the Cincinnati Bearcats, 32-29, Saturday afternoon before a crowd of 38,193 at Nippert Stadium.

Blake Shapen threw for 316 yards and one touchdown and rushed for another to help the Bears remain unbeaten on the road.

Answering a UC score, Baylor took the lead for good early in the second quarter on a three-yard run by Shapen, capping off a seven-play, 75-yard drive.

On the ensuing kickoff, Braden Smith bobbled it on the catch, then fumbled it away into the arms of Byron Vaughns for an easy return from inside the 10-yard line to make it a double-digit lead, 17-7.

Hankins nailed another one from 43 yards to give the Bears a 20-14 halftime lead.

Shapen found Ketron Jackson for a 55-yard pass on the opening drive of the third quarter and then got with Jake Roberts from six yards out for his first touchdown in a Baylor uniform to make it 26-14.

In a big red-zone stop, Jones missed Payten Singletary on a fourth-down pass from the 15-yard line that was broken up by Devin Lemear. Back-to-back 20-yard plays on a Shapen pass to Monaray Baldwin and a run by Dominic Richardson led to a 46-yard field goal by Hankins that pushed the lead to 29-14 late in the third quarter.

Hankins made it a 4-for-4 day when he split the uprights with another 43-yarder that made it 32-21.

The Bearcats made things interesting at the end, coming back from a double-digit deficit to make it a three-point game with 5:03 left when quarterback Emory Jones completed a 28-yard TD pass to Xzavier Henderson and then went to Evan Prater for the two-point conversion.

But the Baylor defense came up with a big stop near midfield when Corey Gordon Jr. broke up a fourth-down pass as Cincinnati turned it over on downs for the third time. The Bearcats rolled up 450 yards total offense, including 288 on the ground, but was just 2-for-4 in the red zone.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The Bears won their first meeting against the Cincinnati Bearcats.
- Isaiah Hankins made a career-high four field goals, connecting from 43, 43, 46 and 54 yards. The four FGs ties the school record, last touched by Connor Martin in 2017.
- Blake Shapen threw for 316 yards and one TD on 25-of-42 passing, also rushing for a score
- Jake Roberts caught his first TD as a Bear, fourth in his career.
- Caleb Parker forced his first career fumble.
- Devin Bobby had a career-high eight tackles.
- Corey Gordon Jr. broke up his third pass of the year, clinching the game in the fourth quarter.
- Josh Cameron recorded a career-long 41-yard punt return.
- Coleton Price made his first career start.

IOWA STATE 30, BAYLOR 18

MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

OCT. 28, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 43,528

Dawson Pendergrass had a pair of touchdown rushes and Monaray Baldwin had 117 yards receiving but Baylor football could not complete a second-half comeback, falling to Iowa State Cyclones, 30-18 on Saturday, before a Homecoming crowd of 43,528.

Pendergrass, the Baylor standout freshman running back, was stopped on fourth down with just over four minutes left, thwarting the potential comeback bid and allowing Iowa State to close out the game with its first win over the Bears in the last three meetings.

Pendergrass's second TD of the day pulled the Bears within nine, 27-18, but the two-point conversion failed and then Iowa State capped a time-consuming drive with a 30-yard field goal by Chase Contreras that gave the Cyclones a 12-point lead.

Baylor made things interesting, driving inside ISU's 25-yard line, but Pendergrass was stopped short of the first-down marker on a fourth-and-three from the 23.

Iowa State cruised in the first half, going up 17-0 on a Rocco Becht 18-yard TD pass to Jayden Higgins, a one-yard run by Cartevious Norton and the first of three field goals by Contreras, this one from 42 yards.

After Devin Bobby picked off a Becht pass, the Bears got on the Board just before the half on an eight-yard run by Pendergrass, who finished with 76 yards combined rushing and receiving on 11 touches. Isaiah Hankins' extra point was blocked, leaving the score at 17-6 going into intermission.

The Cyclones took their biggest lead of the game, 27-6, on a 49-yard TD run by Norton and a Contreras field goal from 45 yards.

But Baylor answered with a pair of second-half touchdowns on a 69-yard pass from Blake Shapen to Baldwin and a five-yard run by Pendergrass. The Bears' comeback fell short with two failed two-point conversions and the late stop by the Cyclones.

Shapen completed 24-of-41 passes for 239 yards and one touchdown with his first interception of the season. Baldwin had another big game with six catches for 117 yards.

Becht threw for 238 yards for the Cyclones, while Eli Sanders was the game's leading rusher with 90 yards on 14 totes.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Dawson Pendergrass rushed for two TDs, leading the team with four in 2023.
- Devin Bobby had a career-high 11 tackles, the most for a Bear in 2023, and an interception.
- Brooks Miller charted a career-high seven tackles and his first fumble recovery.
- Cooper Lanz forced his first career fumble.
- Blake Shapen threw for 239 yards and a TD on 24-of-41 passing.
- Baylor moves at 50-43-4 all-time on homecoming.

GAME RECAPS

HOUSTON 25, BAYLOR 24 (OT) MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS NOV. 4, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 41,180

In the first matchup of former Southwest Conference rivals in 28 years, the Cougars picked up their first Big 12 road victory in their debut season in the league. Baylor fell to 1-6 at home this season, including 0-4 in conference play.

Baylor overcame a double-digit second-half deficit to tie it on Blake Shapen's one-yard TD pass to tight end Hawkins Polley with 29 seconds left in regulation and took its only lead of the game on Dawson Pendergrass' one-yard TD run and Isaiah Hankins' extra point in OT.

But Houston scored in seven plays. A fumble by Smith into the end zone that was recovered by Chateau Reed was overturned by replay, and the UofH quarterback scored on a sneak from inside the 1 on the very next play.

The Bears answered Houston, marching 75 yards in eight plays and scoring on a 38-yard TD pass to Drake Dabney on a flea-flicker play that included Monaray Baldwin flipping it back to Shapen.

On the ensuing possession, Baylor had a second-goal from the 2-yard line, but the Bears settled for a 27-yard field goal by Hankins that tied it up at 10-10.

Houston went back up, 17-10, when Smith found running back Tony Mathis Jr. for a 24-yard TD reception on a drive that took just five plays to cover 75 yards.

The Cougars had a chance to put the game away, but the Baylor defense held, forcing a 44-yard field goal try that Martin missed wide right.

Out of timeouts, Shapen connected with Polley on the short TD pass with defensive lineman David Ugwoegbu in his face.

In the OT period, Shapen hit a wide-open Dabney for 23 yards down to the 2, then Pendergrass finished it off with his fifth rushing touchdown of the season.

Going for the win in the first overtime period, Houston quarterback Donovan Smith scored from one yard out and then added the two-point conversion on a QB draw to lift the Cougars to a 25-24 win over the Baylor Bears.

POSTGAME NOTES

- The series is tied 14-14-1 after the first meeting since 1995.
- The Bears played their first overtime game of the season and the first since at BYU in 2022.
- Blake Shapen threw for 263 yards and two TDs on a career-high 29 completions.
- Caden Jenkins picked off his team-leading third pass of the year, which ties him for the NCAA lead among freshmen.
- Dawson Pendergrass scored his team-leading fifth rushing TD of the year.
- Drake Dabney has seven career receiving TDs, tied for second-most among tight ends in program history.
- Chateau Reed picked off his first career pass.
- LeVar Thornton made his collegiate debut.
- Brendan Bett made his first career start.

KANSAS STATE 59, BAYLOR 25

BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM • MANHATTAN, KAN. NOV. 11, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 51,790

Kansas State's defense scored off turnovers in each half to help the 25th ranked Wildcats pull away for a 59-25 victory over the Baylor Bears Saturday afternoon at Bill Snyder Family Stadium in a matchup of the last two Big 12 champions.

Blake Shapen threw for 253 yards and a career-high four touchdowns to lead the Bears, who fell to 3-7 overall and 2-5 in the Big 12. K-State improved to 7-3 and 5-2.

Will Howard accounted for four of the Wildcats' six offensive touchdowns, completing 19-of-29 passes for 235 yards and three touchdowns and also scoring on a one-yard TD run. Howard set the school record with his 45th career touchdown pass.

But the separator for KSU was a 15-yard fumble return by Desmond Purnell in the first quarter and Keenan Garber's pick-six return near the end of the third.

The Bears scored a touchdown on their opening drive of the game for the first time this season, capping a five-play, 72-yard drive with a 13-yard TD pass from Shapen to freshman Dawson Pendergrass that tied it up at 7-7 early.

After the Wildcats scored 28 unanswered points on two TD passes and a one-yard TD run by Howard and Moore's fumble return, the Shapen-to-Pendergrass connection worked again from the 1-yard line to make it a three-score game, 35-13.

The Bears used a razzle-dazzle play to get on the board midway through the third quarter. Shapen caught a backward pass from Dominic Richardson and connected with tight end Drake Dabney for a 63-yard touchdown that got it back to a three-score game, 38-19.

Dabney had his second 100-yard day of the season and his career with 105 yards on four catches. In one of his best games in a Baylor uniform, Richardson rushed for 89 yards on 17 carries and caught one pass for eight yards.

K-State scored again late after Baylor's fourth turnover of the day, with backup quarterback Avery Johnson connecting with tight end Garrett Oakley for a 28-yard TD pass.

Shapen led a 10-play, 77-yard fourth-quarter drive and hooked up with Monaray Baldwin for his fourth TD pass of the day with 20 seconds left in the game.

POSTGAME NOTES

- QB Blake Shapen threw for a career-high four TDs on 22 of 45 passing for 253 yards.
- TE Drake Dabney caught four passes for 105 yards and a TD, eclipsing the 100-yard mark for the second time for a new career-high mark.
- Dawson Pendergrass caught his first two receiving TDs.
- Josh Cameron had five catches for 41 yards and returned three punts for 101 yards, including a long of 70 yards.
- Armani Winfield made his first career start.

GAME RECAPS

TCU 42, BAYLOR 17

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM • FORT WORTH, TEXAS

NOV. 18, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 42,621

Stopped inside the 10-yard line on its first two possessions, TCU scored on essentially its next six drives and pulled away for a 42-17 win over the Baylor Bears Saturday afternoon in the 119th all-time meeting of the two teams at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Josh Hoover threw for 412 yards and two touchdowns and also scored on a three-yard run to help keep the Horned Frogs alive for a bowl berth, needing to beat 14th-ranked Oklahoma next week in Norman.

Baylor came up with a couple big defensive stops early, with Cooper Lanz forcing a fumble by Emani Bailey at the 2-yard line that was recovered by cornerback Caden Jenkins and returned out to the 31. And then, Bailey and Savion Williams were stopped for no gain on back-to-back plays from the 6-yard line to turn it over on downs.

The Bears trailed just 14-10 at the half and 21-17 midway through the third quarter, when Blake Shapen scored on a two-yard keeper. But TCU scored 21 unanswered points, the last one coming after Baylor went for it and failed on a fourth-down play from its own 31.

Shapen was 20-of-30 for 197 yards, hitting Dominic Richardson for a 10-yard TD pass in the first quarter, and also rushed nine times for 42 yards. Richardson added 67 yards on 17 totes, while freshman Dawson Pendergrass had 43 yards combined rushing and receiving on 15 touches.

After Baylor pulled within 21-17 on the Shapen keeper, the Horned Frogs put the game away with touchdown runs by Hoover, Bailey and Trey Sanders. TCU finished with 531 yards total offense, including 431 through the air.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Blake Shapen threw for 197 yards and a score on 20-of-30 passing. Shapen rushed his fourth TD of the year, a career high.
- TE Drake Dabney caught four passes for 77 yards to put his total at 529 in 2023, ranking as the best total in single-season history among tight ends.
- Dominic Richardson caught the first TD of his career and the first touchdown of his Baylor career.
- Bryson Jackson played in his team-high 59th career game, passing Connor Galvin and moving into a tie for second all-time in BU history in games played.
- Matt Jones had his fourth career double-digit tackle effort.
- Dawson Pendergrass had a career-high five catches.
- Corey Gordon Jr. had a career-high seven tackles.

WEST VIRGINIA 34, BAYLOR 31

MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

NOV. 25, 2023 • ATTENDANCE: 36,200

Despite a 4th-down stop with just over four minutes to play and a four-point lead, West Virginia rallied to beat Baylor, 34-31, in Saturday's season finale at McLane Stadium.

A pair of missed field goals, including one from 32 yards out that would have given the Bears a seven-point lead with 1:14 left, also proved to be critical.

Going 80 yards in six plays, the Mountaineers (8-4, 6-3) got the game winner on Garrett Greene's 29-yard TD pass to running back Jahiem White with just 23 seconds on the clock.

Down to 18 seconds after the kickoff, Baylor got as far as its own 46-yard line before time ran out.

The Bears managed just 86 yards offense in the first half, but were able to keep it close with back-to-back kickoff returns for touchdowns of 96 and 93 yards by sophomore running back Richard Reese, trailing 27-14 at the break.

Filling in, Sawyer Robertson completed his first 10 passes and connected with Ketrion Jackson on a 38-yard touchdown pass on the opening drive of the third quarter as part of a 14-point quarter.

After the defense forced a three-and-out, Robertson hit Jackson for another 38-yard pass, then converted a fourth-down play with a keeper before Dominic Richardson went in untouched for a two-yard TD run to give the Bears their first lead of the game, 28-27.

The Bears tacked on a 39-yard field goal by Isaiah Hankins in the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 31-27 and came up with a huge fourth-down stop near midfield. With a chance to run out the clock, Baylor failed to convert on just its second trip into the red zone when Hankins missed the chip-shot field goal wide right.

West Virginia, shut down for most of the second half, put it together on that six-play, 80-yard drive that took just 51 seconds.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Sawyer Robertson connected on his first 10 passes, ending the day 17-of-19 with 215 yards in the air.
- RB Richard Reese took two kicks to the house in back-to-back returns.
- Ketrion Jackson caught three passes for 88 yards and one TD.
- Dominic Richardson picked up his first TD as a Bear, the 16th of his career.
- Devyn Bobby led the team with nine tackles and two PBUs, his fifth and six on the year.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Baylor's football program celebrates its 126th year of existence and its 123rd season in 2024. The school has fielded a varsity team each year since 1899, save the 1906, 1943 and 1944 seasons.

Baylor first began playing football in 1899 and started putting together a history that was not all that bad considering the times. Baylor's first five teams all finished with better than .500 records. After 14 years of football, and there was one season (1906) when Baylor did not field a team, the university was on the topside of the scoreboard with an overall mark of 50-44-11 while being tutored by 10 different head coaches. It had not won any conference championships, but then there was no way it could do so; it did not compete in a conference.

However, several outcomes prior to formation of the Southwest Conference should be mentioned by anyone exploring a history of Baylor football.

In that first year of Baylor football, the University's gridiron representatives played TCU to a 0-0 tie. The game was played in Waco and for an excellent reason: both schools were located in Waco. However, TCU in that era was known as "AddRan" College; the school's name was not officially changed to "Texas Christian University" until 1902, and by then the team's nickname was already "Horned Frogs." When the two schools met in 1901, Baylor won a 39-0 victory on Nov. 23 and later that season defeated TCU (or AddRan), 42-9.

TCU finally defeated Baylor for the first time in 1904, 5-0, but in 1907 came the strangest verdict of all. The TCU record book shows a victory for the Frogs, 11-10. But for a number of years the Baylor record book listed that outcome as a victory for Baylor, 10-9. In his history of the Southwest Conference ("Football, Texas Style") published by Doubleday & Company in 1964, Kern Tips, the man widely regarded as the greatest radio voice SWC football ever knew, offered this explanation:

"At issue is whether or not TCU actually tackled a Baylor ball carrier in his own end zone for a safety late in the game. Reports say that the officials disagreed among themselves, as the goal line had disappeared in the dusty action, and were still debating the issue while the teams and spectators went home to supper with their own convictions about the final score."

Another interesting Baylor-TCU outcome (and remember, at this time both institutions were located in Waco; TCU did not move to Fort Worth until 1910 after the school's main building in Waco had burned) came in 1908. TCU had already won the first two games played between the two schools that season. They decided to play a third one on Nov. 26 (Thanksgiving Day). TCU led at halftime, 8-6. Baylor, by then downright hungry for a victory over the Frogs, did an unusual thing. John Fouts, Baylor's star left end, put on blue stockings (blue was then a TCU color) but kept on his Baylor gray jersey. Then, according to the Tips' accounting, "after the second-half kickoff he raced to the sidelines, snatched off his gray jersey and was revealed in a blue one that, like his stockings, matched TCU's uniforms. As he rejoined his mates on the field, it appeared that TCU had provided Baylor with its 11th man.

"TCU objected; Baylor's captain Babe Gantt smilingly observed there was no law against it, and demurred. With its 'wild card' from the coloring book in the game, Baylor rallied to win the game, 23-8, amid what was reported to be 'bitterness and confusion' on the part of the TCU team and its supporters. The city of Waco was a little noisy that evening. This, by the way, is a report from the files of TCU. No reference to Mr. Fouts' strip act is to be found in the Baylor book."

One more Baylor game from that era demands attention. In 1910, Baylor met Texas in Waco. Baylor was coached by Ralph Glaze, a former All-America end at Dartmouth. Texas had a new coach, William S. ("Billy") Wasmund, a former quarterback at Michigan for Fielding "Hurry Up" Yost. The Baylor and Texas coaches clashed fiercely before the game about which of the officials should be the referee and run the game. Wasmund won the argument, and his choice was Vanderbilt ex Dan Blake, who had played for a coach at Vanderbilt who also was a Yost product.

The game was tied at 6-6 in the first half but, as Baylor players and their coach saw it, Blake was giving Texas all the better of it in his calls. On one occasion, Baylor had a chance to score and go ahead after getting a Texas fumble. But Blake got in the way of the Baylor player who appeared to be touchdown-bound and slowed him up just enough for a Texas player to run him down from behind at the UT 18. Later in the game, with Texas in possession at the Baylor 12, UT quarterback Arnold Kirkpatrick dropped the ball while trying to pass, and Baylor end Riley Hefley picked up the ball and started to run with it. According to a history of Longhorn football written by longtime Austin American-Statesman Lou Maysel, "Referee Blake jumped in and stopped him, declaring the play was dead because the ball had struck Blake. Two of the other three officials sided with Baylor, but Blake stuck to his decision, whereupon Glaze refused to let his team continue and eventually took it off the field."

Or, as Tips puts it in his history, "Owing to a rank decision by an official, Coach Glaze refused to continue and took his team off the field, ending the game."

Texas went home with a victory now officially recorded as a 1-0 win, although the Baylor record book for years listed it as a 6-6 tie. But a postscript is worth noting. Baylor had a mighty lineman that season, a future Rhodes Scholar named E.T. Adams, better known as "Bull" Adams. He had scored Baylor's only touchdown in that game when he grabbed a Texas fumble and ran 20 yards with it. When Glaze decided to take his team off the field, the raging and defiant Adams initially refused to go. As folklore has it, he challenged Texas to run its future plays only between the tackles. If the Longhorns would do so, he would take on the visitors by himself.

Texas declined and went home with its 1-0 victory. And Baylor was left with its only defeat that season.

Glaze would not enjoy another winning season before turning the football program over to Norman Paine for one season (1913). Paine in turn gave up the reins the next season to C.P. "Bubs" Mosley, who had been an outstanding player in his own right for Baylor. Mosley, who was inducted into the Baylor Athletics Hall of Fame in 1964, thus took over in 1914 as the team was becoming known as Bears and Baylor itself was becoming part of a new conference, the Southwest Conference.

The new league was formed on May 6 of that year, with football competition scheduled to begin in 1915. Baylor, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, Texas A&M, Oklahoma A&M and Southwestern University were charter members. Rice was accepted provisionally and did participate in 1915, but then backed out for 1916 and 1917 before joining the league to stay in 1918.

Mosley did not have a good season in his inaugural year as head coach in Baylor's final season as an independent. Indeed, his team was only 3-5-2. Perhaps his inheritance was not all that great. The previous season, the team tied as many games as it won (three). So, Mosley's first season was hardly an accurate signal of things to come. He stayed around as head coach for six seasons, guiding the Bears through the 1919 campaign, and his overall record was 30-18-4. His winning pace of 62.5 percent would be exceeded by only his successor, Frank Bridges (66 percent) and by George Sauer (1950-55), who won at a 64 percent rate.

But Mosley did something that would become a rarity in Baylor football coaching circles; he won a share of the conference championship in 1915 while leading the newly-named Bears to a 7-1 record overall and a 3-0 mark in league play. Unbeaten Oklahoma had much the better overall record (10-0), but the Sooners also were 3-0 in league competition, and thus Baylor and Oklahoma were declared the new league's co-champions.

Alas, that decision did not stand. Baylor officials did some checking and discovered one of their players was a transfer from another college and thus not eligible to have played that season. According to Tips' history, Baylor offered to turn back the title but Oklahoma, "knowing this, made no effort to claim the title in dispute for itself; and aside from the fact that, for want of a second to Baylor's offer to quit-claim the championship, the conference did then and still does list the Bears as the first conference champions."

However, while the two teams continued to be listed at the top of the 1915 standings, the roster and record book published by the SWC in later years noted that "Baylor forfeited claim to co-championship for using ineligible player."

It was a zany start for the new league.

The following season brought another zany development. Texas was 5-1 for league play and 7-2 overall. Baylor was 3-1 in conference competition (the lone loss being to Texas A&M, 3-0), but 9-1 for the season. The league decided no champion would be recognized.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Baylor would not enjoy another really banner season until the early 1920s and by then the Bears were under the direction of Frank Bridges, of whom it was written (by the longtime regional sports editor of The Associated Press, Harold V. Ratliff, in his book, "I Shook the Hand"): "Cocky little Frank Bridges qualified as the puck of sportdom. His bag of tricks in football brought championships and humorous incidents; his mischievousness not only gave others laughs but sometimes got Frank into predicaments ... Bridges came into the Southwest Conference to bewilder opponents with such shenanigans as the hidden ball trick and the kickoff from the sidelines, and to bring to football the eight-man offensive line and the spin play."

And, Ratliff wrote in his book (published in 1948), "He won the only conference championships Baylor University ever knew in football. They still talk about his tackle-around play and they still chuckle at the old ivy-covered school and the colorful antics of this half-pint with the tart tongue."

Of course, Baylor is no longer an ivy-covered school. And the University has won other football championships than the ones Bridges brought to the school in 1922 and 1924. But, no question, he was something special as a coach in his day, and his teams were something special. As was noted in a book concerning the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and its members, "Name all the trick plays you've ever heard about. Frank Bridges almost certainly used them first."

They still laugh about the time in 1924 when Baylor was playing SMU, trailing 7-0, and desperately needing a touchdown late in the game to tie the score and sew up the championship. Bridges kept sending in players with instructions to call for the use of Baylor's famed spread formation. They kept failing to do so. So finally Bridges called time, walked out on the field himself, and said: "Now, Mr. Referee, when we spread out we want the fans to be quiet so we can hear the signals." The referee assured him the fans would be kept quiet. The Baylor quarterback got the hint, called a play using the spread, Baylor scored, tied the game and won the title.

Bridges' first title came in 1922 and featured a sensational back named Wesley Bradshaw (5-11, 170). Bradshaw came to Baylor from Bursleson College in Greenville, and made all-conference in both 1921 and '22. In 1922, he became a one-man gang. He scored 30 points against Arkansas in one game and that year he scored 119 points, a total that stood as the Baylor record for 89 years. He lettered in four sports: football, basketball, baseball and track. Hall of Fame coach Warren Woodson once called him "the greatest open field runner I have ever seen perform."

Baylor was undefeated in league play in 1922 and 8-3 overall. Bears other than Bradshaw who won consensus All-SWC recognition that year included tackle Russell Blalock, guard Cop Weathers and back John Tanner.

By 1924, Bradshaw was gone, but Bridges was undeterred. His Bears won the championship again, posting a 4-0-1 record (7-2-1 overall), beating out SMU, which had a 2-0-4 mark. That Baylor team had such consensus All-SWC players as guards Jack Sisco and Bear Walker and backs Ralph Pittman and Bill Coffey, but mainly it had sophomore tackle/end/back Sam Coates (6-2, 225), a remarkable athlete who first played at Waco High and then moved across town to the Baylor campus and became one of the first players in league history to win consensus All-SWC recognition for three-straight seasons.

According to Tips, on Baylor's drive for a tying touchdown against SMU in 1924, Coates gained 10 yards on a tackle-around play, moved to end and caught a pass for a 50-yard gain, and then a few plays later, in the role of ball carrier, swept SMU's end for the tying touchdown. "Somebody else kicked the tying point, though," wrote Tips.

Two conference championships in a span of three years, those were heady times for the Baylor Bears. But they didn't last. Bridges resigned following the 1925 season after becoming involved in a dispute with the university's president, Samuel P. Brooks. Also, there were reports in various newspapers that claimed Bridges had turned down two $10,000-a-year coaching jobs. Brooks called Bridges in and told him he could never expect to make that much at Baylor. "Why, I only receive $10,000," Brooks is said to have told Bridges. "That's all right, Doc," the puckish Bridges is quoted as replying. "I'll get you a raise."

Brooks laughed at the remark, "but that was the first inkling I had that he didn't like me," Bridges later said.

He left after compiling a six-year record of 35-18-6. Morley Jennings, who had compiled an impressive record of his own while coaching at Ouachita College in Arkansas, succeeded him and stayed around for 15 years, guiding the Baylor program through the challenging times brought on by the Great Depression. Jennings compiled an overall record of 83-60-6, came close to capturing the crown three times (second-place finishes in 1926, 1930 and 1933) and tutored perhaps the greatest lineman in Baylor history (Barton "Botchey" Koch), giving Waco some of the most exciting times it had ever experienced to that point.

Koch's greatest season came in 1930 when he became the first Southwest Conference player in history to win consensus All-America recognition. Koch was 5-11 and 220, and in the words of Hall of Fame coach Ray Morrison, "I've never seen a guard who could spend as much time in his opponents' backfield as Koch does." Koch's time at Baylor coincided with that of back Jake Wilson, a mighty mite of 5-10 and 147, a two-year all-conference selection and a true triple threat. Wilson and Koch made the Bears a strong team in 1930, but their 3-1-1 mark in SWC play finished a half-game behind Texas' 4-1-0 mark.

The Bears were good again in 1933 (4-2-0 mark in SWC play) with such all-conference selections as end Jim Tom Petty, guard Harold Clem and back Joe Jack Pearce, but again they finished as a runner-up to Arkansas. They were 6-3-1 and tied for third in the SWC race in 1936 as Lloyd Russell won all-star honors.

But it was in 1937 that they got Baylor ranks and the Central Texas population buzzing in a way not seen in decades. SMU and TCU had set the stage in 1935, both remaining undefeated until they clashed for the national championship on Nov. 30 in a game that commanded the presence of big-name sportswriters from all parts. SMU won that game and received an invitation to become the first Southwest Conference team ever to play in the Rose Bowl.

When Baylor won its first six games in 1937, defeating defending champion Arkansas and well-armed TCU and A&M, the Bears zoomed up to No. 4 in The Associated Press poll. Talk broke out all over the state: "Baylor to the Rose Bowl." Coming up next was Texas, destined to finish in the cellar that season in the SWC.

The Bears in that era were playing their games in Waco's relatively new Municipal Stadium, which had a capacity of 12,000, or maybe 15,000 if the place was jammed. It was jammed on that Saturday afternoon of Nov. 6 when Bears and Longhorns lined up for the kickoff. Also jammed was the radio booth where the ranks of broadcasters had been increased by the presence of a famous sports voice from New York.

Before the game, a representative of the Baylor Lariat, the campus newspaper, approached the famed visitor and asked him how he thought the game would go. "Young man, I get paid for my opinions," the visitor loftily replied. Standing nearby and hearing the conversation was Jinx Tucker, famed in his own right as longtime sports editor of the Waco Tribune-Herald. "Hal, here," said Tucker, fishing in his pocket and coming up with a nickel. "Give him this and let's find out all he knows."

If anyone in the vicinity thought Texas was going to score a shocking upset that day, he kept such an opinion to himself. But the Longhorns did, ambushing the Bears, 9-6, and not only ending all that Rose Bowl talk but also puncturing the Bears' dreams of winning the conference title. They wound up a 3-3 team in league play.

But not even defeat could diminish the brilliance of Baylor's famed twosome of back Billy Patterson and end Sam Boyd. Both were two-year consensus All-SWC selections, both were early Baylor Athletics Hall of Fame inductees, and both had NFL career possibilities until World War II intervened.

Patterson was especially outstanding by any measure. He had been outstanding as a high school player at Hillsboro. "In all my years of coaching, I guess the boy I wanted most and didn't get was Billy Patterson," famed TCU coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer once said. Meyer couldn't complain, of course. He did get the likes of all-time college great Sammy Baugh and the first Heisman Trophy winner from west of the Mississippi, Davey O'Brien.

Patterson wound up at Baylor, although some of the civic leaders in Hillsboro had him primed to go to Texas. As Patterson told the story later, "Jack Chevigny was the coach at Texas and I had an appointment to meet him one day at the old Andrews Café in Hillsboro. I waited around awhile and he never showed up. When we (Baylor) went to Austin my sophomore year and beat Texas by scoring 21 points in the fourth quarter, and I was fortunate enough to make a few big plays, a delegation from Hillsboro went to Chevigny en masse after the game and told him, 'The kid who did so much in that last drive to beat you is the one you stood up in Hillsboro.'"

Patterson showed his true ability when Baylor upset Arkansas in 1937. He ran 71 yards for a touchdown, he threw a pass for 71 yards and another touchdown, he intercepted a pass and then threw for the winning touchdown as the Bears beat the defending champions, 20-14. Three Saturdays later, he threw a long pass to Boyd for the touchdown that beat a powerful TCU team that was led by O'Brien, 6-0.

Jennings also had good teams in 1938 and '39. The Bears finished well above .500 both seasons (7-2-1 in '38 and 7-3 in '39). If the situation then had been what it is today, they would have gone to bowls both years. But instead they stayed home as first TCU and then Texas A&M won national championships with teams that were unbeaten and untied and seldom challenged. Then the 1940 campaign marked the end of the Jennings era. Morley, widely admired, seldom blessed with the resources or talent of his adversaries, posted a 4-6 record that year as the Texas Aggies remained No. 1 in the national polls and stretched their long winning streak to Thanksgiving Day before Texas upset them, 7-0, and knocked a Rose Bowl invitation right out of their hands.

Meanwhile, Texas Tech, which had been campaigning for several years for membership in the Southwest Conference, hired Jennings at the end of the 1940 season to leave Baylor, move to Lubbock and head up the Red Raiders' athletic program and the school's bid for a place in the SWC. BU hired Frank Kimbrough, older brother of A&M's All-America fullback John Kimbrough, to succeed Jennings.

Kimbrough's tenure stretched over six years but included only four football seasons because of the school's decision to withdraw from football competition for the 1943 and 1944 seasons because of World War II. His second season (1942) produced encouraging results (6-4-1 overall, 3-2-1 in conference play), but it was his first season that produced one of the biggest shockers in the history of Baylor football.

The SWC had produced a mythical national champion (SMU) in 1935, the year before the annual Associated Press poll was started, and the AP's national champion in both 1938 (TCU) and 1939 (A&M). Then, A&M came within the late-season loss to Texas of repeating its national championship in 1940. So, conversation about national titles was becoming old hat to SWC fans. When Texas won its first six games in 1941, and all the victories coming by at least a 28-point margin, the Longhorns took over first place in the AP poll and critics labeled coach D.X. Bible's masterpiece the greatest team in Southwest Conference history.

Baylor, on the other hand, was far from a masterpiece. When injuries sidelined the Bears' outstanding back, Jack Wilson, Kimbrough's team became less than ordinary. It lost to Texas A&M, 48-0, and the following week it lost to TCU, 23-12, and experts saw no hope for the Bears against mighty Texas. Waco Tribune-Herald sage Jinx Tucker predicted a 50-0 Baylor defeat and advised fans to get to the game early, otherwise they would miss UT's first touchdown.

Playing in the same stadium where Texas had snuffed out Baylor's Rose Bowl talk in 1937, the Bears got their revenge. Their revved-up defense, paced by tackle Bubo Barnett, held Texas' superb breakaway back Jack Crain to a net gain of three yards for the afternoon.

But with two minutes to play, Texas held a 7-0 lead, thanks to a Baylor punt that had slanted out of bounds on the BU 10-yard line. Then, with time running short, the Bears took over on their own 28 and started moving downfield, mainly with the passes of Wilson's substitute, sophomore Kit Kittrell. A product of nearby McGregor High School, Kittrell drove the Bears to the Texas 18, where it was fourth-and-four with 18 seconds left. Kittrell, the tailback in Kimbrough's single wing formation, took the snap and began to roam around. His primary target, Willie Coleman, all 5 feet 8 inches and 155 pounds, suddenly emerged in the clear from a crowd of Longhorns. Kittrell's pass was high, but Coleman leaped and came down with the ball and the Bears had a touchdown. And then Wilson, adhesive tape covering his sprained ankle, hobbled onto the field and kicked the extra point that gave BU a 7-7 tie that was almost universally hailed as a victory.

Two decades later, a panel of Texas sports writers voted that 7-7 tie "the greatest upset in Southwest Conference history." Incidentally, Texas was so staggered the Longhorns lost their next game, too, to TCU. End of Rose Bowl talk, end of championship hopes. But the Longhorns, who eventually lost out on all the bowls, did leave the state talking, slaughtering Oregon, 71-7, in their season finale on Dec. 6. The next day, the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and people quit talking about both the Longhorns and the Rose Bowl.

Baylor resumed football competition in 1945 with a team that finished 5-5-1, but when Kimbrough's 1946 team could win only one game in nine tries and none in league play, a hue and cry arose that a coaching change had to be made.

Exit Kimbrough, enter Bob Woodruff. And as former Baylor athletic faculty rep, then president and finally chancellor Abner McCall once said, it was only then, in 1947, that Baylor really got serious about football.

Woodruff, who had been one of Bobby Dodds' principal assistants at Georgia Tech, brought with him a former Georgia Tech standout named Frank Broyles to help him, and in their second year on the job they got the Bears respectable, highly competitive and into a bowl, Baylor's first. That 1948 team, sparked by junior college transfer quarterback Adrian Burk and all-conference linemen Buddy Tinsley and Bentley Jones, finished in a tie for third in the conference race, 6-3-2 overall, and beat Wake Forest, 20-7, in the "Dixie Bowl" in Birmingham, Ala. Tinsley, at 6-3 and 240 (and later a super star in Canadian football), was the heaviest man on the consensus all-conference team, and Jones, a 5-10, 165-pound guard, was the lightest.

The 1948 Baylor team was a good one. The 1949 team was great, one of the greatest in Baylor history. It won its first six games, climbed to No. 6 in the AP poll (before losing to Texas), finished second at 8-2 behind an outstanding Rice team that was unbeaten in league play, and became the catalyst for the drive that resulted in Baylor building a new 50,000-seat stadium the next year.

That 1949 Baylor team had a superlative end named J.D. Ison, an all-conference guard named Don Mouser, and quarterback Burk, who both punted and passed in an All-America manner. Burk led the nation in passing that season, completing 57.6 percent of his 191 throws for 1,428 yards (which ranked second in SWC history at that time) and 14 touchdowns. He was never better than he was on Nov. 19 of that season, when Baylor beat SMU for the first time since 1936.

SMU that season was led by Hall of Fame coach Matty Bell and featured such stars as former Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker, future All-Pro Kyle Rote and other Mustangs who had been instrumental in SMU winning the conference crown the two previous years. The game was played at the Cotton Bowl (by then SMU's home stadium) before a crowd of 63,337, the biggest crowd ever to watch the Bears play up to that time. Burk threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to back Dudley Parker on the first play from scrimmage, and after that the game just got wilder and wilder.

Baylor assistant Frank Broyles, the excitable sort, was in a scouting booth in the press box, watching the teams exchange touchdowns in rapid fire order. Finally, the time arrived for him to leave his place in the scouting booth and go to ground level to be with the team at halftime. He caught the slow-moving press box elevator, and as it made its way downward, Broyles heard a huge roar coming from the stands. Upon reaching the ground, he ran up the nearest ramp, grabbed a fan and demanded, "What happened, what happened?"

Came the exasperated reply: "Those guys scored again."

Unenlightened, Broyles quickly posed another question: "Yes, yes, but which ones."

Baylor had the last word (and last score) in that game, winning a 35-26 verdict and moving back up to No. 9 in the AP poll. Doak Walker caught a touchdown pass in that game while lying on his back in the end zone. But alas, the Bears lost to Rice in their final game, 21-7, and shortly after that Woodruff accepted Florida's offer to come coach the Gators. And he took

PROGRAM HISTORY

Broyles with him.

Baylor's response was to hire George Sauer, who had coached with great success at Kansas and then with some success at Navy. Sauer, a former All-America fullback at Nebraska, coached six years at Baylor and gave the Bears some of the most exciting football the school has enjoyed in its history of playing the game.

"That was our Golden Era," declares Gale Galloway, a co-captain of the 1951 team and an outstanding linebacker who probably would have made it big in the pros if it had not been for the Korean War. Instead, he wound up as chief executive officer of several Fortune 500 companies and became one of Baylor's major benefactors. Galloway would include the 1949 team when making that "Golden Era" assessment.

Sauer arrived just in time to direct the Bears in their new stadium. His first team (1950) was a fine one, posting a 7-3 record and finishing second in the SWC title chase; his second team was even better. It finished a half game out of first place after being upset by eventual champion TCU. But it also wound up in Baylor's first "major" bowl, the Orange Bowl, where it lost to Georgia Tech, 17-14.

Those were teams featuring the wondrous wizardry of quarterback Larry Isbell (All-America in 1951 and generally recognized as Baylor's finest quarterback in the 20th century), the pass catching of All-Americans Stan Williams and Harold Riley, the running of fullback Richard Parma and the defensive work of Galloway, tackle Ken Casner and guard Bill Athey. The 1951 Bears finished ninth in the AP poll, at that time the highest ever for a Baylor team.

Sauer's Bears were back knocking at the door again in 1953, finishing a game out of a share of the title after winning their first six games and attaining the highest ranking ever for a Baylor team — No. 3 in the AP poll — before beating TCU and losing by a single point to Texas in Austin.

That team featured what became known as the "Fearsome Foursome" backfield, comprised of Cotton Davidson at quarterback, Jerry Coody and L.G. Dupre at the halfbacks and Allen Jones at fullback. They formed an explosive package, but after getting upset by Texas the Bears lost their focus. Still ranked No. 9, they went down with a thud to Houston (37-7) and finished the season by losing to Rice, 41-19.

But even as the season fell apart, the Baylor freshman team, quarterbacked by lethal passer Doyle Traylor, was rampaging through its schedule unbeaten and winning praise as the greatest Baylor Cub team in history. When the 1954 season rolled around, the players from that team moved up to augment the varsity, making for another elite Baylor team.

It started with a bang, avenging its 1953 loss to Houston by trouncing the Cougars, 53-13, in its season opener. That truly was a revenge game for the Bears. The year before, Houston millionaire Hugh Roy Cullen had given the Cougars a multi-million-dollar gift for upsetting Baylor, and in 1954 the Bears proved they had not forgotten.

Guided by All-SWC quarterback Billy Hooper and bolstered by All-America tackle Jim Ray Smith, they got up to No. 10 in the AP poll before losing back-to-back road games to Miami (19-13) and Arkansas (21-20), but then they reeled off five victories in a row. After beating conference leader SMU, 33-21, before 47,000 in Dallas, they returned home to take on Rice. A victory over the Owls would give them a share of that elusive crown. They didn't get it. Although Baylor's terrific sophomore back, Del Shofner, got loose on a run that carried to the Rice 6-yard line late in the game, the Bears were unable to cash in. They lost, 20-14, leaving them tied with Rice for third. Their consolation prize: an invitation to play Auburn in the Gator Bowl. And in Jacksonville, Fla., the Tigers of Auburn stomped them, 33-13.

But they had one of their greatest seasons in Baylor history two years later. By then, Sauer had become athletic director only, turning the football reins over to assistant coach Sam Boyd, the 1937-38 Baylor hero. And Boyd's team, blessed with the talent and depth few Baylor teams have ever had, quickly made waves. They won their first four games while surrendering a total of only 13 points, and they were ranked No. 8 in the land when they took on coach Bear Bryant's No. 7-ranked Aggies at Baylor Stadium.

The result was the biggest crowd I personally have ever seen at that stadium. Although the crowd was officially announced as 49,500, the stands were full, both end zones were full, and dozens of fans were standing on the field just beyond the end zone. The result also was a game that was bitterly fought and physical to an extreme. Bryant later said: "The Baylor-A&M game in 1956 was the bloodiest, meanest, most brutal game one of my teams was ever in."

The Aggies, led by future Heisman Trophy winner John David Crow, won the game, 19-13, and Baylor fans left the stadium talking darkly about a controversial call made by one of the officials that overturned the Baylor recovery of an A&M fumble late in the game. Then the next week the Bears, still waiting for their offense to develop, went to Fort Worth and lost to TCU, 7-6.

After that game, their offense came alive. They did not lose again. They mauled Nebraska, 26-7; blanked SMU, 26-0; and just wore out old nemesis Rice, 46-13. Those scores caught the eye of the Sugar Bowl, which invited them to play No. 2-ranked Tennessee on Jan. 1 in New Orleans.

By then, the Bears were truly a powerhouse, featuring the likes of do-it-all back Shofner, quarterbacks Bobby Jones and Buddy Humphrey (Doyle Traylor had become one of Baylor's hard-luck stories of all time, twice losing seasons because of broken bones), ends Jerry Marcontell and Earl Wayne Miller, and such superlative Bears up front as All-America Bill Glass, Clyde Letbetter, Charley Horton and Bill Parsley. But Tennessee had tradition, a perfect record, that No. 2 ranking, and All-America tailback Johnny Majors.

The Volunteers were strongly favored. The Bears won the game, 13-7, Baylor's greatest bowl victory of all time.

Boyd, in his first year at the Baylor football helm, had reached the highest point he would attain. Lacking Shofner's speed and most of that muscle up front, his 1957 team finished in the SWC cellar, and his 1958 team, although exciting because of the power running of fullback Larry Hickman and the throwing of Humphrey (No. 1 nationally in number of completions), finished last again.

John Bridgers, who had been an assistant coach on the staff of the NFL champion Baltimore Colts, was brought in to replace Boyd as head coach and Sauer as athletic director. He brought with him the Baltimore Colt offense, which generated plenty of excitement, pass completions and a strong presence in the headlines, but only near-misses in runs at the SWC championship.

The 1960 team, featuring Ronnie Bull, Ronnie Goodwin, Tommy Minter and Ronnie Stanley in the backfield, beat 1958 national champion LSU in Baton Rouge and eventual SWC champion Arkansas in Fayetteville, and got up to No. 7 in the polls before losing to TCU, 14-6, in Fort Worth, and 12-7 to Texas in Waco. The Bears finished with an 8-2 record, one game behind Arkansas, but then got nosed out again in the Gator Bowl, losing to Florida, 13-12.

Injuries ruined the 1961 team, which had been one of the preseason SWC favorites, but the Bears still made it to the new Gotham Bowl played at the old Polo Grounds in New York City. In that game, they soundly defeated a Merlin Olsen-led Utah State team, 24-9.

The bowl's promoters were novices at such things, and when informed the day before the game that it was customary for a bowl to present the players and coaches involved with some kind of memento — a blanket, a wristwatch or such — they scurried around and came up with a special gift for all concerned: a shoeshine kit.

Baylor's 1963 team would challenge the '61 team as Bridgers' masterpiece. It featured an All-America battery of quarterback Don Trull and wideout Lawrence Elkins, it had an offensive line that provided great pass protection for Trull, and it had an underrated but effective defense. It won five of its first six games and was unbeaten in league play when it went to Austin on Nov. 9 to take on No. 1-ranked, undefeated Texas.

The Longhorns won that game, 7-0, but coach Darrell Royal's team had to withstand a withering Baylor challenge that carried inside the Texas 20 in the final seconds before quarterback Duke Carlisle, left in the lineup for defensive purposes on Baylor's last big drive, dashed across the end zone and intercepted a pass that Elkins all but had in his eager mitts. Such a reception would have left Baylor in position to tie the game and claim priority on going to the Cotton Bowl as the league's co-champion.

Left frustrated in Austin, the Bears won the remainder of their games, accepted an invitation to play LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl, and there they beat the Bengal Tigers more decisively than the 14-7 final score indicated.

Bridgers was never able to get the Bears better than 5-5 during the remainder of his 10-year tenure, but the 1966 season did provide two special highlights. The first came in the Bears' opening game, which was nationally televised on ABC. Meeting a seventh-ranked Syracuse team that was armed with both Floyd Little and Larry Csonka in the backfield, the underdog Bears just romped and stomped. Final score: Baylor 35, Syracuse 12. Also, Baylor became the first school in the nine-member Southwest Conference to play an African-American player in a football game. With 31,000 people in attendance, John Hill Westbrook, a Baylor running back from Elgin, Texas, entered the Syracuse game in the fourth quarter and broke the color barrier in SWC football.

A month later, the Bears went to Fayetteville to take on an Arkansas team that had won back-to-back SWC titles and boasted a long regular season winning streak. But it lost that day. The Bears, led by All-America defensive guard Greg Pipes, shut out the favored Hogs, 7-0.

When Bridgers' contract ran out after the 1968 season, Baylor decided not to renew it. Instead, Bill Beall was brought in from LSU. Beall had been an assistant under Jess Neely at Rice and then Charlie McClendon at LSU, but he was not the answer at Baylor. His teams only won three games in three seasons, and Baylor's decision-makers decided a change had to be made.

By then, a revered name from Baylor's past, Jack Patterson, who had won three SWC track and field championships over a four-year span for the Bears before accepting a similar post at Texas, agreed to return to Baylor as the school's new athletic director. When Beall was fired, Patterson was put in total charge of the hunt to find an acceptable successor. His choice after several disappointments: Grant Teaff, the head coach at Angelo State.

Baylor's choice of Teaff was questioned on several fronts and ridiculed on others. But the scoffing stopped the first year. Teaff coached the tissue-thin Bears to a 5-6 record and won Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors. And his fine defensive end, Roger Goree, won consensus All-America recognition. But when his 1973 team sought to produce a suitable encore, it fell flat. The Bears finished 2-9 and failed to win a single conference game.

So, when 1974 rolled around, Baylor was the popular choice to finish last or next to last again. The team had a young offensive line, a quarterback who had a speech impediment and a tailback who was about 5 feet 7 inches tall. But when the 43-point underdogs went to Norman to open their season against No. 1-ranked Oklahoma, and wound up giving the Sooners about all they could handle (OU led by only a 7-5 score going into the fourth quarter) before losing, 28-11, even Oklahoma coach Barry Switzer came to their dressing room after the game to tell them what a great game they had played.

They let victory slip through their fingers the next week against Missouri, but when they returned to Waco and beat No. 8-ranked Oklahoma State the following Saturday, everyone knew Neal Jeffrey was quite a quarterback, Steve Beaird was a real dynamo at tailback and never mind his short stature, and the Bear defense was for real.

The season became one Baylor fans will never forget. True, they stumbled against Texas A&M in a 20-0 game, but they did not stumble again. After getting behind by 17 points at halftime against No. 12 Texas, against a coach (Darrell Royal) that Baylor had never beaten, and then forging a mighty second-half comeback that produced 27 unanswered points and a resounding 34-24 victory, the Bears put together a Miracle on the Brazos that would not be denied.

When great Baylor football victories are discussed, the Baylor-Texas game of 1974 usually tops the list. Royal came to the Baylor locker room after the game to congratulate the Bears and urge them to go on now and win that long-sought conference crown. And Oklahoma's Switzer sent Teaff a telegram, telling him the rest of the country now was finding out what OU found out in that season opener.

Baylor let the scoreboard lights burn all night after that remarkable victory, and several members of the Baylor administration, along with at least one regent, secured their bedrolls and spent the night at the stadium.

When the Bears beat Rice amid blizzard-like conditions at Baylor Stadium on Nov. 30, they nailed down something no other Baylor team had managed in 50 years: an undisputed SWC football championship.

That feat took them to the Cotton Bowl to play Penn State, and while they lost that game by a 41-20 score (after leading at halftime), Baylor fans hardly noticed. They had finally made it to Big D on New Year's Day, that was all that mattered.

Linebacker Derrel Luce and center Aubrey Schulz won All-America honors that season; Jeffrey, Beaird and defensive back Ron Burns won All-SWC recognition; and Teaff was named National Coach of the Year. The Bears had come from last to first in one short season. And Beaird had become the first Baylor back ever to rush for 1,000 yards (actually, 1,104) in a season.

They had a good season in 1976 (7-3-1) but a bowl invitation escaped them. Although four-touchdown underdogs, they scored the most points any Baylor team had ever scored against UT in 1978 while beating the Longhorns, 38-14.

The next season, they pieced together an 8-4 season that was flavored by a 24-18 Peach Bowl victory over No. 18 Clemson, and then in 1980 they pushed all the right buttons again. They won their first seven games, climbed to No. 10 in the national polls, and after allowing themselves to get upset by San Jose State, they won the remainder of their games to win the conference title by a record-tying three full games.

The key victory was a thrilling comeback win over SMU (32-28) but one that old Baylor fans still like to talk about was the 46-7 trouncing of Texas A&M at College Station in a game that was played in a monsoon.

They actually wound up their regular season by blanking No. 20 Texas, 16-0, and that Nov. 22, 1980, victory was the last shutout suffered by the Texas Longhorns until 2004.

While no Baylor team will ever replace the 1974 Bears in the hearts of Baylor fans, that 1980 team surely ranks No. 1 in terms of pure accomplishment. It not only won the crown by three full games, it led the league in both total offense and total defense and put no fewer than eight players (a record for a Baylor team) on the consensus all-conference team. And it put on the field the player who has become the most decorated player in Baylor's football history: linebacker Mike Singletary.

Singletary joined wideout Lawrence Elkins as the only two-year consensus All-America selections ever to wear the green and gold. They both have been inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame. But Singletary also was a three-year All-SWC choice (Elkins made the honor team two seasons), and he went on to be chosen on the Football Writers' 25-year All-America team (one of only three players to win the honor from the SWC, the other two being offensive lineman Jerry Sisemore of Texas and Tony Franklin of A&M), and to become a multiple All-NFL choice in the NFL while playing with the Chicago Bears. Truly, Mike Singletary was one of a kind.

He was one of those nine Bears who won consensus All-SWC recognition in 1980. The others were offensive guard Frank Ditta (also named All-America), quarterback Jay Jeffrey (younger brother of Neal), running backs Walter Abercrombie and Dennis Gentry, defensive linemen Charles Benson and Joe Campbell, linebacker Doak Field and defensive back Vann McElroy.

Abercrombie, who led the league in rushing that season with 1,187 yards, would become Baylor's all-time leading rusher before winding up his college career the following season and then becoming a first-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Baylor's domination of the league in 1980 paid off in a trip to the Cotton Bowl to play Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide. That game became a defensive struggle for the longest time before the Bears finally cracked and Alabama went home with a 30-2 victory.

The Bears had a good season in 1983 (7-4-1), winning their way to the Bluebonnet Bowl to play Oklahoma State (they lost, 24-14), but that was but a prelude for the excellent teams they fielded in 1985 and 1986. They tied for second both seasons after breaking in front early, and they climaxed both seasons with bowl victories — 21-7 over LSU in the Liberty Bowl in '85 and 21-9 over Colorado in the Bluebonnet the following season.

Those teams also featured some favorite Baylor names starting with quarterbacks Cody Carlson and Tom Muecke. In 1986, on Oct. 18, the Bears met a Jackie Sherrill-coached A&M team in a game that was later voted the SWC's best game of the decade. Baylor roared out to a 17-0 lead in that game, but the No. 11 Aggies came back to have the last word in a 31-30 stem-winder. That verdict knocked the Bears out of the championship and kept them out of the Cotton Bowl.

The Bears struggled to stay on the topside of .500 for the remainder of the decade, but they punctuated a 5-6 season in their final game of the 1980s by going to Austin and beating Texas by the historic margin of 50-7. In doing so, they gave Teaff the victory on UT turf that he had always declared he would win before he ended his Baylor coaching career.

The Bears stirred hopes that they would become something special in 1991, winning their first five games (including a 16-14 victory over defending national champion Colorado on the Buffaloes' own turf in Boulder, ending what had been an impressive CU winning streak there) and rising to No. 8 in the national polls. But then, they lost to Rice and A&M in succession, and later to Texas Tech. The final result was an 8-3 season that yielded a trip to the Copper Bowl, but there they went flat, losing to Indiana, 24-0.

Before the 1992 season started, Teaff let it be known that the coming season would be his last one. And the Bears, sparked by quarterback J.J. Joe, made it a memorable one for him, beating visiting Georgia Tech in an intersectional game, nosing out Texas in their final regular season game and then upsetting No. 22 Arizona, 20-15, in the Sun Bowl.

The Hall of Fame-bound Teaff thus was left with a 128-105-6 mark for his 21 seasons at BU.

His offensive coordinator, Chuck Reedy, succeeded him, and in 1994 coached the Bears to a 7-4 record overall and a 4-3 mark in conference play. The 4-3 mark, oddly enough, proved to be good enough to give the Bears a piece of the five-way split of the championship after A&M, unbeaten but ineligible for title consideration because of rules violations, was left in limbo. The Bears, led by such All-SWC players as tackle Fred Miller on offense and LaCurtis Jones and Adrian Robinson on defense, wound up their season by losing to Washington State, 10-3, in the Alamo Bowl.

Reedy's 1995 team was 7-4 overall and 5-2 in conference play, good enough for a three-way share of second place, but the entire season was overshadowed by a more momentous development. The Southwest Conference was breaking up. Baylor was joining A&M, Texas and Texas Tech in a new league that would be known as the Big 12. Athletic relations going back to the early years of the 20th century were about to be severed.

Reedy's final season at Baylor was the school's first in the Big 12. The Bears were 4-7 that season and posted a 1-7 mark in Big 12 play after opening the year with wins over Louisiana Tech, at Louisville and at home against Oregon State.

Dave Roberts guided the program for the 1997 and 1998 seasons before giving way to Kevin Steele's four-year campaign.

Steele was replaced by Guy Morriss, who guided the program to more success than it had previously enjoyed during the Big 12 era; however, the bowl drought and losing-season streak both continued. Morriss' tenure did not come without highlights, though. In his first Big 12 game, the Bears upset defending north division champion Colorado on national television.

The following season (2004) saw the Bears end a 20-year winless famine against Texas A&M. After a wild fourth quarter, the game went to overtime. Texas A&M quickly scored, but the Bears answered immediately on a Shawn Bell-to-Dominique Zeigler touchdown pass. Morriss decided to put the game away right then and there, going for an all-or-nothing two-point conversion. Bell and Zeigler connected again, giving the Bears the 35-34 victory and sparking a celebration Floyd Casey Stadium had not seen in years.

The Bears enjoyed their best season in a decade in 2005, going 5-6 and posting multiple conference wins for the first time in the Big 12 era. In 2006, Baylor went 3-5 in conference play, but three costly losses in early season non-league games sent Baylor to a 4-8 record. The Bears dropped to 3-9 in 2007 and suffered their first winless conference season since 2003.

Baylor ushered in a new era in 2008 under first-year head coach Art Briles. The Bears finished 4-8 overall and 2-6 in Big 12 play, but promise of a brighter future was evident. Briles' innovative offense and the emergence of Freshman All-America quarterback Robert Griffin III brought new optimism to the program. The Bears lost four games by 10 points or less, including a three-point loss to nationally ranked Missouri and a one-touchdown loss at seventh-ranked Texas Tech.

At season's end, several Bears earned post-season honors, including first-team All-Big 12 selections Jason Smith (offensive tackle), Joe Pawelek (linebacker) and Jordan Lake (safety). Griffin was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year, and Smith earned All-America honors from several outlets. Smith also was selected by the St. Louis Rams with the second overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft, tying for the highest-drafted player in Baylor history regardless of sport.

After a promising start, the 2009 season suffered injury setbacks in the season's first month, including the season-ending loss of superstar quarterback and face-of-the-program Griffin III in the third game (all told, eight different starters missed games in 2009 due to injury). The Bears remained competitive, but a season that began with a road win over ACC power Wake Forest and the team receiving votes in the AP Top 25 poll ended with a 4-8 record. The Bears notched a second impressive road victory in 2009, upsetting Missouri, 40-32, in Columbia.

Year three of the Briles era marked Baylor's return to the postseason landscape in 2010. Baylor entered the 2010 season as owners of the seventh-longest active bowl drought among NCAA Division I FBS schools. It also entered the season with the return of Griffin III, who missed the 2009 season's final nine games with a torn ACL. Baylor opened the season with back-to-back home victories over Sam Houston State and Buffalo. Following a 45-10 setback at eventual Rose Bowl champion TCU in the third week, the Bears returned to the win column with a decisive 30-13 road win at Rice.

With a 3-1 record, Baylor opened Big 12 play at Floyd Casey Stadium against Kansas. Griffin III and the Bears re-wrote the Baylor record book with a record-setting 55-7 win over the Jayhawks. RG3 threw for a then-career-best 380 yards and connected with Josh Gordon, who turned a short pass into a school-record 94-yard TD reception. It was also Baylor's most lopsided conference victory ever.

The following week, Baylor and Texas Tech met in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex — this time at Cotton Bowl Stadium. Griffin III set a new career high with 384 passing yards and four touchdowns, but the Red Raiders held on for a 45-38 victory. Baylor RB Terrance Ganaway became a YouTube sensation after returning a Texas Tech onside kick 38 yards for a score.

In the final meeting as Big 12 rivals, Baylor fended off a late Colorado charge, defeating the Buffaloes, 31-25, in Boulder, pushing the Bears' record to 5-2 overall. Baylor's 47-42 Homecoming victory Oct. 23 against Kansas State marked its sixth win of the season, making the Bears bowl-eligible for the first time since 1995. Once the clock hit 0:00, fans stormed the field in celebration of Baylor snapping its 16-year bowl drought. Following its bowl-eligibility-clinching win, Baylor returned to the Top 25 polls for the first time in more than a decade. Baylor debuted at No. 25 in the AP Top 25 — it's first AP ranking since 1993, while jumping into the ESPN/USA TODAY Top 25 Coaches' poll (No. 24) for the first time since 1995.

The Bears defended their new rankings with a 30-22 win at longtime rival Texas, earning their first win in Austin since 1991.

At 7-2, the Bears closed the regular season with three nationally ranked Big 12 South foes — Oklahoma State, Texas A&M and Oklahoma — and were on the losing side of all three.

On Sunday, Dec. 5, Baylor accepted an invitation to play Illinois in the 2010 Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium in Houston, finally snapping its long bowl drought.

And while it had been a long wait for Baylor to make it back to a bowl game, the Bears were unable to stop Illinois' backfield duo of Mikel Leshoure and Nathan Scheelhasse. Illinois handled the Bears, 38-14, in front of a pro-Baylor crowd at Reliant Stadium. In the loss, though, Jay Finley broke Walter Abercrombie's single-season school rushing record, finishing the 2010 season with 1,218 rushing yards. Griffin III also became Baylor's all-time leading passer, breaking the previous mark held by J.J. Joe.

Two Baylor players — Phil Taylor and Danny Watkins — were drafted in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft, giving the Bears two first-round draft picks for the first time since 1957.

During a historic record-breaking 2011 season, Briles led Baylor to a school-record 10 wins and its highest final ranking (12th) since

PROGRAM HISTORY

1986, earned the school's first bowl victory in 19 years and coached the first Heisman Trophy winner in program history – quarterback Robert Griffin III.

Briles' accomplishments were recognized when he was named a 2011 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award finalist. The Bears finished the 2011 season with a 10-3 record, including a memorable 67-56 Alamo Bowl win over Washington, and ranked 12th (coaches) and 13th (AP) nationally. Baylor's offense set or tied 108 school records and three Bears -- national player of the year RG3, all-time receiving leader Kendall Wright and single-season rushing leader Terrance Ganaway -- earned All-America honors.

The Bears finished 2011 on a six-game winning streak. In that streak, Baylor beat No. 5 Oklahoma for the first time in program history, defeated Texas in back-to-back years for the first time since 1991-92, knocked off Texas Tech for the first time in Big 12 play and pulled off the program's largest comeback ever with a 21-point fourth quarter rally to win in overtime at Kansas.

Briles' powerful offense ranked No. 2 nationally in 2011, averaging 587.1 yards per game, and was the only offensive unit nationally to rank in the top 10 in both passing (fourth, 351.5 ypg) and rushing (10th, 235.6 ypg).

The Bears shattered records at the turnstiles in 2011 as well, as school records for attendance (289,574 in seven games) and average attendance (41,368) were set in 2011. Baylor finished a perfect 7-0 at Floyd Casey Stadium, just the third perfect record in the stadium's history and a school record for home wins in a single season.

For the second-consecutive season, two Baylor players – Griffin III and Wright – were selected in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft. Griffin III, drafted No. 2 overall, and Wright, drafted 21st overall, were among five BU players taken in the draft.

Despite the departure of Griffin III and the four other NFL Draft picks from its record-breaking 2011 squad, the Bears opened 2012 just how they had finished 2011 – winning.

Baylor notched victories in each of its first three contests to rack up the second-longest winning streak in school history at nine. However, the defeats piled up quickly after that as BU fell to 3-4 with four straight losses to open Big 12 play.

From that point, the Bears would win five of their next six games, including a thrashing of No. 1-ranked Kansas State, 52-24, (the school's first-ever win over the nation's top-ranked team) to finish the season 8-5.

Following the win over K-State, Baylor knocked off Texas Tech at Cowboys Stadium, 52-45, in an overtime thriller to become bowl-eligible for a third-straight year.

The Bears took care of Oklahoma State in the final regular-season game to record three-straight years of at least seven wins for the first time since 1949-51. In total, Baylor had won 25 games over the previous three years, which was the most in any three-year stretch in school history.

Playing in a third-consecutive bowl game for the first time in school history, Baylor produced a dominating 49-26 Holiday Bowl win over No. 17 UCLA.

The 2012 Bears finished second nationally in total offense (572.3 ypg), and boasted offensive standouts in QB Nick Florence (second in nation in total offense - 375.2 ypg), unanimous All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist Terrance Williams (led the nation with 1,832 receiving yards) and All-American offensive lineman Cyril Richardson.

Williams was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, giving BU four receivers drafted in four years.

The 2013 season provided a perfect final chapter for Floyd Casey Stadium as the Bears won their first Big 12 championship in their last season at the facility.

Before conference action, Baylor grabbed national headlines with an electrifying offense that powered the Bears to home wins over Wofford (69-3), Buffalo (70-13) and ULM (70-7).

The scoring did not stop once Big 12 play started as the Bears set league and school records for points in a 73-42 win over West Virginia. Next, Baylor took its show on the road and picked up its first-ever win in Manhattan, Kan., with a 35-25 victory vs. Kansas State. Baylor returned to Waco and won a school record seventh-straight Big 12 game, in a 71-7 Homecoming romp over Iowa State, before setting a school record with its 11th-consecutive victory overall in a 59-14 triumph at Kansas.

Facing its first ranked foe of the season, Baylor wowed a crowd of 50,437 at Floyd Casey Stadium by dominating 12th-ranked Oklahoma, 41-12, to start the season 8-0 for the first time in school history.

BU beat Texas Tech for a third-straight year at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, 63-34. Following that game, the Bears achieved their highest AP rank since 1953 of No. 3.

Baylor's school-record marks of 13-straight wins and 10-consecutive Big 12 victories came to an end with a 49-17 setback at No. 10 Oklahoma State in below-freezing temperatures. The Bears rebounded with a 41-38 win at TCU for a school-record tying 10th victory on the season.

In the final game of the regular season and the final game at Floyd Casey Stadium, Baylor took out Texas for the third time in four years, 30-10, to win the Big 12 title outright. With the largest crowd (51,728) in stadium history in attendance, BU set school records for total season attendance (321,639) and season average attendance (45,948).

Baylor finished a perfect 7-0 at Floyd Casey Stadium, just the fourth perfect record in the stadium's history, tying a school record for home wins in a single season. Baylor's all-time record at "The Case" finished at 191-146-5.

The Big 12 title qualified the Bears for a BCS game, the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, for the first time in school history. In its fourth-consecutive bowl appearance, Baylor dropped a 52-42 decision to No. 15 UCF.

The 2013 Bears finished No. 1 nationally in total offense (618.8 ypg), and set an NCAA record with 681 total points in a 13-game season. Individually, a program-best five players earned All-America honors, including S Ahmad Dixon, WR Antwan Goodley, QB Bryce Petty, Richardson and P Spencer Roth.

Dixon and Richardson, along with CB Demetri Goodson, WR Tevin Reese and RB Lache Seastrunk, were selected in May's NFL draft.

After closing down Floyd Casey Stadium in style in 2013, Baylor opened up state-of-the-art McLane Stadium with another Big 12 Conference title in 2014.

In the inaugural game at the $260-million Jewel of the Brazos, Baylor shut out SMU, 45-0, with former president George W. Bush on hand for the ceremonial coin toss.

In two other non-league games, Baylor rolled to wins over Northwestern State (70-6) and at Buffalo (63-21).

From there, BU opened up Big 12 play with road victories at Iowa State (49-28) and Texas (28-7).

The Bears had been ranked No. 10 in the preseason, their first such designation since 1986, and then rose to No. 5 heading into a showdown with No. 9 TCU in Waco – only the second top-10 game in the city's history.

In one of the greatest games in all of college football for 2014, the Bears scored 24-straight points in the final 11 minutes of the game, capped by Chris Callahan's 28-yard field goal as time expired to beat the Horned Frogs, 61-58.

The win pushed Baylor to a 6-0 start for a second-straight season, the first time for that accomplishment in school history.

Despite peaking at No. 4 in the AP poll, the Bears fell in their next game at West Virginia, 41-28.

Baylor returned home to cruise to a Homecoming victory, 60-14, over Kansas as fans striped McLane Stadium in green and gold.

Back out on the road, the Bears posted their first-ever win in Norman, Okla., by blowing past 16th-ranked Oklahoma, 48-14, with BU scoring the final 45 points of the game to snap a 37-game losing streak in road games against ranked opponents.

BU ended conference play on a five-game win streak after taking care of Oklahoma State, 49-28, Texas Tech, 48-46, and Kansas State, 38-27.

In that final game of the regular season against the Wildcats with a Big 12 title on the line, Baylor pleased the largest crowd of the season at McLane Stadium (47,934) by hoisting its second-straight league trophy.

In the first year of the College Football Playoff, the Bears were the final team left out of the four-team tournament, settling instead to play at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl. In its fifth-consecutive bowl appearance, Baylor jumped out to a 41-21 lead, but ultimately fell to No. 7 Michigan State, 42-41, in heartbreaking fashion.

The 2014 Baylor squad finished No. 1 nationally in total offense (581.5 ypg) and scoring (48.2), while tying a school-record with 11 wins and ending the year with a program-high ranking of No. 7 (AP) and No. 8 (coaches).

Individually, a program-best tying five players earned All-America honors, including WR Corey Coleman, OL Spencer Drango, LB Bryce Hager, DE Shawn Oakman and QB Petty.

Hager and Petty were selected in May's NFL draft, giving Baylor the most pro selections in the state of Texas over the last four years (16).

After winning two-straight Big 12 titles, Baylor rolled into the 2015 season with the highest preseason rankings in school history at No. 4 in both the AP Top 25 and Amway Coaches Poll.

The Bears dominated their opening non-conference games, winning at SMU (56-21) and then besting Lamar (66-31) and Rice (70-17).

BU opened up Big 12 play by taking care of Texas Tech for a fifth-straight year, 63-35, at AT&T Stadium in Arlington. Big wins at Kansas (66-7) and against West Virginia (62-38) pushed the Bears up to a program-best No. 2 in both polls heading into a Homecoming contest versus Iowa State.

On a rain-soaked afternoon, Baylor built a 35-0 lead on the Cyclones in the second quarter and cruised to a 45-27 victory, but lost record-setting QB Seth Russell to a season-ending neck injury during the game.

With true freshman QB Jarrett Stidham at the helm, the Bears raced out to a 31-10 lead at Kansas State and then held on for a 31-24 triumph in Manhattan.

The following week, BU suffered its first-ever loss at McLane Stadium to No. 12/11/12 Oklahoma, 44-34. The defeat snapped a nation's-best 20-game home win streak. The Bears bounced back a week later to upset No. 4/4/6 Oklahoma State, 45-35, in Stillwater to halt an 11-game losing streak to the Cowboys on the road. With Stidham sidelined with a season-ending injury in the first half, third-string QB Chris Johnson accounted for three TDs to lead BU to victory.

With the injuries mounting, Baylor went on to lose its final two games of the regular season – first at TCU in double overtime, 28-21, in the midst of a frigid rain storm that limited the Bears to only one completed pass after halftime; and then at home to Texas, 23-17. With Johnson out of the game due to a concussion, the Bears switched to a "Wild Bear" offense in the second half and rallied from a 20-0 deficit to cut the margin to 20-17, but RB Johnny Jefferson's heave at the end of regulation fell short in a 23-17 loss.

Earning a school-record sixth-straight trip to a bowl game, the Bears faced No. 10/11/10 North Carolina in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando, Fla. Playing without Russell, Stidham, leading rusher Shock Linwood and leading receiver Coleman, Baylor rolled to an NCAA bowl-record 645 yards of rushing to upset the Tar Heels, 45-35. Jefferson was named the game's MVP after compiling a school-record 299 yards rushing.

The 2015 Baylor squad finished No. 1 nationally in total offense (616.2 ypg) and scoring (48.1), and ended the year ranked No. 13 by both AP and the coaches.

On the merits of a record-setting year, Coleman won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver after catching 74 passes for 1,363 yards and 20 TDs in 12 games. The 20 TDs were the most in a single season in BU history, third-most in Big 12 history and ninth-most in NCAA history.

Individually, three Bears earned All-America honors, including Coleman, DT Andrew Billings and Outland Trophy finalist Spencer Drango, who was just the sixth two-time All-American in program history.

Billings, Coleman and Drango, along with CB Xavien Howard and LS Jimmy Landes, were all picked in May's NFL draft.

Under interim head coach Jim Grobe, Baylor got off to a 6-0 start in 2016 that included a 35-24 win over Oklahoma State and a 45-42 thriller over Iowa State on the road. That assured the Bears of a program-record seventh-straight bowl berth, with BU closing out a 7-6 season with a 31-12 win over Boise State at the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl at Chase Field in Phoenix, Ariz.

Freshman QB Zach Smith threw for 375 yards and three touchdowns in the bowl game victory, while receiver KD Cannon earned offensive MVP honors with a school bowl-record 14 catches for 226 yards and two touchdowns. Phil Bennett's defense forced three turnovers, recorded three sacks and kept the Broncos (10-3) out of the end zone until the last two minutes of the game.

Cannon, center Kyle Fuller, defensive end K.J. Smith and DB Orion Stewart earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, with Fuller being the Bears' only draft pick, taken by the Houston Texans in the seventh round.

On December 6, 2016, Matt Rhule was hired as the 27th football coach in Baylor history following a stellar four-year run as the coach at Temple University.

After an 0-8 start in 2017 that included four one-score losses, freshman QB Charlie Brewer threw for 315 yards and three touchdowns in his first start, leading the Bears to a 38-9 road win over Kansas. Kansas City native Ishmail Wainright, who was 0-10 against KU in four seasons with the men's basketball team, caught a nine-yard TD pass from Brewer on the tight end's first reception.

While defensive tackle James Lynch was named a Freshman All-American by ESPN, Brewer and sophomore receiver Denzel Mims earned All-Big 12 honors. Mims had 61 catches for 1,087 yards and eight touchdowns to get a spot on the All-Big 12 second team, with Brewer named Co-Offensive Freshman of the Year after completing 68.2% of his passes and throwing for 1,562 yards.

Rhule's second season in Waco went much better, with Baylor tying for fifth in the Big 12 and picking up conference wins over Kansas (26-7), Kansas State (37-34), Oklahoma State (35-31) and Texas Tech (35-24). In the regular-season finale at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Brewer passed for 308 yards and three TDs and rushed for another in the win over the Red Raiders that clinched the Bears' eighth bowl bid in nine years.

Back in the Texas Bowl for the first time since ending its bowl drought in 2010, Baylor capped a 7-6 season with a thrilling 45-38 shootout win over Vanderbilt at NRG Stadium in a game that produced over 1,200 yards total offense.

Throwing for a Texas Bowl-record 384 yards and two touchdowns and adding a career-best 109 yards and one TD on the ground, Brewer earned MVP honors. Making his first start, running back Trestan Ebner had a combined 199 yards rushing and receiving and scored on a 34-yard run and 75-yard pass from Brewer.

One of four Division I transfers who sat out during the 2017 season, senior receiver Jalen Hurd earned Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year honors, hauling in 69 passes for 946 yards and four touchdowns. A third-round draft pick by the San Francisco 49ers, Hurd rushed for 2,638 yards in three seasons as a running back at Tennessee.

Two years removed from a one-win season, the Bears put together a magical 2019 season that goes down as one of the best in program history. Not only did Baylor match the most wins in school history (11-3), the Bears appeared in their first Big 12 Championship game and second-ever Sugar Bowl.

Named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Defensive Lineman of the Year and a unanimous All-American, James Lynch broke the school records with 13.5 sacks for the season and 22.5 for his career. The two-time first-team All-Big 12 pick was also a Hendricks Award finalist, recording 41 total tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss, five pass deflections, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two blocked kicks.

Matching the best start in program history, Baylor won its first nine games in climbing to as high as 10th in the coaches' Top 25. After beating three-straight in-state opponents in non-conference play, the Bears opened league play with a 23-21 win over Iowa State, when John Mayers hit a 38-yard field goal into the wind with 21 seconds left.

Becoming bowl-eligible, BU rolled over Kansas State, 31-12, and pulled out a 33-30 double-OT win over Texas Tech after Charlie Brewer led the Bears to a game-tying field goal on the last play of regulation. JaMyca Hasty ended it with a five-yard TD run in the second overtime period after hauling in an 18-yard catch.

Keeping things rolling, Baylor overcame another fourth-quarter deficit in a rare road win at Oklahoma State (45-27), then Bravvion Roy blocked a potential game-tying field goal that clinched a 17-14 win over West Virginia. It took a career-long 51-yard field goal by Mayers to tie it in regulation, but Mims caught two TD passes in a 29-23, three-OT win at TCU that stretched Baylor's winning streak to 11 games.

BU's fourth-quarter magic finally ran out in a 34-31 loss to the eighth-ranked Oklahoma Sooners, who trailed by three touchdowns at halftime. The Bears got a rematch in the Big 12 Championship three weeks later, but came up short again in a 30-23 overtime loss to OU with a potential spot in the College Football Playoffs on the line.

A valiant second-half comeback wasn't enough against fifth-ranked Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, with Baylor falling to the Bulldogs, 26-14. Before getting knocked out of the game with 8:52 left, Brewer threw for 211 yards and one touchdown and added a third-quarter TD run that at least gave the Bears a chance.

In addition to Lynch, DB Grayland Arnold was named a second-team All-American by Sports Illustrated and Rhule was the Big 12 and AFCA region coach of the year. Earning first-team all-league honors were Lynch, Roy, Mims and offensive tackle Sam Tecklenburg.

A total of 14 players were drafted or signed free-agent contracts, with Mims (2nd round, New York Jets), Lynch (4th round, Minnesota Vikings), Roy (6th round, Carolina Panthers) and linebacker Clay Johnston (7th round, Los Angeles Rams) giving the Bears multiple draft picks for the seventh time in 11 years.

Following the 2019 season, Rhule departed for the NFL as head coach for the Carolina Panthers and took the bulk of his staff with him, including offensive coordinator Jeff Nixon and defensive coordinator Phil Snow.

Fresh off winning a National Championship as defensive coordinator at LSU, Dave Aranda was hired as the program's 28th head football coach on Jan. 16, 2020. Considered one of the top defensive minds in the game, Aranda had also served as the DC at Wisconsin, Utah State, Hawaii and Delta State in a 24-year college coaching career that began at California Lutheran.

"Dave is a special person who loves football and his student-athletes, is highly intellectual and is a great mission fit for both Baylor Athletics and the University at large," Baylor VP and Director of Athletics Mack B. Rhoades IV said.

In one of the most difficult scenarios a first-year head coach has ever faced, Aranda didn't even have a spring training or summer offseason program because of the COVID-19 pandemic and had to do most of his preseason planning virtually. The Bears went through multiple virus-related stoppages and finished 2-7 in a conference-only schedule that included wins over Kansas (47-14) and K-State (32-31).

A second-team All-American as a kick returner, Trestan Ebner became the first player in the 25-year history of the Big 12 to score touchdowns on a run, a reception and a return in the same game, returning two kickoffs for TDs in the blowout win over Kansas. Charlie Brewer, the "Cardiac Kid," led three fourth-quarter scoring drives and twice brought the Bears back from nine-point deficits to beat KSU on John Mayers' 30-yard field goal as time expired.

Ebner and safety Jalen Pitre earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, while Arkansas State transfer defensive end William Bradley-King was selected in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Football Team.

Year 2 of the Dave Aranda era will go down as the best in school history and one of the biggest one-year turnarounds in the long history of college football. The Bears (12-2) had the most single-season wins in school history, captured their third Big 12 title in nine years and won a New Year's Day bowl game for the first time in 65 years.

The feel-good story of Jalen Pitre, the lone Baylor commitment when Matt Rhule was hired in December 2016, became a much bigger story in 2021. Playing the hybrid safety/linebacker STAR position, Pitre was a consensus All-American and Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, recording 18.0 tackles for loss, 76 total tackles, three sacks, two interceptions and three fumble recoveries.

Arguably, though, the biggest difference was the offense's improvement under first-year coordinator Jeff Grimes. A balanced attack averaged 219.3 yards rushing (10th nationally) and 203.4 yards passing per game while allowing just 18 sacks in 14 games behind an experienced O-line that added grad transfers Jacob Gall and Grant Miller.

In its first real test of the year, Baylor knocked off a ranked opponent for the first time in almost six years, holding off 14th-ranked Iowa State, 31-29, at McLane Stadium. Trestan Ebner scored on a 98-yard kickoff return, set up another score with a 41-yard punt return and sealed the deal when he recovered an onside kick with 24 seconds left.

Oklahoma State handed BU its first loss of the season (24-14), but the Bears bounced back with wins over West Virginia (45-20), 19th-ranked BYU (38-24) and Texas (31-24) to go into the final month at 7-1 overall and 4-1 in conference. After stumbling in a 30-28 road loss at TCU, Baylor wouldn't lose again, closing the regular season with wins over No. 4 Oklahoma (27-14), Kansas State (20-10) and Texas Tech (27-24).

Back in the Big 12 Championship game for the second time in three years, the Bears made the most of their second chance. Baylor's defense intercepted All-Big 12 quarterback Spencer Sanders four times and came up with the defining play of the season, when former walk-on safety Jairon McVea stopped OSU running back Dezmon Jackson inches short of the goal line to preserve a 21-16 win. Redshirt freshman QB Blake Shapen completed his first 17 passes in earning Most Outstanding Player honors.

That salty defense was up to the task again versus No. 6 Ole Miss, recording a Sugar Bowl-record 10 sacks, scoring on a 96-yard interception return by Al Walcott and getting two picks by safety JT Woods in a 21-7 win to become the first Baylor team in school history to win 12 games.

While the offense sputtered most of the night, converted linebacker Abram Smith rushed for 172 yards on 25 carries and shattered Terrance Ganaway's single-season record with 1,601 yards rushing. Sidelined by a hamstring injury in the previous two games, junior QB Gerry Bohanon tossed a two-yard TD pass to Tyquan Thornton that gave the Bears a two-touchdown lead midway through the fourth quarter.

A finalist for National Coach of the Year, Aranda was named Big 12 Coach of the Year by the Associated Press. Pitre (Defensive POY), Ebner (Special Teams POY), Connor Galvin (Offensive Lineman of the Year) and sophomore nose tackle Siaki Ika (Defensive Newcomer of the Year) picked up individual honors from the league's coaches and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors along with linebacker Terrel Bernard.

Tying the program record for a seven-round draft, Baylor had six players picked in the 2022 NFL Draft. After a busy second day that saw Pitre (Houston Texans) and Thornton (New England Patriots) taken in the second round and Woods (L.A. Chargers) and Bernard (Buffalo Bills) picked in the third round, Ebner got selected in the sixth round by the Chicago Bears and the Bills took cornerback Kalon "Boogie" Barnes in the seventh.

Unable to match that magical 2021 season, the Bears had tough road losses early in '22 at BYU and West Virginia and fell on the last play of the game, 29-28, to a TCU team that eventually played for the national championship.

The highlights of a 6-7 season were back-to-back road wins over Texas Tech and Oklahoma to become bowl-eligible for the 11th time in 13 seasons. Baylor's defense came up big with five interceptions in the 45-17 victory over Texas Tech and former BU assistant Joey McGuire, then Craig "Squirrel" Williams rushed for a career-best 192 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries to beat OU on the road, 38-35, for just the second time in program history.

Making its second-straight bowl appearance under Dave Aranda, Baylor ended the season with a 30-15 loss to Air Force in a frigid Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth.

A first-team All-Big 12 pick and third-team All-American, defensive lineman Siaki Ika was drafted in the third round by the Cleveland Browns. Richard Reese rushed for a freshman school-record 972 yards and was named Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year, while Dillon Doyle earned second-team all-league honors at fullback and linebacker and was named a first-team Academic All-American.

The Bears posted a 3-9 season in 2023 while playing one of the youngest rosters in college football. The season was highlighted by a 28-point comeback win at UCF, with the Knights playing their first game as Big 12 members. BU rallied from down 35-7 in the second half to post a 36-35 win in Orlando.

*Defeated Oklahoma State 21-16 in Big 12 Championship Game

ALL-TIME RESULTS

NOTE: The rankings indicated from 1936 through 2015 in all instances are at game time, based on The Associated Press poll. Baylor's ranking is listed first, the opponent's ranking second. Early season games from 1936 through 1949 have no dash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and again from 1968 until 1988, the AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10 and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, was Football Rankings, College Teams in The Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C., McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

BOWL HISTORY

1949 DIXIE BOWL

BAYLOR 20, WAKE FOREST 7

Jan. 1, 1949 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

Coach Bob Woodruff’s Baylor Bears won the first bowl appearance in the school’s history by defeating Wake Forest 20-7 in the second and final Dixie Bowl.

Wake Forest, although gaining 277 total yards compared to Baylor’s 212, fell behind 20-0 at halftime to the upstart Bears and could never seriously threaten the 6-3-2 victors. Bear defender George Sims recorded the game’s first turnover when he intercepted a Wake Forest pass on its first possession and returned it 52 yards to the Deacons’ eight-yard line.

Sammie Pierce, who averaged 13.1 yards a carry against the 6-3 Deacons, scored the first touchdown from a yard out and Jerry Mangrum scored from the same distance in the second quarter to give Baylor a 13-0 lead. The Bears increased the margin to 20-0 off a 68-yard drive, highlighted by Pierce’s 40-yard romp. Quarterback Ray Painter passed the final 12 yards to Harold Riley for the score. Hank Dickerson added his second PAT for the day.

All-American QB Adrian Burk completed five passes for 69 yards, with two completions going to Riley.

1952 ORANGE BOWL

NO. 5 GEORGIA TECH 17, NO. 9 BAYLOR 14

Jan. 1, 1952 • Orange Bowl Stadium • Miami, Fla.

Pepper Rodgers kicked a 22-yard field goal with three minutes remaining to give No. 5 Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over No. 9 Baylor in the Orange Bowl.

Tech scored 10 fourth quarter points on Rodgers’ effort and a Buck Martin touchdown reception, while holding Baylor scoreless to nip the 8-2-1 Bears. BU fullback Dick Parma scored the game’s first touchdown from a yard out.

After Tech knotted the score at seven, Baylor drove 63 yards, capped by Jerry Coody’s five-yard scoring blast, to give the Bears a 14-7 halftime margin. Coody was the team’s leading ground gainer during the regular season, picking up 570 yards on 125 carries.

But coach Bobby Dodd’s Tech squad used Rodgers’ and Martin’s last quarter heroics to take its comeback win.

The Orange Bowl loss was Baylor’s second of the 1951 season. Parma was the contest’s top ground gainer with 107 yards on 19 attempts.

BOWL HISTORY

1954 GATOR BOWL

NO. 13 AUBURN 33, NO. 18 BAYLOR 13

Dec. 31, 1954 • Fairfield Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

Thirteenth-ranked Auburn scored five of the first six times it touched the football on its way to a 33-13 thrashing of No. 18 Baylor in the 1954 Gator Bowl.

The Tigers, who established three Gator Bowl records and tied another in the rout, outgained Baylor 476 to 239 in total yardage.

Baylor all-conference halfback Del Shofner fumbled the opening kickoff and the Tigers recovered on the BU 27-yard line. Five plays later, Auburn scored the game's first touchdown and led 7-0. Baylor tied the game by driving 63 yards in nine plays, the majority coming off a Billy Hooper pass to Charles Smith. Fullback Reuben Saage scored from a yard out and Smith kicked the conversion to tie the game at seven.

But before Baylor scored again, Auburn led 27-7. Fob James' 43-yard run broke a 7-7 tie and gave Auburn the lead for good with 9:20 left in the second quarter and Bobby Freeman tossed a six-yard scoring strike to Jimmy Long to push the Tigers' halftime advantage to 21-7. Joe Childress, the game's leading rusher with 134 yards, scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run on AU's first drive of the second half to make the score 27-7 with 7:13 left.

Baylor All-America halfback L. G. Dupre butted his way for a 38-yard scoring play to cut the Tigers' lead to 27-13 with 4:25 to play in the third period. Dupre, the Bears' third leading rusher during the regular season, finished as his team's top rusher against the Tigers with 69 yards. Freeman completed the scoring with a five-yard third quarter run Hooper, an all-conference honoree, finished with nine completions in 15 attempts for 112 yards.

1957 SUGAR BOWL

NO. 11 BAYLOR 13, NO. 2 TENNESSEE 7

Jan. 1, 1957 • Tulane Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Reuben Saage recovered Tennessee All-America halfback Johnny Majors' fumble of a Del Shofner punt and No. 11 Baylor then drove 15 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bears' 13-7 upset over the undefeated and second-ranked Volunteers in the 23rd annual Sugar Bowl.

Bear quarterback Buddy Humphrey scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak and Don Berry added the conversion for coach Sam Boyd's 9-2 Bears. Baylor scored first, despite being a one-touchdown underdog, when quarterback Bobby Jones threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Jerry Marcontell in the second quarter. But Majors, who averaged 5.1 yards per rush, while completing better than 60 percent of his passes and punting for a 42.3 yard average during the regular season, gave the Volunteers the lead in the third quarter by reaching pay dirt from a yard out. Sammy Burklow added the PAT and Tennessee led 7-6.

After the Volunteers held Baylor on its first fourth quarter possession, Shofner punted to the Tennessee eight. Majors returned the kick seven yards before coughing up the pigskin and Saage was there to make the big play for Baylor.

Shofner, running behind an offensive line headlined by All-American Bill Glass, finished with 88 rushing yards on 14 carries and also intercepted a Volunteer pass. For his play, Shofner, who scored 10 touchdowns during the regular season, was voted the game's outstanding player. Bobby Peters contributed 60 yards rushing and 54 yards in kickoff returns for Baylor while Saage added 39 rushing yards. Bear quarterbacks Humphrey, Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor could only complete three passes, all going to end Marcontell.

1960 GATOR BOWL

NO. 18 FLORIDA 13, NO. 12 BAYLOR 12

Dec. 31, 1960 • Fairfield Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

Coach John Bridgers' pro-modeled Spread-T Baylor offense could muster only two touchdowns against a swarming Florida defense as the No. 18 Gators took a 13-12 decision in the 16th annual Gator Bowl.

On the Bears' first second quarter possession, a pitchout from quarterback Ronnie Stanley to All-America halfback Ronnie Bull was mishandled and Florida's Chet Collins recovered on the Baylor 20-yard line.

It took the Gators five plays to score and fullback Don Goodman plunged the final three yards for the tally. Bill Cash added the conversion and Florida led 7-0 with 8:42 remaining in the half. Coach Ray Graves' squad extended its lead to 13-0 later in the same stanza when Gator defender Ronnie Slack recovered a Stanley fumble in the end zone for a quick six points. Florida traveled 20 yards for its two scores while Baylor went 139 yards for the same results. Down 13-0 in the fourth quarter, the No. 12 Bears, who finished 8-3, put forth a furious surge that resulted in 12 points.

On the first play of the quarter, quarterback Bobby Play threw 11 yards to Ronnie Goodwin for the score, which capped a 71-yard, nine-play drive. With 1:01 remaining, Ply, who threw four touchdowns during the regular season, and Stanley put the Bears in position to score with three completed passes. Bull, Baylor's leading rusher and scorer, went the final three yards for the score. But, the two-point conversion attempt from Ply to Goodwin was juggled and dropped and the Gators had their hard-earned victory.

Ply established a new Gator Bowl record with 13 completions and teamed up with Goodwin (seven receptions) for five.

BOWL HISTORY

1961 GOTHAM BOWL

BAYLOR 24, NO. 10 UTAH STATE 9

Dec. 9, 1961 • The Polo Grounds • New York, N.Y.

Eight Utah State turnovers and outstanding performances by halfback Ronnie Bull and sophomore quarterback Don Trull led Baylor to a 24-9 victory over Utah State in the inaugural Gotham Bowl at the historic Polo Grounds.

Baylor recovered its first of five Utah State fumbles and went 45 yards to score the first time it had the ball. Bull, who had 86 all-purpose yards and was voted the game's Most Valuable Player, scooted 14 yards for the initial Bear touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carl Choate kicked a 22-yard field goal for Baylor and Trull added the third score on a quarterback sneak covering two yards. Trull, who passed for 116 yards against the nation's number two defensive unit, connected with Ted Plumb for a 38-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass to end Baylor's scoring.

Choate was perfect in three extra point tries and Bull and Plumb combined for seven pass receptions. Utah State, which entered the game with a 9-0-1 mark and a share of the Skyline Conference championship, was favored to beat coach John Bridgers' Bears, who finished with a 5-5 regular season slate.

Coached by John Ralston, the Aggies featured three standouts who later starred in professional football: All-America tackle Merlin Olsen, quarterback Bill Munson and place-kicker Jim Turner.

Many observers felt the game's highlight came at halftime when the New York City Sanitation Department Band performed in a driving snowstorm. As a souvenir of their trip to New York City, members of both teams were given shoe shine kits.

1963 BLUEBONNET BOWL

BAYLOR 14, LSU 7

Dec. 31, 1963 • Rice Stadium • Houston, Texas

The fifth annual Bluebonnet Bowl at Rice Stadium saw Baylor All-America quarterback Don Trull finish his collegiate career in grand style in the Bears' 14-7 win over LSU.

Trull, voted the game's most outstanding back, completed 26 of 37 passes for 255 yards and both Baylor touchdowns. End James Ingram, the contest's most outstanding lineman, caught 11 of Trull's passes for 163 yards and seven- and 13-yard scoring strikes. The Bears totally dominated their opponent, running 79 plays to LSU's 37 and racking up 385 total yards compared to the Tigers' 108.

Dalton Hoffman was the leading rusher for both teams, gaining 70 yards for Baylor, which ended its season 8-3. Tom Davies kicked both Baylor conversions.

The Tigers scored first, moving 43 yards in seven plays in the first quarter. Bill Soefker went the final eight steps for LSU and the Tigers led 7-0.

Baylor scored its first touchdown with 13:10 remaining as Trull hit Ingram for the seven-yard strike. The Bears moved 68 yards in 10 plays for the score with Trull completing three passes. On their next possession, the Bears drove 70 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Four completed Trull attempts, two each to Lawrence Elkins and Ingram, highlighted the scoring march.

Baylor, which lost to Oregon State, Texas and Kentucky during the regular season, was led during the year by All-Americans Trull and Elkins, all-conference tackle Bobby Crenshaw and top rusher Hoffman.

1975 COTTON BOWL

NO. 7 PENN STATE 41, NO. 12 BAYLOR 20

Jan. 1, 1975 • Cotton Bowl Stadium • Dallas, Texas

Quarterback Tom Shuman established Cotton Bowl records in passing and total offense and flanker Jimmy Cefalo did likewise in receiving yards in No. 7 Penn State's 41-20 decision over No. 12 Baylor.

For the fifth time in their 10-victory 1974 season, the Lions came from behind to win. The victory spoiled Baylor's first appearance in the storied Dallas event, coming on the heels of the school's first Southwest Conference championship since 1924.

Baylor captured a 7-0 first quarter lead on Steve Beaird's four-yard blast with 41 seconds remaining in the opening period. A Matt Bahr 25-yard field goal closed the Bears' lead to 7-3 at intermission. After the Nittany Lions took their first lead off Tom Donchez' one-yard run, all-conference quarterback Neal Jeffrey put Baylor ahead 14-10 with a 35-yard scoring toss to end Ricky Thompson. Three touchdowns, two by Cefalo and one by Shuman, and another Bahr field goal gave Penn State a 34-14 lead with 3:32 remaining. But the Bears, who finished 8-4 for the year, refused to fold and with 14 seconds left reserve quarterback Mark Jackson teamed with Thompson for a 11-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, David Hicks attempted an onside kick only to watch the Lions' Joe Jackson scoop up the loose pigskin and race 50 yards for another Penn State score with two seconds left. Baylor junior safety Ken Quesenberry, who had 12 tackles and one interception, was named the game's Most Outstanding Defensive Player.

1979 PEACH BOWL

NO. 19 BAYLOR 24, NO. 18 CLEMSON 18

Dec. 31, 1979 • Fulton County Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Quarterbacks Mike Brannan and Mickey Elam passed for 86 yards each to spark the 19th-rated Baylor Bears to a 24-18 upset win over the 17th-ranked Clemson Tigers in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

The victory vaulted coach Grant Teaff's Bears into 14th place in The Associated Press' final college football poll. The 8-4 Bruins were beaten during the regular season by Alabama, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, all of whom were ranked in the top 10 at kickoff.

With the Tigers leading 7-0, Brannan teamed with Bo Taylor on a three-yard touchdown toss to knot the score following Robert Bledsoe's extra point. The tally came eight plays after Baylor recorded its first of two blocked punts against Clemson kicker David Sims. The Bears forged ahead 14-7 with 12:20 left in the second quarter when Brannan, voted the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, connected with Robert Holt for a 24-yard scoring strike.

Baylor's final 10 points resulted from a Bledsoe 29-yard field goal and a scoring pass from Elam to Raymond Cockrell that covered seven yards. Senior defensive end Andrew Melontree, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player and linebackers Doak Field and All-American Mike Singletary led a Baylor defense that held an 8-3 Clemson offensive unit to 67 yards rushing.

Elam and tailback Walter Abercrombie set a Baylor bowl record when the duo teamed for a 63-yard pass completion in the third quarter to set up Bledsoe's field goal.

1981 COTTON BOWL

NO. 9 ALABAMA 30, NO. 6 BAYLOR 2

Jan. 1, 1981 • Cotton Bowl Stadium • Dallas, Texas

Paul "Bear" Bryant's No. 9 Alabama Crimson Tide completely dominated No. 6 Baylor in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl en route to a 30-2 rout of the Southwest Conference champions.

The Bears, ranked as high as sixth nationally during the regular season, closed an outstanding 10-2 and Southwest Conference championship campaign by dropping their second Cotton Bowl game in as many tries.

Alabama, which closed a 10-2 year with the win, took advantage of four Baylor fumbles and also intercepted three Bear passes to roll up a 339-158 total yardage advantage.

Three Peter Kim field goals and scoring runs by Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard while a Tommy Tabor first quarter safety were the only points the Bears could muster. The league-leading Baylor offense netted 54 yards rushing, 18 by quarterback Jay Jeffrey. SWC rushing champion Walter Abercrombie was held to nine yards on eight attempts by a stout Alabama defense.

Fullback Dennis Gentry was the leading pass receiver in the game, grabbing five receptions while Robert Holt added three others. Also, Gerald McNeil accumulated 100 yards in kickoff and punt returns for the Bears. Tabor and all-conference linebacker Doak Field led the Baylor defensive charge with 15 stops each. All-America middle linebacker Mike Singletary, all-league safety Vann McElroy and linebacker Lester Ward each had 12 tackles for Baylor.

1983 BLUEBONNET BOWL

OKLAHOMA STATE 24, NO. 20 BAYLOR 14

Dec. 31, 1983 • the Astrodome • Houston, Texas

Oklahoma State raced to a 21-0 lead in the first half before finally holding off No. 20 Baylor, 24-14 in the 25th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at the Astrodome.

Aided by a roughing-the-passer call and fine running by Alfred Anderson and Broderick Sargent, Baylor drove 87 yards in eight plays for its first score. Cody Carlson hit All-American Gerald McNeil with a 12-yard TD strike.

Oklahoma State scored its final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Larry Roach after Jim Mueller's onside kick attempt failed. The Cowboys drove from midfield to Baylor's 27-yard line before settling for the field goal with 16 seconds left in the half.

OSU signal caller Rusty Hilger missed the second half after being knocked off by BU linebacker Robert Watters and was replaced by reserve Ike Jackson. Jackson moved OSU to the Baylor five early in the third quarter but Thomas Everett, Aaron Grant and Kevin Hancock led one of BU's best defensive stands of the year. Roach's field goal attempt was blocked by Ervin Randle.

Both of Baylor's interceptions came in the last period; Tom Muecke and Cody Carlson threw one each as the Bears hurried to catch up. McNeil took a 28-yard halfback option pass from Anderson and Marty Jimmerson kicked the PAT to cut OSU's lead to 10 with 5:07 remaining. Baylor's hopes were dashed for good when Muecke was trapped for a loss of five on fourth down with 1:10 remaining at the OSU 45.

1985 LIBERTY BOWL

BAYLOR 21, LSU 7

Dec. 27, 1985 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Baylor fashioned one of its finest bowl efforts ever in beating LSU 21-7 in the 27th Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

The Bears dominated virtually every phase of the game. They gained 489 yards total offense to the Tigers' 192. Baylor led in first downs (26-9), rushing yards (215-91), passing yards (274-101), yards per snap (5.4-3.3) and time of possession (37:14-22:46). The Baylor defense played so well the second half that LSU gained only 72 yards on 26 plays. In the third quarter the Tigers had 11 total-offense yards on nine plays.

LSU got on the board first with a 79-yard Norman Jefferson punt return with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and that turned out to be the Tigers only fireworks of the cool, clear evening.

The Bears took the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards in seven plays to knot the score at seven. On a third and goal from the five, quarterback Cody Carlson hit a diving Matt Clark in the corner of the end zone. Terry Syler added the extra point.

Syler made it 10-7 with his 23-yard field goal with 5:36 left in the first half and upped the score to 13-7 with a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Baylor's final tally came when Carlson connected with John Simpson on a 15-yard scoring strike with 10:42 left to play. The junior quarterback, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, then hit Clark for a two-point conversion, making the final score 21-7.

1986 BLUEBONNET BOWL

NO. 14 BAYLOR 21, COLORADO 9

Dec. 31, 1986 • Rice Stadium • Houston, Texas

No. 14 Baylor's defense, led by MVP Ray Berry, stymied Colorado's wishbone offense to key a 21-9 Bear win in the 28th annual Bluebonnet Bowl. The Bears limited the Big Eight runner-up Buffs to 194 total yards, 83 of which came on the ground. Berry, called a "one man wrecking crew" by sportswriters after the game, accounted for 12 tackles, three of which resulted in 12 yards in losses.

Colorado found out early what kind of day it would be for the Baylor defense. The Buffs managed only a field goal and 77 yards total offense in their first eight possessions through nearly three quarters of play. Meanwhile, Baylor's offense did what it had to do, scoring a touchdown in each of those first three quarters. The first Bear TD capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive by a CU offside penalty when Baylor was in punt formation. The highlight was a 22-yard run off tackle by Derrick McAdoo down to the Colorado five. Four plays later, McAdoo, a senior from Houston, dove over from the one on a fourth-down play.

Baylor next hit pay dirt midway through the second stanza. It took only three plays to go eight yards after Keith Rose recovered an errant Colorado pitch.

QB Cody Carlson hit flanker Darnell Chase in the corner of the end zone on a two-yard scoring strike. Another turnover gobbled up by the BU defense set up Baylor's final score. Robert Watters sacked the Buff QB and Berry recovered on the 21. It took only four plays, one of which was a 17-yard shot from Carlson to Matt Clark, before McAdoo tied the BU school record with two TDs in a bowl game.

1991 COPPER BOWL

Dec. 31, 1991 • Arizona Stadium • Tucson, Ariz.

Baylor watched two golden scoring opportunities slip through its hands while Indiana used a patient and balanced attack to grind out a 24-0 victory over the Bears in Copper Bowl III at Tucson, Ariz.

Indiana jumped to a 7-0 lead, largely on the rushing of All-American Vaughn Dunbar, who finished with 106 yards and the game's MVP honor. Late in the first quarter the Bears were driving nicely before the drive stalled at the Hoosier 21.

Lining up in field goal formation, Baylor opted for a fake pass from holder Kent Brentham to kicker Jeff Ireland. Ireland was totally uncovered on a pattern for the end zone, but the pass scraped off his fingertips.

That mishap seemed to set the tone for Baylor's 14th bowl game and first west of Waco. IU added a field goal after a long drive late in the first and just when it seemed like Baylor had a chance to regroup, the Hoosiers got the ball back with 2:37 remaining in the half and drove 80 yards in 10 plays to go up 17-0 at intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive struggle until the Bears drove from their 22 to the IU six. Then, with BU having a chance to get back into the game, Robert Strait fumbled into the end zone after he and quarterback J.J. Joe never connected on a handoff.

The Hoosiers added another score to make it 24-0 at the end. Their final scoring march covered 60 yards in 12 plays and consumed 6:48. IU led in virtually every statistical category.

1992 JOHN HANCOCK BOWL

BAYLOR 20, NO. 22 ARIZONA 15

Dec. 31, 1992 • Sun Bowl Stadium • El Paso, Texas

The Grant Teaff era at Baylor ended in grand style as the Bears used big plays to hold off No. 22 Arizona 20-15 in the 1992 John Hancock Bowl. The Wildcats, who brought perhaps the nation's best defense into the game, outgained the Bears 418 yards to 249, but BU had TD passes of 61 and 69 yards and the defense had a brilliant goal line stand and twice held UA to field goals.

UA jumped to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Steve McLaughlin had to settle for a 22-yard field goal after Baylor's defense stopped five plays inside the Baylor six and George Malauulu scored on a quarterback draw from seven yards out. Baylor struck near the end of the half with a halfback pass from freshman Brandell Jackson to Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard TD with 2:37 to go. UA came back quickly to reach the BU two, but again the defense stiffened and allowed only a field goal.

It had been mostly Arizona through two quarters, but Baylor grabbed the lead for good on just the second play of the third quarter when quarterback J.J. Joe hit Bonner for a 69-yard scoring toss. The rest of the way rains became heavier and the contest turned into a defensive battle. The day's highlight came when Arizona moved the ball to the Baylor eight only to be stopped at the one after four attempts.

BU managed two field goals in the fourth quarter, a 32-yarder and 35-yarder, both by Trey Weir, and UA scored when the Bears took an intentional safety.

1994 ALAMO BOWL

WASHINGTON STATE 10, BAYLOR 3

Dec. 31, 1994 • The Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas

The second annual Alamo Bowl more than lived up to its billing as a match-up between Washington State's nationally-ranked defense and Baylor's high-scoring offense. In the end, the Cougar defense prevailed in a 10-3 thriller that wasn't decided until 30 seconds remained.

The Cougars scored the first time they got the ball and it proved to be the game's only TD. WSU went 91 yards in 13 plays as Kevin Hicks scored on a one-yard plunge up the middle. Baylor appeared to have stopped the drive after holding WSU on three quick downs, but a roughing the kicker call allowed Wazzu to retain possession.

WSU entered the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, and played as expected. The Bear defenders more than held their own after allowing the early touchdown. With both defenses playing well, it turned into a game of field position and field goals. The next two drives by each team ended in punts. After taking the second punt the Bears drove down to the WSU 28 and attempted a 44-yard Jarvis Van Dyke FG which fell short. Baylor's next possession ended in the same result as a 47-yarder missed the mark. WSU ended the half with a 37-yard field goal by Tony Truant to go up 10-0.

The second half unfolded with more strong defensive football. Two more third quarter drives by each squad ended up in punts. Finally, with the final stanza about to get underway, the Bears got on the scoreboard. After Nikia Codie blocked a punt which landed at the Bear 25, Van Dyke hit a 36-yard field goal on a 13-play, 56-yard drive. With 3:57 left BU got the ball on the WSU 45. Three plays netted only a yard. Facing fourth-and-9, Watson then hit a diving Kalief Muhammad on a 33-yard pass to the 11. Three more plays lost a couple of yards.

On fourth down with 30 seconds left Watson's pass into the end zone was intercepted by Todd Jensen as WSU sealed the win.

2010 TEXAS BOWL

ILLINOIS 38, BAYLOR 14

Dec. 29, 2010 • Reliant stadium • Houston, Texas

Mikel Leshoure ran for 184 yards and three touchdowns as Illinois earned its first bowl victory since 1999, beating Baylor 38-14 in the Texas Bowl. The Illini spoiled the Bears' first bowl appearance in 16 seasons. Both teams finished at 7-6.

Leshoure had a 5-yard TD run in the second quarter, a 13-yard score in the third quarter and another 5-yard touchdown run in the fourth period. The performance gave him the school single-season rushing record with 1,697 yards.

The Illini built a 24-0 lead and Leshoure's last touchdown put the game out of reach.

Baylor's Robert Griffin III threw for 313 yards and a touchdown, but his two fumbles in the first half put the Bears behind.

Leshoure was chosen the most valuable player and wore a cowboy hat as he hoisted the trophy above his head after the game while the small but vocal group of Illinois fans cheered.

The Bears cut the lead to 24-14 when Griffin found a diving Kendall Wright on a 39-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-14 early in the fourth quarter. But Illinois continued its dominance in the rushing game after that and extended its lead to 31-14 on Leshoure's last touchdown.

Illinois quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase got off to a sensational start, completing all of his 13 passes in the first half, and finished 18 of 23 for 242 yards. He scored on a 55-yard touchdown run with 41 seconds to play to make it 38-14.

BOWL HISTORY

2011 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

NO. 15 BAYLOR 67, WASHINGTON 56

Dec. 29, 2011 • Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas

A thrilling, back-and-forth, record-shattering Valero Alamo Bowl ended with Baylor pulling out an incredible 67-56 victory over Washington in the wildest shootout of the 2011 bowl season or any other in memory.

Heisman Trophy winner Robert Griffin III didn't dominate in his last college game – Baylor's rushing game did.

The game shattered the previous bowl record for points in a regulation game, which was 102 set in the 2001 GMAC Bowl between Marshall and East Carolina.

Baylor, which won its first bowl game since 1992, and Washington also set a bowl record for total offense in a game with 1,397 yards.

Baylor's Terrance Ganaway rushed for 200 yards and five touchdowns. His last was a 43-yard run with 2:28 left to seal Baylor's first 10-win season since 1980. Ganaway was awarded the offensive MVP honors for his efforts, while linebacker Elliot Coffey, who totaled 15 tackles, was named defensive MVP.

Griffin was 24 of 33 for 295 yards -- and his only touchdown throw came on the game's opening drive.

The announced attendance of 65,256 was the fifth-largest in the bowl's history.

2012 BRIDGEPOINT HOLIDAY BOWL

BAYLOR 49, NO. 17 UCLA 26

Dec. 27, 2012 • Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego, Calif.

By early in the second quarter, Baylor was well on its way to blitzing No. 17 UCLA and Nick Florence had supplanted Robert Griffin III as the Bears' season passing leader.

The Bears overwhelmed the Bruins 49-26 in the Bridgepoint Holiday Bowl as Florence threw for two scores and ran for another. Glasco Martin ran for three touchdowns.

Florence completed 10 of 13 passes for 188 yards, giving him 4,309 for the season to break RG3's school record of 4,293 set in his Heisman Trophy-winning 2011 season. Baylor won its final four games and five of six.

Lache Seastrunk rushed 16 times for 138 yards and one score for Baylor, which outgained UCLA 494-362.

Baylor's defense came up big, too. The Bears sacked Brett Hundley six times, including two by Chris McAllister, and shut down the Bruins' ground game limiting them to only 33 yards on 28 carries.

Baylor raced to a 21-0 lead by early in the second quarter on Martin's 4-yard run and Florence's TD passes of 8 yards to Antwan Goodley and 55 yards to Tevin Reese.

After a UCLA score, Baylor added two more touchdowns to put it out of reach at 35-7.

2014 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL

NO. 15 UCF 52, NO. 6 BAYLOR 42

Jan. 1, 2014 • University of Phoenix Stadium • Glendale, Ariz.

No. 6-ranked Baylor, a 17-point favorite in the Fiesta Bowl at kickoff, never led against No. 15 Central Florida in a 52-42 loss at University of Phoenix Stadium.

The Bears rolled up 550 yards, but UCF had 556 and fewer mistakes.

The Knights scored touchdowns on their first two possessions. Baylor tied it at 28 with 10:18 left in the third quarter, but UCF outscored the Bears 24-14 from there in the highest-scoring Fiesta Bowl and second-highest BCS bowl ever.

The Bears were penalized 17 times for 135 yards to UCF's four for 40 yards.

Bryce Petty completed 30 of 46 passes for 356 yards and two touchdowns. The Bears' Lache Seastrunk rushed for 117 yards on 17 carries.

Baylor set the all-time NCAA record for most points in a 13-game season with 681 points.

Petty's career-high and program-record three rushing TDs by a QB were the most by any QB in the 2013-14 bowl season and set a Fiesta Bowl record.

Petty accounted for 20 total points, tied for the second-highest total by a QB in a bowl game since data started being kept in 1996 (24 by Young in 2005 Rose Bowl and 20 by Vince Young in 2006 National Championship).

2015 GOODYEAR COTTON BOWL

NO. 7 MICHIGAN STATE 42, NO. 4 BAYLOR 41

Jan. 1, 2015 • AT&T Stadium • Arlington, Texas

Connor Cook threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Keith Mumphery with 17 seconds left to cap a three-touchdown, fourth-quarter comeback in No. 7 Michigan State's 42-41 victory over playoff-snubbed Baylor on New Year's Day in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl.

The Spartans (11-2) got the winning touchdown after Marcus Rush blocked a Baylor field goal with just more than a minute left.

When No. 4 Baylor (11-2) got the ball back for one last try, Bryce Petty was sacked on consecutive plays before Riley Bullough's clinching interception.

Petty completed 36 of 51 passes for a Cotton Bowl-record 550 yards and three touchdowns, two to speedy freshman KD Cannon and the other to 390-pound backup guard LaQuan McGowan that put Baylor up 41-21 late in the third quarter.

Jeremy Langford ran for 162 yards and three touchdowns for the Spartans, whose only losses were to playoff teams Oregon and Ohio State.

2015 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

NO. 18 BAYLOR 49, NO. 10 NORTH CAROLINA 38

Dec. 29, 2015 • Citrus Bowl Stadium • Orlando, Fla.

Even with several key pieces of the most productive offense in college football missing, Baylor and the creative system of Art Briles proved unstoppable.

Johnny Jefferson rushed for three touchdowns and a record 299 yards, and No. 18 Baylor ran past No. 10 North Carolina 49-38 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

Despite missing two quarterbacks (Seth Russell-neck injury, Jarrett Stidham-broken ankle), the Biletnikoff Award winning receiver (Corey Coleman-hernia surgery), and a 1,000-yard running back (Shock Linwood-broken foot), the Bears' No. 1-ranked scoring offense stayed creative, pounding out 645 yards rushing and 756 total yards -- both records for this bowl.

Devin Chafin added 161 yards and a touchdown, and Terence Williams rushed for 97 yards and two touchdowns for the Bears.

Though sophomore Chris Johnson started the day at QB, five different players -- Johnson, receiver Lynx Hawthorne, and running backs Jefferson, Chafin, and Williams -- all took snaps from center for the Bears within the first two series. They continued to use the quintet in multiple Wildcat formations throughout the game.

2016 MOTEL 6 CACTUS BOWL

BAYLOR 31, BOISE STATE 12

Dec. 27, 2016 • Chase Field • Phoenix, Ariz.

Baylor saved its best for last. Putting together arguably its most complete game since last year's Russell Athletic Bowl victory over North Carolina, the Bears (7-6) steamrolled to a 31-12 rout of the Boise State Broncos Tuesday night in the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl.

Freshman quarterback Zach Smith threw for 375 yards and three touchdowns, offensive MVP KD Cannon hauled in a career-high and school bowl-record 14 passes for 226 yards and two touchdowns and running back Terence Williams recorded his fourth 100-yard game of the season with 103 yards on 25 totes.

But this one was about the defense. Phil Bennett's unit forced three turnovers, had four sacks and held the Broncos (10-3) out of the end zone until Brett Rypien hit Cedrick Wilson with a 28-yard TD pass with just 80 seconds left.

2018 ACADEMY SPORTS HOUSTON BOWL

BAYLOR 45, VANDERBILT 38

Dec. 27, 2018 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas

Two years after taking a leap of faith to join a Baylor football program that was trying to rise from the ashes, sophomores Charlie Brewer and Trestan Ebner led the Bears to an exhilarating 45-38 Texas Bowl victory over Vanderbilt Thursday night at NRG Stadium.

Voted the game MVP, Brewer hooked up with Ebner on a 75-yard TD strike and then Marques Jones for 52 yards in a crazy, back-and-forth game that went down to the wire.

In a game that produced over 1,200 yards combined, Baylor's defense came up with just enough stops to help the Bears pull out their third bowl win in the last four years and finish 7-6 in head coach Matt Rhule's second season.

Vanderbilt (6-7) got the ball back with one more shot after Jones' go-ahead score, but couldn't go anywhere in four downs. Baylor ran out the final 60 seconds and celebrated its third bowl win in four years and first win over an SEC opponent in 33 years.

2020 ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL

NO. 5 GEORGIA 26, NO. 7 BAYLOR 14

Jan. 1, 2020 • Mercedes-Benz Superdome • New Orleans, La.

Outside the Baylor locker room, there were few if any people that thought the Bears would make it to the Superdome this year and play in the New Year's Day Sugar Bowl.

And there were probably even fewer that gave Baylor any chance of making a run at fifth-ranked Georgia after being shut out in the first half and trailing 19-0.

Instead of throwing in the towel, though, the Bears had a spirited second-half comeback with two third-quarter touchdowns and twice had the ball in the final quarter with a chance to make this a one-score game.

Ultimately, the Bulldogs (12-2) had enough to hold off the rally and survived for a 26-14 win before a crowd of 55,211 that left Baylor (11-3) short of that elusive school-record 12th win.

Junior QB Charlie Brewer threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Denzel Mims on the opening drive of the second half and added a one-yard QB keeper that pulled the Bears within 26-14 with 4:10 left in the third quarter.

But, he was knocked out of the game and carted off the field after taking a vicious sideline hit with 8:52 left in the game.

Brewer bounced back from a frustrating first half for the offense to complete 24-of-41 for 211 yards and one touchdown and also scored his 11th rushing TD of the season and 18th of his career. That one rushing touchdown matched the total Georgia's defense had given up all season.

2022 ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL

NO. 6 BAYLOR 21, NO. 8 MISSISSIPPI 7

Jan. 1, 2022 • Caesars Superdome • New Orleans, La.

History made.

Baylor's defense recorded a Sugar Bowl-record 10 sacks, got a 96-yard interception return from Al Walcott and two picks by JT Woods as the sixth-ranked Bears (12-2) defeated No. 8 Ole Miss, 21-7, in the 88th Allstate Sugar Bowl and became the first team in school history to win 12 games.

While the offense sputtered most of the night, Abram Smith rushed for 172 yards on 25 carries and shattered Terrance Ganaway's single-season record with 1,601 yards. He also picked up a big first down on a six-yard reception that set up Gerry Bohanon's two-yard TD pass to Tyquan Thornton that gave Baylor the two-touchdown lead with 7:24 left in the game.

Ole Miss (10-3) lost quarterback Matt Corral late in the first quarter when he had to be helped off the field with a leg injury after a Cole Maxwell sack. Luke Altmeyer went the rest of the way for the Rebels, completing 15 of 29 passes for 174 yards and a touchdown, but he was also sacked eight times and picked off twice.

Terrel Bernard, the Sugar Bowl game MVP, finished with a school record-tying 20 tackles, two sacks and a pass breakup.

BOWL HISTORY

2022 ARMED FORCES BOWL

AIR FORCE 30, BAYLOR 15

Dec. 22, 2022 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth

Coming into Thursday's chilly Armed Forces Bowl, the Baylor Bears had to feel like they had a good chance if they could hold one of the nation's top running backs to a meager 3.1 yards per carry.

Air Force fullback Brad Roberts had to work for every yard he got, finishing with 116 yards on 36 carries and getting stopped twice on fourth-and-short.

But, quarterback Haaziq Daniels took up the slack for his more-heralded teammate, throwing for 103 yards and one touchdown and adding 81 yards and another TD on the ground in leading the Falcons (10-3) to a 30-15 win over the Bears (6-7) before a sparse crowd that braved the freezing conditions at Amon Carter Stadium.

To his credit, Doyle made back-to-back stops on Roberts in the final minute, giving the offense the ball back for one more shot with 22 seconds left. But, Baylor quarterback Blake Shapen was sacked by the Falcons' Payton Zadroik on the final play of the game.

This was a historically cold night. The kickoff temperature of 13 degrees with a wind-chill factor of negative-1 is believed to be the coldest in Baylor football history and one degree higher than the all-time record for any college football bowl game.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

MORLEY JENNINGS

HEAD COACH
1973 INDUCTEE

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 83-60-6 from 1926-40. Ten of Jennings' Baylor teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-8-1. Among the great players he coached were Barton Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell.

BARTON KOCH

LINEMAN
1974 INDUCTEE

Barton "Botchey" Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930, Koch made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1967.

BILL GLASS

OFFENSIVE GUARD
1985 INDUCTEE

Bill Glass was a unanimous consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. As a senior in 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and a 13-7 Sugar Bowl victory over previously undefeated Tennessee. Glass was voted the Houston Post's 1956 SWC Most Valuable Player. After a successful NFL playing career, he became one of the nation's most noted evangelists. Glass was a 1987 Texas Sports Hall of Fame inductee.

JAMES RAY SMITH

OFFENSIVE TACKLE
1987 INDUCTEE

James Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in both 1953 and 1954. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL, Smith remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was selected as a 2004 Cleveland Browns Legend.

LAWRENCE ELKINS

FLANKER
1993 INDUCTEE

In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, Baylor flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in coach John Bridgers' pro-style attack. The first two-time consensus All-American (1963-64) in school history still shares Baylor's single-game record for receptions with 12, which he set against Texas in 1963. In 1963, he also established a then-NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards and helped the Bears defeat LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

MIKE SINGLETARY

LINEBACKER
1995 INDUCTEE

Singletery was the greatest middle linebacker in his era and arguably Baylor's finest football player ever. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time consensus All-American, Singletery also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro eight times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement. Inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, Singletery received a 2006 NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, and is the only Baylor Bear inducted in both the College (1995) and Pro (1998) Football Halls of Fame. Named to FWAA 75th Anniversary team in 2015.

GRANT TEAFF

2001 INDUCTEE

Grant Teaff became Baylor's winningest coach over a 21-year span from 1972 to 1992. He compiled a 128-105-6 record and led the Bears to a pair of Southwest Conference championships and eight bowl games. While posting 12 winning seasons, Teaff also guided six of his Baylor squads to season-ending national rankings. He was selected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995 and currently serves as executive director emeritus of the American Football Coaches Association.

HAYDEN FRY

QUARTERBACK
2003 INDUCTEE

Hayden Fry was a four-year letterwinner at Baylor, quarterbacking the Bears to Top 20 rankings in both 1949 and 1950. He made his most-notable mark on the college football world as a head coach, spending 37 seasons in the Division I-A ranks with stops at SMU, North Texas and Iowa. Fry, who was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997, registered 232 victories as a I-A head coach, 142 of which came at the University of Iowa from 1979-98.

THOMAS EVERETT

FREE SAFETY
2006 INDUCTEE

A two-time first-team All-America selection, free safety Thomas Everett earned the 1986 Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Twice named Southwest Conference Most Valuable Player and first-team all-conference, he was voted the conference's 1986-87 Athlete of the Year. Named to Baylor's 1980s All-Decade Team, Everett was a fourth-round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1987 NFL Draft. He played nine seasons in the NFL with the Steelers, Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

DON TRULL

Trull passed for more than 4,100 yards and 28 touchdowns in his college career from 1961-63. As a 1963 first-team All-American and first-team All-Southwest Conference selection, he led the nation in touchdowns and passing yards his senior season. Trull was a two-time winner of the Sammy Baugh Award for leading the country in completions (1962, 1963), and he finished fourth in Heisman Trophy voting as a senior. Trull led the Bears to the 1961 Gotham Bowl and the 1963 Bluebonnet Bowl under coach John Bridges. He was also the school's first-ever NFF National Scholar-Athlete and first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America. The Oklahoma City native enjoyed an eight-year career in the professional ranks, playing for the Houston Oilers and Boston Patriots as well as the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos.

ALL-AMERICANS

NOTE: In 1950, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau (the NCAA's service bureau) compiled the first official comprehensive roster of all-time All-Americans. The compilation of the All-American roster was supervised by a panel of analysts working in large part with the historical records contained in the files of the Dr. Baker Football Information Service. The NCAA's roster consists of only those players who were first-team selections on one or more of the All-America teams that were selected for the national audience and received nationwide circulation. Not included in the NCAA's list are the thousands of players who received All-America mention on second or third teams, nor the numerous others who were selected by newspapers or agencies with circulations that were not primarily national and with viewpoints, therefore, that were not normally nationwide in scope.

STADIUM HISTORIES

The 2024 campaign marks the 11th season at McLane Stadium, Baylor's state-of-the-art home on the banks of the Brazos River. The 45,140-seat stadium has welcomed Baylor University football and a variety of music, sports, family and lifestyle events in its brief history. BU provided the exclamation point on the debut season by winning a second-straight Big 12 title over Kansas State, 38-27.

The Bears spent the previous 64 seasons at Floyd Casey Stadium, closing "The Case" out in style with a 30-10 victory over Texas that clinched Baylor's first-ever Big 12 Football Championship.

The Baylor Board of Regents voted on July 19, 2012, to move forward with the construction of a $266 million riverfront stadium. The 15-story McLane Stadium project is expected to help stimulate riverfront development, revitalize downtown Waco and bring jobs and economic development to the region.

The vote by Baylor Regents followed very favorable discussion and enthusiastic public comment at a meeting of the Waco City Council. At that meeting, the Council voted unanimously in support of a $35 million public contribution which was endorsed without dissent earlier this month by the downtown Tax Increment Financing (TIF) Zone board. The Council affirmed that vote in early August 2012. The TIF funds covered a portion of public infrastructure around the stadium, such as roads, construction of a pedestrian bridge to provide access across the Brazos River, development of a new marina, the relocation of sewer and electric transmission lines, and water, sewer and drainage facilities.

McLane Stadium was built on a 93-acre site at the intersection of Interstate 35, one of the nation's busiest highways, and the Brazos River, the longest waterway in the state of Texas. The stadium has the flexibility to expand to 55,000, and features a bridge crossing the Brazos connecting the stadium to the campus.

The contractor for the McLane Stadium project was a partnership between Austin Commercial-Flintco LLC. The companies have worked on such Big 12 football facilities as Oklahoma State's Boone Pickens Stadium, Oklahoma's Gaylord Family Memorial Stadium and TCU's Amon G. Carter Stadium. The architect for the project was Kansas City, Mo.-based Populous, which has designed several stadiums, including Yankee Stadium and the football stadium at the University of Minnesota.

The Site

- 93 Acres
- 2,150 on-site parking
- Master plan for year-round site use
- 334 tailgating spots, including 256 with power and cable
- 18 boat slips for sailgating on the Brazos River
- View from I-35 by over 42 million annually
- Umphrey Pedestrian Bridge connecting to campus

The Stadium

- Seats a capacity crowd of 45,140
- Future expansion plan to 55,000
- Six founder's suites
- 36 suites
- 79 Loge boxes
- 1,200 outdoor club seat
- 200 concession points of sale and five retail stores
- 10 elevators and four escalators
- 3,164 tons of structural steel
- 860,000 total gross square feet
- 39 exterior steel columns
- Baylor lockerroom is 50 yards long and 17 yards wide
- Multiple function rooms available year round
- Shaded, open concourses with direct views to field
- 147,000 square-foot canopy shades approximately 45-55 percent of seats throughout day

The 2013 season was Baylor's 64th and final year of football at the 50,000-seat Floyd Casey Stadium. BU closed its run at the facility by winning its first Big 12 championship with a 30-10 victory over No. 23 Texas in the final game of the regular season.

Originally named Baylor Stadium, the structure was built in 1950 after a bond sales program raised $1.5 million for construction costs. The first game played in the new stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over Houston.

In 1989, the stadium was renamed Floyd Casey Stadium after long-time University supporter and trustee Carl B. Casey and his wife Thelma contributed $5 million of an $8 million renovation project in honor of his father Floyd (the name change was officially announced at halftime of the 1988 Homecoming game).

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were used by the Bears. Baylor's first football squad took the field in 1899, but no records are available to prove where it played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility (an unknown number of games were also played at the old Cotton Palace during this period).

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35. The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.

Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where Baylor played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.
